Will Rogers Remarks:

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] How do we stand all this uncertainty? Here it is only ten days till inauguration time and we don't know what Mr. Hoover is going to do and we don't know what Mr. Coolidge is going to do. Lindbergh is the only one of our three prominent men who is not ashamed to have it known in advance what he is going to do.

Mr. Hoover ought to, out of courtesy to its members, announce his Cabinet at once. For just lots of times a Cabinet attracts more attention between the time they are announced and the time they take seats than they ever do afterwards.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

LITTLE AMERICA (Antarctica) Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Commander Byrd took off today for an exploration flight over King Edward Land and also to the South of the mountains he discovered recently. He took two planes this time, the Stars and Stripes, which is a Fairchild, and the Virginia, a Fokker. Byrd went in the Virginia with Bernt Balchen. Lloyd Berkner went with him as radio operator. Capt. Alton U. Parker and Arnold June, a navy pilot, went with him as radio operator.

The flight was planned for yesterday, but the weather did not clear in time and it was postponed until today. The weather was perfect at the base this morning with little wind and only a few feathery clouds under a pale blue sky. The planes had been loaded the night before and after being warmed up they quickly taxied to the end of the field and took off, circling the camp and then headed northeast.

DOOR OPENS FOR COURT

Kellogg Invites New Offer

Secretary of State Advises Powers of Hope American Conditions Can be Met

Proposed Revision of World Tribunal's Protocol Held Insufficient in Notes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Secretary Kellogg in identical notes to the nations composing the World Court said today that the proposed revision of the tribunal's protocol in relation to the fifth reservation of the Senate for adherence would not furnish adequate protection for the United States.

The Secretary of State suggested the possibility that the interest of the United States might be protected in the protocol in some other way or by some other formula.

DELIVERED TO ENVOYS

The portion of the fifth reservation declaring for public sessions on the court's advisory opinions and the other four Senate reservations already have been adopted by twenty-four of the World Court governments in a 1926 conference.

Part of the fifth reservation, however, which states any advisory opinion touching on the United States should be first consented to by this country was not agreed to by the nations.

The communication of the State Department head was delivered to the Washington diplomatic representatives of the nations interested.

"The government of the United States," said Mr. Kellogg, "feels that such an exchange of informal views as is contemplated by the twenty-four governments, should, as herein suggested, lead to agreement upon some provision which in unobjectionable form would protect the rights and interests of the United States as an adherent to the court statute, and this expectation is strongly supported by the fact that there seems to be little difference regarding the substance of these rights and interests."

CONCLUSIONS REVIEWED

In connection with Mr. Kellogg's communication to the World Court governments, it is recalled that Elihu Root, who sailed Saturday for Geneva, to attend a meeting of jurists to consider revision of the court's protocol, held a series of conferences here with President Coolidge, Secretary Kellogg and various Senators.

Secretary Kellogg in his note reviewed the conclusions and recommendations of the 1926 Geneva conference of World Court signatories which accepted the first four Senate reservations and also the portion of the fifth reservation.

"The government of the United States," said Mr. Kellogg, "desires to avoid in so far as possible any proposal which would interfere with or embarrass the work of the Council of the League of Nations, doubtless often perplexing and difficult, and it would be glad if it could dispose of the subject of a simple acceptance of the suggestions embodied in the final act and draft protocol adopted at Geneva September 23, 1926.

ELEMENTS OF UNCERTAINTY

"There are, however, some elements of uncertainty in the bases of these suggestions which would seem to require further discussion. The powers of the Council and its modes of procedure depend upon the covenant of the League of Nations which may be amended at any time. The ruling of the court in the Eastern Carelia case and the rules of the court are also subject to change at any time. For these reasons, without further inquiry into the practicability of the suggestions, it appears that the protocol submitted by the twenty-four governments in relation to the fifth reservation of the United States Senate would not furnish adequate protection to the United States.

"It is gratifying to learn from the proceedings of the conference at Geneva that the considerations inducing the adoption of that part of reservation five giving rise to differences of opinion are appreciated by the powers participating in that conference. Possibly the interest of the United States thus attempted to be safeguarded may be fully protected in some other way or by some other formula."

BALDWIN SAVES CABINET

Clash Over Irish Issue Threatening Government Averted But Churchill May Resign as Result

LONDON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The government was near defeat in the House of Commons tonight through dissatisfaction of its own supporters over the question of compensation to Loyalist supporters in the Irish Free State whose properties have been destroyed or taken over. Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin was summoned hurriedly and saved the situation by virtually throwing over Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and L. C. S. Amery, Secretary of State for the Colonies.

Amery, as Dominions secretary, had submitted a proposal for reduction of an appropriation earlier recommended by a special committee to compensate the Loyalists. He said that the British government already had paid £8,000,000 and that the Saorstat government had paid £2,000,000.

CONSERVATIVES OBJECT

Conservative members of the House (the government party) who long had supported strongly the Loyalists warmly objected to the Secretary's proposal.

Churchill, anxious to defend the treasury, came to Amery's aid and defended the reduction on the ground of economy. However, he failed entirely to still the storm which his and Amery's arguments had aroused among government followers.

These demanded payment in full as a debt of honor and declared their intention to vote against the government, as represented by the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Dominions Secretary. This would have meant decisive defeat of the Cabinet and the Premier was summoned hurriedly.

COST OF INCIDENT

Upon appearing he said that having learned the various opinions expressed he would ask the House to give the government an opportunity to re-examine the entire question. This was agreed to and the government was saved.

The cost of the incident, however, lies in Churchill and Amery having been put in an unpleasant position, they having, it is understood, only defended the position adopted by the entire Cabinet. Churchill showed annoyance and there were rumors, as yet apparently entirely speculative, that he may resign.

SUBZERO WAVE HITS MIDWEST

Tumbling Temperatures Expected Today from Rockies to Ohio

CHICAGO, Feb. 19. (AP)—Another cold wave rode through the Middle West today on the crest of a heavy snowstorm that hampered traffic and added to the discomfort caused by a dozen other zero snaps that have preceded it.

The snow is expected to be followed tonight by a tumbling mercury with subzero readings general tomorrow from the Rocky Mountains to the Ohio River Valley. A little moderation is expected by tomorrow night with higher temperatures by Thursday.

Temperatures in the Dakotas within the past twenty-four hours were from 30 to 42 deg. below zero and subzero readings were reported from many parts of the Northwest.

Lupe Again Says Rumor Not True

She said she is "in love," but that no marriage is contemplated—"not for two—three years."

SLED CREWS PLAN AID TO SILVERTON

Hundreds Face Famine as Slides Block Rail Lines to Colorado Mining Area

DURANGO (Colo.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Preparations were made tonight to send men on snowshoes with sled loads of provisions into the snowbound district around Silverton, Colo., if the railroads are unable to clear their tracks within the next few days.

A dozen or more mining communities in the section have had no communication with the outside world except by telephone since the 3rd inst., when gigantic snow slides blocked all roads and railroads leading into the mountainous country.

Railroad crews had worked night and day to penetrate the snow, which in places covered the track to a depth of 200 feet. It had been hoped that trains could reach Silverton tonight or tomorrow, but a blizzard last night tumbled several new slides into Animas Canyon and covered the tracks on the level with sixteen inches of snow. The new slides are not as severe as the previous avalanches.

The Red Slide, one of the most dangerous in the whole region, has not run this year, but its condition is such that it may crash down into the canyon at any time.

If this slide does not come down, the trainmen expect to have tracks cleared in three or four days. If the slide should fall, it promises to be equal to the worst of the year, and might take weeks to dig through.

Meanwhile inhabitants of the section are known to be on short rations, and there is a serious food shortage in prospect at the Sunnyside mine where 400 men have had no bread, butter, meat or eggs for three days, and where the supply of other foodstuffs is running low.

Pension Favored for Mrs. Wilson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The House Pensions Committee today approved a bill to provide Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of President Wilson, with a pension of $5000 a year.

The committee also approved a bill to provide a pension of $150 a month for Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of the late Gen. Wood, who died while Governor of the Philippine Islands.

Lindbergh Will Fly West Today

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Transcontinental Air Transport announced tonight that Col. Charles A. Lindbergh would take off in the morning for an inspection flight over the air transport's proposed course to the west coast.

Col. Lindbergh arrived last night after making an inaugural air mail flight to Panama for the Pan-American Airways of which he is technical adviser.

Today he went down the bay and met his mother, who was returning from several months' teaching in Constantinople.

TRAIN BURNS UNDER RIVER

Hudson Tube Emits Smoke and Flame Two Hours as Passengers Trample Each Other in Terror

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Ten persons were injured seriously and 150 others trampled, burned or overcome by stifling gases when fire on a ten-car train, bound for Jersey City, transformed the Hudson tube near Christopher-street station into a fiery furnace of terror for nearly two hours early tonight.

The motorman of the train and three women, mangled by glass broken in the panic that followed the fire, are not expected to live.

Three cars, the first, second and ninth, belched flames from below for half an hour, according to investigators.

Fighting, screaming and stampeding ruthlessly over one another in the darkness as the billowing black smoke drove them back from their rush to escape to the tracks, the frenzied passengers milled about for half an hour before a stream of rescuers with stretchers reached them.

The train, a local, was jammed with more than 1000 Jerseyites returning home from work in the fur and other mercantile districts in midtown Manhattan when it slid from the Herald Square terminus in Manhattan at 6:40 p.m. More shoved their way into the crowded car at the Christopher-street station and the train picked up speed for the swift run under the Hudson. About 200 feet west of the station, a blinding flash in the first car brought the train to a jerky stop, throwing men, women and children about. The train was left in darkness and quickly filled with black smoke as flames spread along the insulation under the cars and threw the passengers into a frenzy of fear. Fire Chief John Kenlon said the accumulation of grease on the ties fed the flames and caused most of the stifling smoke and gases.

IMPEACHMENT OF HARDY VOTED BY COMMITTEEMEN

Assembly Ready to Approve Report so Senate Must Try Jurist; Aimee McPherson Awaited

BY C. A. JONES
"Times" Staff Representative

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Impeachment of Superior Judge Hardy of Los Angeles was voted late today by the legislative committee which for the past thirty days has been investigating his acts.

This announcement was made by Assemblyman Little, chairman, after an executive committee session. He declined to go further into the matter.

The committee's recommendation will be submitted to the Assembly either tomorrow or Thursday. The report has not been written as yet, it is understood, although the committee, which in addition to Chairman Little, is composed of Assemblymen Sewell of Whittier, Woolwine of Los Angeles, Hornblower of San Francisco and Clowdsley of Stockton, worked on it tonight.

In the event the Assembly follows the recommendations of its committee, the Senate will sit as a high court of impeachment. Members of the Assembly have expressed themselves as intending to follow the report of the committee. It is regarded as doubtful if there will be organized opposition to the committee report.

PROGRAM OUTLINED

When the committee report is submitted to the Assembly, it is probable that a resolution will be introduced authorizing Assemblymen Little, Woolwine, Sewell, Hornblower and Clowdsley to constitute themselves as managers, representing the Assembly, to draw up charges, submit them to the Senate and prosecute the case.

Lieut.-Gov. Carnahan will preside and the entire forty members sit as judges. A two-thirds vote is necessary for conviction. If less than twenty-seven vote for conviction Judge Hardy will be acquitted. Conviction runs only so far as loss of office.

Today's action by the committee follows a series of executive meetings and conferences during the past two days. Various rumors and reports have emanated from the session room as to expected action, but it is understood that the committee will stand together and will act as a unit.

McPHERSON ANGLE

The fact that the name of Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson, Angelus Temple evangelist, has overshadowed Judge Hardy in the public mind was a factor in the committee decision, it is believed. The committee consistently has hewed to the line in investigating Judge Hardy's actions and not those of Mrs. McPherson, and it is probable that the report will stress Judge Hardy's affairs outside his relations with Angelus Temple more than his connection with the McPherson drowning, kidnaping, prosecution and dismissal.

Mrs. McPherson is scheduled to arrive in the vicinity of Sacramento tomorrow morning. She is under instructions to appear before the committee Thursday morning. Cromwell Ormsby, her attorney who forcibly was removed from the presence of the committee two weeks ago in Los Angeles, has been in Sacramento two days, for the ostensible purpose of winning her release from the committee. Mr. Ormsby, it is related, laid down certain conditions under which Mrs. McPherson will appear. The committee responded, it is reported, that she is under subpoena and will answer it or take the consequences.

ARRIVAL EXPECTED

The report is that Mrs. McPherson will reach the home of friends on a ranch near Willows tomorrow morning. It was at that ranch that Rolf McPherson, her son, was housed during the time when his mother was supposed to have been drowned or kidnaped. Mrs. Mae Waldron Immel, Mrs. McPherson's secretary, is scheduled to arrive in Sacramento tomorrow or Thursday as is Brother J. W. Arthur, the temple's bookkeeper in 1926.

Another report current today is that Assemblymen Woolwine and Sewell, having located Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, the business manager of Angelus Temple during the period when Mrs. Kennedy's daughter, Mrs. McPherson, was missing, will leave immediately to take her deposition. Mrs. Kennedy last was reported in Portland. She has refused to return to California but has indicated her willingness to make sensational revelations.

Support of this last rumor was

Withhold Pact Acceptance

Will Do Nothing Involving Recognition of Dam Act's Validity

Six-State Ratification Now Regarded Only Outcome of Conference

SANTA FE (N. M.) Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Stronger and stronger are becoming the indications tonight that a seven-State compact in ratification of the Boulder Dam Act and consummation of the Boulder dam project cannot possibly become an actuality as the result of the Santa Fe conference. At the end of the fourth day of deliberations delegates from all of the States plainly are discouraged at the lack of progress that has been made.

And by the same token it is becoming more and more apparent that California and Nevada are of the opinion that a six-State compact, with Arizona outside, will almost certainly be the ultimate result of all the Colorado River compact negotiations. The position taken by Arizona, as interpreted thus far to the conference by the delegates from that State, has been that Arizona cannot agree to any proposal that actually acknowledges the validity of the Boulder Dam Act. With that premise in mind, the delegates from the other States feel extremely dubious of even a remote chance for a seven-State compact as the result of the attempt to draw up a tri-State agreement here.

GILA WATERS ISSUE

That viewpoint was brought into evidence this afternoon when W. B. Mathews of the California commission, in replying to a proposition made by the Utah delegation, said:

"We hope Utah will ratify the six-State compact so that the actual work on Boulder dam may be started."

Commissioner Mathews's statement came after Arizona had refused to agree to either of two proposals made by Utah regarding development of the upper-basin areas of the Colorado.

Earlier in the day Arizona's firm stand that the waters of the Gila River be exempted from any provisions of the act as regards demands in Mexico or the Imperial Valley, met with stern opposition from the upper-basin States. Those States insisted that the Gila be treated equally with other tributary streams to the Colorado in so far as prior liens on water of the latter are concerned.

It was the contention of Commissioner John Mason Ross of Arizona that the act "erroneously" assumes that the Gila is a tributary of the Colorado.

HOOVER BACK IN CAPITAL

Meeting Planned With Coolidge and Conferences Will be Held With Others to Discuss Policies

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—President-elect Hoover returned to Washington today from his Florida vacation with the intention of holding an early conference with President Coolidge from whom he will take over the reins of government on March 4.

Thus will be furnished additional evidence of the continuity of the two Republican administrations, with the next Chief Executive pledged to carry on the major policies of his predecessor to which he gave praise in his acceptance speech last August.

OTHER MATTERS

This conference constitutes one of the major reasons for the return of Mr. Hoover to the capital thirteen days in advance of his inauguration. There are others, of course, including conversations with a number of party leaders on a variety of subjects and the completion of the inaugural address.

The return of the President-elect revived Cabinet discussion in Washington and brought forth some new speculation. There is a suggestion that instead of becoming Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson will be named Attorney-General and that William J. Donovan, now assistant to the Attorney-General, will be made Secretary of War.

It is argued that Mr. Stimson is known as a driving prosecutor and consequently would fit well into the picture as the head of the prosecuting arm of the Federal government. He already has served as Secretary of War and it is not believed that he will be returned to that post.

MUCH CONJECTURE

Even before election there was conjecture regarding the selection of Mr. Donovan as Attorney-General, but in recent weeks his name has rather dropped out of the general Cabinet discussions. However, he and Mr. Hoover are close personal friends and it is believed that while he might prefer the post of Attorney-General the former commanding officer of New York's "Fighting Sixty-ninth" will accept

EASTERN ROADS' MERGER ON FOOT

Baltimore & Ohio May Buy Ten Trunk Lines

Territory to be Served by Four Huge Systems

Asks Commerce Commission to Charter Combine

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Long discussed plans of eastern railroad interests for consolidating virtually all the rail mileage in the northeastern quarter of the United States into four giant systems emerged concretely today into public view.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad formally asked the Interstate Commerce Commission to approve steps which it may take to expand its present system by the acquisition of a half-score of other trunk lines. It requested permission to purchase the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville, the Wabash, the Ann Arbor and the Buffalo and Susquehanna railroads.

SMALL FRY ALSO

In addition it asked permission to complete acquisition of the Western Maryland, the Reading, the Central Railroad of New Jersey and the Lehigh and Hudson River, some of which it now owns in whole or in part. With the completion of the purchasing program outlined, the petition said, the Baltimore and Ohio would come into existence as a corporation operating 13,814 miles of trunk line railroad with a capital investment of $2,192,000,000.

The commission also was requested to approve the acquisition by the enlarged Baltimore and Ohio of a quarter interest in four additional railroads, the Lehigh and New England, the Montour Railroad, the Pittsburgh and West Virginia, the Pittsburgh, Chartiers and Youghiogheny, and a half-interest in the Detroit and Toledo Shore Line Railroad.

The enlarged Baltimore and Ohio system projected would be strong enough, it was said, to compete on equal terms with the New York Central, the Pennsylvania and the Van Sweringen group of railroads headed by the Chesapeake and Ohio.

ANOTHER COMBINE ON

It was declared that the Van Sweringen group is preparing a merger project and that the whole program would shortly be laid before the commission. In addition the petition said that the Baltimore and Ohio would acquire and operate any short or weak lines in its territory that the commission considered should be acquired.

At the end of the projected four-system consolidation, the petition added, eastern territory outside of New England would be served by four great trunk systems, approximately equal in size, would have access to principal ports and cities and each would be capable of maintaining competitive relations with all of the others.

FAMOUS RUSSIAN GEMS FOR SALE

Grand Duchess Offers Large Diamond and Emerald on London Market

LONDON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Daily Mail says two famous jewels from the imperial Russian treasury are being offered for sale in London, but this time not by the Bolsheviks. They are the property of the widow of Grand Duke Nicholas.

The gems originally belonged to the Empress Catherine. One is a fifteen-carat rose diamond, for which, it is said, the late Emperor Nicholas refused an offer of £150,000. The other is a seventeen-carat emerald. The paper says the Grand Duchess wants between £50,000 and £60,000 for the two.

Phillips of San Jose. Phillips was booked on a technical charge of manslaughter, but witnesses of the accident said he was not to blame. The child was the daughter of William Dugan, San Francisco undertaker.

Hope for Three-State Pact Fading Out

California Asks Utah to Take Action

sive development of the entire Colorado River basin, following the construction of Boulder dam, the initial unit in the scheme. California and Nevada pledged themselves to join Utah and other upper-basin States in recommending the construction of dams at Flaming Gorge and Dewey, providing engineering investigation reveals them to be feasible.

Having fought for this recognition, the Utah emissaries apparently are content to return home and will leave here tomorrow.

California and Nevada definitely refused to make the Dewey and Flaming Gorge concessions dependent upon the construction of Boulder Dam or as a part of that enterprise.

Louis J. Holther of Utah, had drawn up the resolution embodying Utah's attitude. The resolution clearly tied the Flaming Gorge and Dewey dam propositions into the Boulder dam project by making it a part of the flood control. In the $165,000,000 provided by the government there is an item of $40,000,000 for the construction of coffer dams and two tunnels or bypasses for the control of the river waters during the construction of the main dam.

It was the idea of the Utah delegation that this amount could be reduced considerably by the two upper dams, providing a way of checking the Colorado River during the Boulder dam construction.

CALIFORNIA'S PLEDGE

California and Nevada, as well as the rest of the upper-basin States, took the view that it would be impossible to make this plan a part of the main project.

W. B. Mathews of the California commission declared that State is sympathetic to these two projects as well as to the comprehensive development of the upper basin.

"We hope Utah will ratify the six-State compact that the actual work on the Boulder dam may be started," said Commissioner Mathews. "We do not want to see these two projects linked with Boulder dam, as they would defer construction of the dam for years until these two were built. But we will certainly aid Utah and the upper-basin States in whatever development you agree upon."

Senator Wilson McCarthy of Utah asked Commissioner Mathews if formal recognition at this time of the principle of upper dam construction, would be prejudicial to negotiating a three-State compact, and the latter asserted it would. He said Arizona would not agree to anything. He added such a resolution formally adopted would hinder consummation of the three-State pact. Commissioner Mathews voiced the fear that, in the last analysis, Arizona would not then join a three-State agreement.

Mark Rose of the California delegation said he believed Utah would have to enter a compact with Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico before the dams at Flaming Gorge and Dewey could be built.

ISSUE NARROWED

Representative I. A. Smoot asserted the Utah House of Representatives might ratify a six-State pact, but that he doubted if the Senate would approve unless definite assurances were taken back to Salt Lake City.

George W. Malone, Nevada's commissioner, reminded the Utah delegation that when amendments were offered to the Swing-Johnson bill last December, Senator William H. King proposed them for Commissioner Wallace and that "all things that should properly hook into the project" were adopted.

Commissioner Malone said he was against any resolution which would tie the two upper dams to the Boulder Canyon project but his State would support Utah in building the two dams as the next step in the comprehensive plan for the development of the river. He reminded Utah that "the conference here is for one thing, the agreement between the three lower-basin States, and while we are dealing with Arizona we do not want to prejudice our position."

With the Utah questions out of the way, the tri-State conferees plan to seek tomorrow to narrow down the conference to consideration of "highly vital questions." That was translated as meaning that an effort will be made by California and Nevada to get Arizona to offer something tangible as a basis for negotiations, although delegations from both California and Nevada did not hesitate to express their doubt of being able to do so.

SIX-STATE RATIFICATION DEMANDED IN PETITION

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 19. (AP)—A demand for ratification of the six-State compact on the Boulder Dam project by the present session of the Utah Legislature was made today by a committee of 100 Salt Lake City citizens in a statement which declared that otherwise Utah's interests might be endangered.

The statement declares that six-State ratification would afford as effective protection for this State as seven-Sate ratification, and that Utah is not concerned with any agreement among the lower-basin States.

BILL PROHIBITING POWER PROJECTS APPROVED

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The House Interstate Commerce Committee today approved the Taylor bill to prohibit the Federal Power Commission from granting any irrigation or power permit on the Colorado River and its tributaries, except the Gila River, until March, 1930. Representative Taylor, Democrat, Colorado, said the measure is intended to protect the interests of the upper-basin States in the Boulder Canyon dam project.

AIMEE McPHERSON ON WAY TO SACRAMENTO

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Mrs. Aimee Semple McPherson, Los Angeles evangelist, today was on her way to Sacramento to keep an appointment with the investigation committee of the California Legislature. The committee will meet Thursday for a reopening of the investigation of the $2500 "love offering" extended to Judge Carlos G. Hardy by Angelus Temple, over which Mrs. McPherson presides.

The evangelist passed through Portland today on the Shasta Limited. She confined herself to her drawing-room and received no one.

The mother of the evangelist, Mrs. Minnie Kennedy, who has been in Portland for two weeks, checked out of her hotel here today. She is believed to have left for Seattle. Mother and daughter did not meet.

SHE SAYS HARDY "CANNOT BE GUILTY"

SEATTLE, Feb. 19. (AP)—"The investigation, no, I know nothing about it—Judge Hardy is a fine man, and cannot be guilty of any wrongdoing. So I am expected to be in Sacramento Thursday, am I? Well, I'll be there to tell again all I know."

In this wise did Aimee Semple McPherson, evangelist, answer queries on her return here tonight from revival services in Vancouver, B. C., reporting "many souls won to the Lord."

HARDY OFFERS TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

Judge Hardy when informed of the action of the Assembly committee last night had the following comment to make:

"I cannot make any statement until I have received official notification that the Assembly committee has taken some action. The case must necessarily go to the Senate and the latter body will take such action as it sees fit.

"I understood there is to be another hearing before the committee Thursday, when additional testimony is scheduled to be heard. I am ready at any and all times to appear before that inquisitorial body."

Both Judge Hardy and Mrs. McPherson deny that the $2500 check the jurist is charged with accepting at the time Mrs. McPherson was undergoing investigation as the result of her charges that she was kidnaped in May, 1926, was for legal services rendered.

Judge Hardy always has admitted the check, but has characterized it as a "gift" from the temple for his radio speeches and other temple efforts, "which antedated Mrs. McPherson's disappearance from the Ocean Park beach in May of 1926," he said last night.

whatever assignment the next President may ask him to take.

The name of Senator Borah of Idaho also got back into the Cabinet discussion in connection with the Attorney-Generalship, but intimate friends of the Idaho Senator declared he will not become a member of Mr. Hoover's official family, preferring to retain his position as chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

HE KEEPS SILENT

Whether Mr. Hoover has completed his Cabinet still is an open question as he himself is giving no information on the subject and is determined to keep secret as far as lies within his power the names until they are sent to the Senate for confirmation at a special session to be called for March 4.

The President-elect and Mrs. Hoover with nearly fifty members of their party had an uneventful but unusually swift journey from their preinaugural home at Belle Isle, the special train pulling into Union Station exactly twenty-four hours after leaving Miami at 10:30 a.m. yesterday.

As Mr. Hoover stepped from his private car those gathered about remarked that he never looked to be in better physical condition. His face is tanned by the semitropical sun of Southern Florida and there is no doubt that the vacation has done him and Mrs. Hoover much good.

SCION OF ADAMS "SLATED" FOR CABINET

BOSTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Boston Post tomorrow will say that it has learned upon excellent authority that Charles Francis Adams, descendant of two Presidents of the United States, treasurer of Harvard University and one of the country's best-known yachting authorities, will be New England's representative in the Cabinet of Herbert Hoover.

The Post says that the portfolio which Mr. Adams will be invited to fill is understood to be that of Secretary of the Navy.

Australia Faces Political Crisis

CANBERRA (Australia) Feb. 19. (AP)—The Federal government today faced the biggest political crisis since Premier Hughes went out of office in 1926, the casus belli being the financial agreement bill which eliminates per capita payments by the commonwealth to the States. The Labor party is solidly in favor of restoration of these payments.

The defeat of the government would mean the resignation of Stanley Bruce, Prime Minister, and his Cabinet and formation of a Ministry by James Henry Scullin, Labor leader. As the latter could not hope to retain control a general strike would be inevitable.

Just before the final vote had been taken after Senator Bruce, Democrat, Maryland, who retires March 4, declared, "I wish to pronounce a curse on this bill with my last dying breath."

"It is another step in the march of tyranny," he asserted, "by marking out all distinction between first and subsequent offenses."

Senator Jones described his bill as one directed primarily at the large bootlegger. The measure was supported by the Prohibition Bureau and by Mrs. Mabel Walker Willebrandt, assistant Attorney-General in charge of prohibition cases in the Department of Justice.

COOLIDGE APPROVES EXTRA DRY LAW APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—President Coolidge has drawn up for submission to Congress a supplemental budget estimate recommending that an additional $2,427,514 be appropriated for prohibition enforcement in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1930.

It was explained at the White House that assurance had been given that proponents of the $24,000,000 amendment for prohibition enforcement, which was attached to the first deficiency bill, will be satisfied with the sum recommended by Mr. Coolidge.

The item of $24,000,000 for dry law enforcement was placed in the deficiency appropriation bill at the instance of Senator Harris, Democrat, Georgia. The House declined to accept it and since then the bill has been tied up awaiting Senate reconsideration.

Recently the Treasury informed the House Appropriations Committee that it could use $2,500,000 more immediately to strengthen enforcement by the prohibition and customs services.

Mr. Coolidge recommended the supplemental appropriation after conferences with members of the House and Senate, the Treasury Department and the Budget Bureau. His callers from Congress thought it best to deal in this way with the situation brought on by the $24,000,000 amendment. They wished to be consistent in their stand on the subject, it was explained, and the President was willing to waive consistency on his part to bring this about.

Mr. Coolidge was of the opinion that he had recommended appropriations covering all amounts it would be advantageous to spend, but was willing to be guided by the judgment of those with whom he conferred.

Members of the Byrd Antarctic Expediti selected Waterman's as a matter of course
In the selection of every item of equipment for the Byrd Antarctic Expedition, absolute dependability was the all-important factor. Simply as a matter of course, therefore, Waterman's fountain pens were supplied to every member.
It was to be expected, too, that Waterman's Blue Black would be the official ink. And, to meet the rigid exactions of the Antarctic continent, itself, we supplied a non-freezing ink made by a special formula.
Because Waterman's No. 7 is made in seven different styles of pen points, each identified by a distinct color inlay band on the cap, it is the "Ideal" pen for fitting perfectly, the many different types of writing. Price $7.00.

DURING the period of recuperation Nujol will help you. It is a real health promotor. Keeps the system functioning normally, does not allow it to get clogged up.
Physicians agree that, particularly if you've been sick, purging by laxatives and cathartics is not advisable. Many doctors are, therefore, prescribing Nujol, as in no case does it cause exhaustion or weakening of the system. It regulates the system, eliminates poisons, and brings about better health.
Nujol is as harmless as pure water. Just a fine natural substance that keeps the system working at all times the way nature meant it to. Regularly. Easily. Normally.
Nujol may be given to little babies, very old folks, invalids and others who are easily upset by more drastic methods.
Let Nujol help to restore you to complete and vigorous health. Take a spoonful every night. After a trial you'll have more ambition, and energy, feel more optimistic. You'll soon look and be yourself again.
Nujol has been used for years by thousands of people, as a regular part of their health regimen. It's surprising how it straightens you out when you feel dull and heavy. Especially in winter when you don't get nearly enough exercise. Or eat enough green foods.

ARK TREES GET HOPES FOR LIFE

ing Victory Won by Friends in House

l for Condemnation of Private Land Passes

e Likely to Withdraw Former Opposition

ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG
"Times" Staff Correspondent

TON, Feb. 19. (Ex-[illegible]—Friends of the national [illegible] won a smashing victory today when the House voted 304 to 28 [illegible] upon its provision in the [illegible] Department appropriation [illegible] giving the government power [illegible] privately owned lands in [illegible] preserves by condemnation [illegible] necessary, as well as [illegible]

[illegible] of the decisive stand [illegible] by the lower branch, the Senate [illegible] expected finally to withdraw [illegible] to the condemnation [illegible] with the result that the government will launch upon a $6,000,000 [illegible] half to be financed by [illegible] funds, for saving some of [illegible] finest stands of trees in the [illegible] threatened cutting operations which would denude large [illegible] in the parks and greatly mar [illegible] beauty.

John D. Rockefeller is said to [illegible] $1,000,000 toward such [illegible]

SENATORS OBJECTED

[illegible] acute situation exists in Yosemite, where all private [illegible] have been consolidated in [illegible] of one California company [illegible] planned to start logging [illegible] this spring. An[illegible] a change in plans, however, [illegible] agitation for condemnation [illegible] started in Congress.

[illegible] halted at the conference [illegible] when Senators [illegible] and Wheeler, Democrats of [illegible] protested that summer [illegible] which they and their friends [illegible] Glacier National Park would [illegible] in jeopardy, and when the [illegible] measure went to conference [illegible] the two houses, it [illegible] an immediate deadlock on [illegible]. After several meetings [illegible] Smoot of Utah suggested [illegible] whereby condemnation [illegible] be applicable to Yosemite [illegible] the House conferees headed by Representative Cramton of [illegible] stood pat.

[illegible] Smoot announced tonight [illegible] will ask the Senate to recede from its objections. [illegible] indications are his advice [illegible] followed.

RAISE FUNDS IN WEST

[illegible] stand has been that the government with power only to purchase the lands would face endless delays and exorbitant price demands.

With the dispute over condemnation settled there is expected to be no opposition to the appropriation of $250,000 carried in the bill to start the program with authority for contracts obligating the government up to an additional $2,750,000. This proposed $3,000,000 in government money would be matched by Rockefeller's million and $2,000,000 raised among other private individuals and civic groups in the West.

The Interior Department and national park service plan to start out, if the plan is approved by Congress, by first buying up private lands in Yosemite and other forests where there is more or less immediate threat of private timber cutting, extending their efforts finally until all privately owned tracts in all the national forests are in possession of the government.

VETERANS WILL SEE INAUGURAL

Twenty Confederates From Mississippi Home Plan Trip to Washington

JACKSON (Miss.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Twenty Confederate veterans from the State Home for Old Soldiers at Beauvoir will go to Washington for the inauguration of Herbert Hoover, in addition to Gov. Bilbo and his official staff from Mississippi.

Gov. Bilbo granted authority for the veterans to make the trip and the Illinois Central and the Southern Railways have agreed to transport them to the capital and back free of cost.

The veterans will carry their own cook and provisions.

Marines Again Guard Legation

PEKING, Feb. 19. (AP)—Extra American marine guards were called out today for duty in the fortress-like legation quarters where the Chinese policemen have gone on strike. The police, who are employed by the international settlement administrative council, have made various demands, including a wage increase.

The American marines went on guard over the four gates of the quarter near the American Minister's house. The other gates were guarded by British, French, Japanese and Italians.

POINCARE SAVED BY SMALL VOTE

Confidence Ballot Gives Him Six Majority

Onslaught Engineered by Parliament Radicals

Advantage Taken of Premier During Illness

PARIS, Feb. 19. (AP)—Premier Raymond Poincare by the small margin of six votes today saved his government from a sudden onslaught by the radicals who had quit him last November. The attack in the Chamber of Deputies came when the relatively inoffensive and harmless reform bill was called for discussion.

The French Parliament, giving corroboration to the old saying, "While the cat is away the mice will play," apparently took advantage of the fact that the Premier was confined to his room because of a slight attack of grip. His place as leader of the Poincare cohorts was taken by Minister of Justice Barthou. The question was made a vote of confidence and the Poincare followers registered 291 to opposition's 285.

The dissatisfaction in some quarters over the small amount of information which is coming from the rooms where the committee of experts is discussing German reparations came up in the course of the debate. A Communist Deputy shouted, "It is a diplomatic illness from which the Premier is suffering; he is troubled by the deadlock of the experts' committee."

Some observers saw in the slight majority indication that many Deputies usually faithful to the government had an eye today upon the coming municipal elections and for that reason hesitated to reject the Radical-Socialist project for re-establishment of the many small tribunals suppressed in 1926.

MULE RANKS AS CITY EMPLOYEE

Atlanta Mayor Insists Aged Animal be Pensioned, Not Fed to Lions

ATLANTA (Ga.) Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Mayor Ragsdale, who has spent years in the mule business, will purchase Honest Ben from the city of Atlanta rather than have the aged mule slaughtered and fed to zoo lions.

The Mayor this afternoon vetoed a City Council resolution instructing the park department to dispose of the animal.

"I'm willing to buy the mule if the Council will permit. I would then turn him over to City Clerk Taylor, who has a pasture for him," said Mayor Ragsdale. "All other city employees are granted pensions after long service and I am willing to help pension old Ben."

The mule is said to be so old he has to be fed with a spoon.

RADIO PHONE PLANNED TO RUN TRAINS

Wireless from Engine to Caboose Will be Used on New York Central Lines

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The New York Central Railroad today asked the Radio Commission for permission to institute a radio telephone service between the crew in the locomotive and those in the caboose of its freight trains.

E. C. Keenan, general superintendent of telephone and telegraph for the New York Central Lines told the commission that such communication will be of extreme value in promoting the efficient and safe operation of freight trains and expediting the handling of freight. It will not conflict with other radio service, he said, as only one short wave frequency will be necessary to operate a receiving and sending telephone set on every freight train the New York Central operates.

TAX MEASURE UP TOMORROW

State Senate Expected to Pass 4 Per Cent Bill

Rougher Sledding Forecast in Assembly

Bank Levy Opposed Before Joint Committee

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Opposition to the 4 per cent net income tax on banks and corporations developed tonight at a joint meeting of the revenue and taxation committees of the Senate and Assembly, but, in the opinion of legislators who are steering the bill, it is not serious enough to prevent adoption.

It appeared likely tonight that the Senate will vote on the tax measure Thursday morning and send it to the Assembly, where it may have rougher sledding. The bill must be adopted and signed by the Governor by March 4 to become effective for this tax year, according to its sponsors.

At the same time Senator Nelson of Eureka, chairman of the Senate committee, took up his bill to levy a tax of 2 mills per dollar on intangibles. The constitutional amendment, voted by the people last November, set this tax at 3 mills, but empowered the Legislature, by two-thirds vote, to change the rate, provided it did not exceed 4 mills.

Senator Nelson contends that 2 mills is a sufficient tax on this form of property in view of the fact that the tangible property the securities represent itself is subject to taxation. A 2-mill tax, Senator Nelson says, is equivalent to a 4 per cent levy on the income from a 5 per cent bond, while a 3-mill tax represents the imposition of more than 5 per cent. He stated that in his opinion the Senate will give the 2-mill measure a two-thirds vote.

REALTY OFFSET

The California State Real Estate Association, represented by Attorney Henry Monroe, suggested to the committee an offset of 10 per cent on real estate taxes paid locally, thus reducing somewhat the State income tax on real estate corporations. All corporations, under the bill, are allowed a 90 per cent offset on personal property taxes paid. This is permissible because banks are not taxed on personal property, but do pay real estate taxes. Due to the provisions of the Federal statutes, national banks cannot be discriminated against in State taxes. This means that in order to grant corporations a real estate offset, the Senate concession must be given banks.

According to Director Heron of the State Department of Finance, the 10 per cent real estate offset saves $300,000 for real estate corporations, but will cost the State, in revenue, more than $1,000,000. Should the real estate offset be granted, he said, it will be necessary to boost the rate of taxation from 4 per cent to 5 per cent to make up for the lost revenue.

MANUFACTURERS' VIEW

The California Manufacturers' Association, in voicing its opposition to the tax bill, contends that the entire tax situation should be referred to the board of equalization and delayed long enough for a report from that body. This means, of course, that the new tax plan will not become effective for this tax year. The association contends that the study of the State Tax Commission, which has been at work for more than a year, is not thorough enough and that the present legislation is too hasty.

The amendments introduced in the committee are principally technical in nature and define and clarify certain portions of the bill. One amendment permits the taxpayer to figure out his tax, changing the original provisions which called for the bureau chief to work out the tax and make the demand on the taxpayer. Another amendment will allow the taxpayer to deduct from net income the income received from California public utility corporations and insurance companies which have paid the State tax. The bill originally allowed this deduction against dividends from other corporations which had paid the income tax.

Federal Labor Agency Urged

MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 19. (AP)—A potential clearinghouse of information, intended to decrease unemployment, was discussed at the meeting here today of the American Federation of Labor's executive council, members of which indicated that Federal aid may be sought in its establishment and operation.

"We feel that unemployment has reached the point where some agency should help men temporarily unemployed to find work for which they are fitted," said President William Green of the federation and chairman of the council.

The agency, members of the council declared, should be under Federal control and should be provided with all facts and figures to help men displaced by the advent of improved mechanical devices, or for other reasons, to find new places.

'Fastest Track' Seen by Racer

CAPETOWN (South Africa) Feb. 19. (AP)—Capt. Malcolm Campbell has returned to Capetown after making an aerial survey of the track of sun-baked clay at Verneuk Pan on which he hopes to attain a new world's speed record for motor cars. He said he is confident of breaking the world's record of 206½ miles an hour as he thinks the track is the best in the world.

The financial outlook for the attempt is much brighter, he said, as a result of a gift of $2500 from Sir Ernest Oppenheimer of Kimberly and a promise of $5000 from the South African government under certain conditions.

RAIDERS OF AIR IN LEGISLATURE

Invaders Circle Dome and Meet Committees

Army Urges Aviation Laws Follow Federal Acts

Pilots Ask Commercial Flyers be Guarded

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19. (AP)—Air raiders swooped down from the clouds today after circling once about the Capitol dome and alighted to invade the California Legislature where aircraft legislation was being considered by joint committees of both houses.

Lieut.-Col. Gerald C. Brant, commandant of Crissy Field, San Francisco, led the army flyers, commercial air pilots and internationally known aviators on the friendly invasion.

Lieut.-Col. Brant bore an official message from the United States War Department, recommending that the California Legislature consider and carefully weigh all legislation regulating aviation and adopt only that which conformed with Federal laws.

PREPARE FOR WAR

The interest of the army in commercial aviation, Brant said, is purely a selfish one. The War Department realizes, he went on, that never in time of peace can it possibly adquately prepare for war, and must look, in war time, to the commercial field for army flyers and material.

"California leads the United States in aviation. She has more planes—now over 1200—more aviators and more air miles are flown per day in California than in any other State," Brant said. "It would be a serious error to pass certain legislation you are now considering that might be harmful to commercial aviation. What the army is interested in is laws stabilizing commercial aviation and conforming with the Federal regulations."

Accompanying Lieut.-Col. Brant were Capt. F. N. Shoemaker, Capt. R. A. Palmer, Maj. Emory Bronte, trans-Pacific flyer; Maj. Livingston Irving, unsuccessful Dole race flyer; Peter B. Kyne, the novelist; W. J. Barrows and Edward Lowe, Jr.

Bronte, Irving, Palmer and Barrows all reported to the joint committee that commercial aviators, as well as the Army, are opposed to the passage of a measure by Assemblyman Nielsen of Sacramento that would provide State registration of pilots and planes and place aviation under the jurisdiction of the Division of Motor Vehicles.

MAY BE REDRAFTED

After considerable discussion Assemblyman Bishop of Alameda suggested that the Nielsen bill be redrafted after the Army and commercial aviation interests had been consulted to conform with the desires of both interests, possibly along the general lines of a bill passed by the Assembly of New York State that was offered by Lieut.-Col. Brant as having War Department approval.

The objection to Nielsen's bill was finally boiled down to an objection in behalf of commercial flyers to State regulation by the Division of Motor Vehicles and a desire for Federal regulation to be adopted by the State.

Lieut.-Col. Brant summed up the Army viewpoint by declaring the Army desires to "back up and put teeth in Federal aviation laws in the State," and that "the Army does not want commercial aviation discouraged."

Peter B. Kyne referred to another air measure pending in committee—an act to make the 2-cent gas tax apply to aircraft.

"I intend buying a plane and learning to pilot it, but I'd object to paying a gasoline tax for using aerial highways of the State," he commented.

All parties to the hearing adjourned to further study the Nielsen bill in particular and all other legislation pertaining to air travel and will reassemble at a later date for further discussion.

Northcott Pair Confer Briefly at San Quentin

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Gordon Stewart Northcott, condemned slayer of young boys on his Wineville ranch, came out of the shadow of the noose for fifteen minutes today while he and his supposed mother, Mrs. Sarah Louise Northcott, met for the first time since his trial.

The interview took place in the office of the captain of the yard. As the woman entered the office tears were streaming down her cheeks.

"Oh, mother," cried Stewart as they embraced.

The two gasped out inquiries concerning each others' health and discussed the recent murder case and trial.

The two engaged in rapid conversation for fifteen minutes and parted.

COSTES CRASHES IN FRANCE

World Flyer and Companions Uninjured in Intended Flight to Indo-China

PARIS, Feb. 19. (AP)—Diudonne Costes, starting out today in pursuit of his former comrade, but present rival, Joseph Le Brix, on an intended flight to Indo-China, crashed in Bondy Forest, a few miles outside of Paris.

Costes's plane, "The Annam Dragon," was destroyed but he, his substitute pilot, Jacques Codos, and his wireless operator, Edmond Bellonte, escaped with scratches and a few torn ligaments. Their slogan had been to place Hanoi, Indo-China, "Within five days of Paris."

Le Brix took off yesterday in a plane called the Marseilles-Indo-China. He was accompanied by Sergt.-Maj. Antoine Paillard. They landed safely at Tunis, left there this morning and at last reports were winging their way past Bagdad en route to India.

The split between Costes and Le Brix began when they reached La Paz, Bolivia, on their memorable plane and ship tour around the world in 1927-28. They started with a brilliant flight across the South Atlantic to Port Natal, Brazil, and then worked their way over South America, and up through Mexico to the United States.

They flew to New York, crossed the American continent to San Francisco, and thence took ship to Tokio. They made a record-breaking air trip from Japan to Paris, but were bitter enemies when they landed at Le Bourget. The first words that Le Brix uttered when they reached home here:

"At last I have finished being valet to Costes."

When the French government offered a premium for flights that would prove the capital of Indo-China could be reached with mail from Paris within five days, both the round-the-world flyers volunteered for the test, but they chose different crews and started in different planes.

The new medical and pediatrics laboratory will contain offices examining and treatment rooms, research laboratories and teaching facilities for internal medicine and the diseases of children, comparable to those afforded surgery, obstetrics and gynecology in the Farnam Memorial building completed a few months ago.

FIGHT DROPPED AGAINST ROTARY

Catholic Opposition to Its Principles Withdrawn

President of Order Outlines Ideals to Ecclesiastics

Jesuit Organ No Longer Calls Clubs Antichurch

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 19. (AP)—It was learned in Vatican circles today that opposition to the principles of "rotary" has been withdrawn by the church authorities.

The decision was reached after representations by I. D. Sutton of Tampico, Mex., president of Rotary International, in numerous consultations with ecclesisatics.

Previously the consistorial congregation handed down an opinion that Catholic clergymen would not be allowed to belong to Rotary clubs. Not long before that Osservatore Romano decried the "negative" attitude of Rotary as regards religion.

It is understood that Mr. Sutton will communicate the decision to withdraw opposition together with a complete statement of Rotary ideals and activities, which will be reprinted in full in Civilita Cattolica, the Jesuit organ which launched the first attack against Rotary in Italy. Civilita will state that in view of this communication it no longer considers Rotary anti-Catholic.

G. M. Williams, President, Marmon Motor Car Company, under whose direction the first Marmon straight-eight was built and who later inaugurated the policy of straight-eights exclusively.

"Is it a…
STRAIGHT-EIGHT?"

…that is the constantly recurring question this year among all classes of automobile buyers

DURING the past few years most of the talk has been about appearance—about fitments, colors and good taste. But in addition this year we find a lot of interest again being displayed in "what's under the hood."

And when the talk becomes at all mechanical this dominant question is sure to follow: "Is it a straight-eight?"

To the big army of owners who want to push the throttle and have things happen the straight-eight has become a symbol of increased performance—greater ease of operation—and rightfully so.

Straight-eight results are immediate and unmistakable. Were it possible to drive a car blindfolded to make comparison there could be no mistaking which cars were fours and sixes and which were straight-eights. You would sense and feel the difference in smoothness and the more immediate power at your command.

It is on this basis of comparison that the straight-eight wins its way—because it will absolutely demonstrate its superiority in the vast percentage of tests to which it is subjected.

Straight-eights have won every major Speedway event for the past eight years.

Straight-eights are growing by leaps and bounds in public favor. In 1924 only two manufacturers were producing straight-eights. Today 21 out of 43 manufacturers are producing them.

Now as the straight-eight reaches the crest of a great new popularity Marmon is found as one of its established leaders. Marmon did not invent the straight-eight idea. More importantly, Marmon harnessed the idea and made the straight-eight a practical, economical and long lived car for all to own.

After two years of concentration on the straight-eight Marmon now offers two remarkable straight-eights at the prices you have previously been asked to pay for sixes. Two extra cylinders for extra performance, extra smoothness and extra value.

Before you buy any new car may we have the opportunity to demonstrate the vast advantages of Marmon straight-eight transportation?

MEXICO DENIES CLERGY BAITING

Secretary Points Way to Peace for Catholics

Regulations Compared With Those Elsewhere

Recent Attack on Train of Portes Gil Cited

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 19. (AP)—Acting Secretary of Interior Canales told Mexican Roman Catholics in a statement published in Mexico City newspapers this morning that the church authorities had it within their power to restore peace in Mexico. It is merely necessary, he said, to comply with the constitution regulations on religious subjects.

The statement is an answer to that published yesterday from Msgr. Miguel De la Mora, bishop of San Luis Potosi, spokesman for the Mexican episcopate, which denied participation and responsibility in recent Mexican bomb outrages. This responsibility had been asserted by President Portes Gil.

RESTRICTIONS COMPARED

Secretary Canales said that the Catholic clergy continued its work from 1919 to 1926 under the same constitution which is now in effect. It finally suspended religious services in 1926 with enforcement of the legal regulations based on the constitutional provision as a pretext. These legal regulations, he said, do not affect the religion itself and are similar to regulations the Roman Catholic clergy meet in other countries without objection.

The statement says it is public knowledge there is an armed movement against the government (reference to insurgent activities in States of Jalisco, Guanajuato and Michoacan,) and that this movement, rightly or wrongly, is taken as a defense of the clergy against "so-called attacks on them." It is logical, also, he said, to attribute the bombing of the Presidential train on the 10th inst., to such a "defense."

HUMILIATION DENIED

Referring to that part of the ecclesiastic's statement which said the government's requirement that all priests inform the civil authorities of their addresses is humiliating, Canales declared this to be untrue. The demand for addresses, he says, is merely a measure taken as a part of the investigation of a crime (apparently referring to the attack on the Presidential special.)

Nobody, the Secretary said, could offer serious reason to withhold his address when his conduct has been lawful.

The statement then says that the government does not consider the suspension of religious services by orders of the Catholic episcopate in 1926 an act of rebellion, but that the religious laws do not attack Catholic dogma in any way which could have been used as a pretext for the suspension.

The government has already stated, the Secretary concludes, that provided the law is obeyed prelates and priests may exercise their ministries.

GENERAL DENIES REBELLIOUS MISSION

NOGALES, Feb. 19. (AP) — Gen. Francisco Manzo, commander of the Federal troops in the State of Sonora, Mex., today telegraphed a denial of intentions to incite rebellion to President Portes Gil.

The telegram read as follows: "I have the honor to communicate to you that having arrived here yesterday for a conference with my distinguished friend, Arturo de Saracho (envoy of the Mexican government,) I read published reports that my visit to Nogales was with rebellious intent toward the government you preside over with such distinction. I immediately denied the reports categorically and emphatically, and beg to communicate same to you."

SONORA QUIET, DEPARTMENT REPORTS

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 19. (AP)—The War Department this evening announced that the situation in the State of Sonora is normal and that there had been no troop movement of any kind there or in the vicinity. The military commander of the State made the official report to the department today that everything is quiet

Rumors had been current in Mexico City for several days that a subversive movement had appeared or was about to appear in the border State.

Fraser was killed and his wife seriously injured in an automobile accident in which John Henin of Liverpool, Eng., and Mrs. Marie O'Bryan, postmistress of Santa Fe, were killed and in which Miss Inez Otero of Los Angeles suffered a fractured jaw.

H. Duross O'Bryan of Santa Fe, driver of the automobile in which his mother and Miss Otero were riding, is to pay $5500 of the damages and the remainder will be paid by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company.

Mrs. O'Bryan left an estate valued at $200,000.

DEPORTING OF TROTZKY MINIMIZED

Newspapers Make Little of Event as Authorities Hope for His Oblivion

MOSCOW, Feb. 19. (AP)—Having sent Leon Trotzky off definitely as "an antisoviet emigre," the authorities appear disposed to make little of his exile in the hope of letting time and short memories consign him to oblivion.

The brief official statement yesterday announcing his exile was published this morning obscurely in the "event" columns of the papers in which various governmental decisions of secondary import are summarized.

The Pravda column follows up the announcement of the former Red army leader's exit by statements like: February 17, Comrade Gomborjan, newly appointed Minister from the Mongolian republic, arrived in Moscow. . . . The central executive committee has decided to rename the city named after Trotzky into Tchapaveak."

Izvestia, in a similar column, follows up the Trotzky announcement with an item that during the past year the Moscow consumers' co-operative cut down expenses to 44 per cent of the previous year's figures.

Pravda wedges in the statement between Stephan Skvortsov's family pension and an announcement of a jubilee performance in a little theater.

Editorial comment is entirely withheld.

Veterans to Be Given Greater Job Preference

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—President Coolidge is having the Civil Service Commission put into form recommendations made by a special Cabinet committee with regard to the proposal that veterans of the World War be given increased preference in civil service examinations.

The Cabinet committee, consisting of Secretary Jardine, Secretary Davis of the Labor Department, Secretary Wilbur and Secretary Davis of the War Department, has gone into the subject thoroughly with a view to its actual operation, and has submitted a report which now is in the President's hands.

Under the proposition veterans, who now receive a 10 per cent preference in civil service examinations, would be given an increase in this way, and also would be given preference when cuts were made in government personnel. The proposal has been approved by the veterans' committees of both the House and the Senate.

The Memorial Association, in 1925, prevailed upon the to finance the foundation of the Washington mansion for the purpose of ascertaining the original specifications of the homestead in furtherance of the plans to restore it. The Secretary of War authorized the of the United States Engineers to do this work, and while engaged in excavating amid the and charred debris, the found the fragments of beautiful salt-glaze platter and by the bones of a boar's relics of the joyous and hearty Christmas celebration which preceded the burning of the historic edifice.

Enough of the ware was found to make it possible, after months of painstaking labor through the of the United States National Museum, to reconstruct original pattern with fidelity both dimensions and design. HOUSE PASSES RADIO MEASURE

White Bill Extending Life of Commission Approved

Representative Free Assails Existing Regulatory Body

Succeeds in Limiting Term to Year from Date

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Charging the members of the Federal Radio Commission with ignorance and incompetence, Representative Arthur Free, Republican of California, led an unsuccessful fight on the House floor today to prevent the extension of the life of the commission, but forced through an amendments which limits the extension to one year, thereby preventing possible embarrassment to the Hoover administration on the question of government reorganization.

Had the Free amendment not gone into the bill the radio commissioners would serve terms of two, four and six years as provided under the Radio Act of 1927. Should the incoming administration wish to reorganize the Federal Radio Commission, which is probable, it may do so under the Free amendment one year from the 23rd inst. without the embarrassment of awaiting expiration of long-term appointments.

FREE LONE MINORITY

The amended bill passed the House by a nearly unanimous viva-voce vote. Free's solitary "no" was the only answer to the Speaker's question of "Those against." Previous to the vote, a debate, principally between Representatives Free and Davis of Tennessee on the merits and demerits of the Radio Commission had waged for more than an hour and a half.

Charging that the commission is not only responsible for chaos in broadcasting and laxness in short-wave transmission fields. Free quoted from the hearings before the House Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries to prove that the commissioners were ignorant of the activities of the commission.

Representative Davis of Tennessee in answering Free's charges and supporting the commission made the countercharge that the Radio Corporation of America is trying to dominate the radio industry in all its phases.

FILIBUSTER IN SENATE

The bill struck a snag in the Senate tonight when Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, opened a one-man filibuster to prevent its passing. Unless the bill is passed before March 4, when the present Congress expires, administrative jurisdiction over radio broadcasting will revert to the Commerce Department and the commission will become an appellate body.

Senators Watson, Republican, Indiana, and C. C. Dill, Democrat, Washington, urged continuance of the commission for another year or until it had solved the problems involved in recent radio developments.

CHEAP HOSPITAL CHAIN PROPOSED

Noted Health Officers Speak at Medical Congress

Cause of Those Who Can't Afford Health Pleaded

Convalescent Institutions Also on Relief Program

CHICAGO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Championing the cause of the "man who can't afford to get well," noted public health officers, speaking at the annual Congress on Medical Education at the Palmer House today proposed a comprehensive system of low-priced hospitals for convalescents.

Dr. E. H. Lewinski-Corwin of New York, consultant expert for the United States Public Health Service, first took up the cause of what he termed the "salariat," that large proportion of citizens who live on their current salary checks.

MIDDLE CLASS NEGLECTED

"There is a large class of persons of the middle class," he said, "to whom illness is an overwhelming economic catastrophe. Because of the high cost of being ill, these people cannot afford to remain in hospitals until they have been restored to health. Socially we have neglected the middle class in this field, as in many others."

Dr. Lewinski-Corwin spoke of the success of several hospitals which have recently been built to take care of convalescents only. Patients are received in these institutions after they have recovered sufficiently to leave the regular hospitals. Their purpose, he said, is to give the convalescent an opportunity to regain his productive capacity without breaking down his health.

Such hospitals, he stated, can be operated at less than half the ordinary cost.

PRODIGAL OF LIFE

"Our experience has shown that the average cost per patient in the ordinary hospital is approximately $5 a day," the speaker continued. "A convalescent hospital can be operated for $2.25. Likewise, the cost of building the latter type is about $3000 per bed against $8000 per bed in the regular hospital."

Dr. Harry E. Mock, Chicago, president of the American conference on hospital service, chairman of the meeting, further elaborated on the subject.

"As a nation we have been notoriously prodigal of our man power," he said. "Note the apathy of our people when daily they read of the 100 deaths and 1000 permanently disabling accidents lying in the wake of our speeding automobiles. Note the absence in 80 per cent of our communities of provisions for the completion of recovery of these cases after their discharge from the hospital. Note also the relapse of patients discharged from the acute hospital too soon, to make room for others, and sent to unsuitable environments to convalesce, with their subsequent return to the hospital, involving more expense and loss of time. The British Isles have twenty-two convalescent beds for every 100 acute beds and they are kept filled. Compare with this our record of none to 8 per cent of convalescent beds in a few large communities."

WILBUR HITS SPEED

Dr. Edward H. Hume, director of the New York Post-Graduate Medical School, revealed a contemplated plan for a large chain of rural hospitals to be built throughout America, which will be financed by the Julius Rosenwald Foundation.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Leland Stanford University, said he deplored the American attitude of "let's get it over with quickly," toward medical and surgical treatment.

"We do not practice medicine well in the United States," he said. "We give a lot of medicine and we cut quickly, but we do not practice medicine well. Americans insist upon speed. A quick decision either by surgery or the medicine bottle. We should adopt more of a Teutonic attitude—one of slow patience to the end of successful results."

Institutions for the insane, he said, might provide a part solution of the servant problem.

"Remarkable things could be done with some of these people," Dr. Wilbur said. "American women would be surprised to find here a part solution of the servant problem."

Bridge District Argument Filed

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Arguments for and against the legality of the formation of the Golden Gate bridge and highway district, were submitted to the State Supreme Court today. Thirty days will be allowed for briefs, when the case will be taken under submission.

Formation of the district is attacked on the ground it is a violation both of State and Federal constitutions. It is to be the guiding organization for erection of a $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 span across the Golden Gate and a contest regarding the selection of directors awaits the Supreme Court decision on the status of the organization itself.

Review of Day in Congress

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS]

The Senate passed the Jones bill to increase penalties for prohibition violations.

The House passed the White bill to continue the Radio Commission as an administrative body for another year.

The House approved a proposal to establish a special commission to investigate the charges against Federal District Judge Winslow of New York.

A report by its investigator to the Senate Lands Committee expressed the opinion there was insufficient evidence of fraud for charges against the original lessees of the Salt Creek oil field.

Former Senator Lenroot denied lobbying activities to a Senate subcommittee inquiring into his nomination for a judgeship on the Court of Customs Appeal.

Resolution on Arms Embargo Tabled in House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The House Foreign Affairs Committee today tabled the Porter resolution to authorize the President to impose embargoes on exports of arms and munitions to warring countries.

The action was taken, Chairman Porter said, because the committee realized that it would be impossible to obtain consideration of the measure at this session. He said he would reintroduce the measure at the next regular session of Congress.

Chinese Form Aviation Group

SHANGHAI, Feb. 19. (AP) — The Nationalist government of China, continuing its policy of assisting in the development of commercial aviation, announced today the formation of a national aviation association. The body will embrace local organizations at Canton, Shanghai, Hankow, Tien-Tsin, Nanking and Kwangsi.

It also was announced that air mail and passenger service will be inaugurated to Ichang in the province of Hupek.

SALT CREEK OIL LEASES UPHELD

Investigator Says Fraud Cannot be Proved

Illegal Entries Covered Up, Senate Hears

Dummy Locations Shown, Sterling Reports

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Reporting to the Senate Lands Committee on his inquiry into leases in the Salt Creek Wyoming oil fields, Thomas Sterling, special investigator, declared today that although he believed there appeared to have been fraudulent practices there seemed to be insufficient evidence on which to base charges.

The report dealt with present claims in the old fields and expressed Sterling's opinion that "the evidence produced and examined does not warrant the conclusion that any of the leases are invalid."

"While it cannot be said unqualifiedly," the report continued, "that there are no indications of illegal or fraudulent practices forming a foundation for present claims in the field, my opinion is that there is not sufficient evidence on which to base charges of illegal or fraudulent practices on the part of the original applicants in securing the leases issued to them. The question of whether there has since been a violation of the antitrust laws is not decided.'

"As to what group or groups of claims show anything of fraudulent nature, I mention the following:

"The Bradley, Dain and Hart locations were made wholly by dummies.

"The Merritt locations were made in part by dummies. Sixteen quarter sections were leased or permits granted where these locations formed the only title. Ten of these quarter sections are edge lands, which are said to be of small or no value. The position of the department in granting these leases was that the applicants were without knowledge of fraud in the locations; no evidence to the contrary has been found in this investigation."

Despite the tone of the report, Chairman Nye of the committee later predicted the committee tomorrow will favor a continuation of the inquiry.

The report was not acted on by the committee.

NARCOTIC RING HEAD SENTENCED TO PRISON

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 19. (AP)—Paul Jacobs, convicted leader of what Federal narcotic officers said was one of the largest narcotic rings uncovered in California in many months, was sentenced today to seven years in Federal penitentiary and fined $1000. Jack Fallon and Sam Rose, confederates, were sentenced to five years each and fined $10.

WORLD LEAGUE GIVES DATES FOR SHORT-WAVE BROADCAST

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Radio Commission has received a communication from the secretariat of the League of Nations through the State Department announcing plans of the League to conduct short-wave broadcast trials in March to the United States, South America, Japan and Australia.

The trials will be resumption of an effort the League made in May and June of last year to broadcast speeches considered of general interest to the world. The speeches will be in English, French, Spanish and Japanese. The League intends to broadcast to the American continent in English, French and Spanish for one hour on March 12, 19 and 26, next. On March 13, 20 and 27, speeches will be broadcast in Japanese during a thirty-minute period. On March 14, 21 and 28, speeches will be broadcast in English to Australia for thirty minute periods.

PCLL is the League station and it uses a short-wave length of 18.4 meters with a voltage of 25,000.

Mrs. Lindbergh Reaches Home

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—Mrs. Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh came home from Constantinople today on the President Wilson, and newspaper reporters found that she still was just as difficult to interview as her son, the flying colonel, who met her at quarantine.

In fact, Mrs. Lindbergh made no statement at all. She didn't even see the reporters. When Col. Lindbergh, who had gone down the bay on the government cutter to meet the liner, went aboard the big ship he was escorted to his mother's cabin and the two had luncheon there.

Spain Ratifies Kellogg Pact

MADRID, Feb. 19. (AP)—Premier Primo De Rivera today announced that King Alfonso had signed a decree ratifying the adherence of Spain to the Kellogg pact for the renunciation of war. Announcement that the Cabinet had approved the ratification was made last night.

OTTAWA, Feb. 19. (AP)—A resolution declaring it expedient for the Canadian Parliament to approve the Kellogg Multi-Lateral Treaty to outlaw war was moved by Premier MacKenzie King at today's session of the House of Commons.

SINCLAIR'S PLEA UP TO COURT NOW

Counsel for Both Sides in Contempt Case End Their Arguments in Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—The appeal of Harry F. Sinclair from the jail sentence of three months and fine of $500 imposed on him by the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for contempt of the Senate was received today by the Supreme Court for its consideration.

Owen J. Roberts for the government and George P. Hoover for the defense concluded argument in the case with respective assertions that the questions asked Sinclair were and were not pertinent.

Not only were the questions relevant in themselves, but they were preliminary to other matters the committee designed and had the right to seek, Roberts said, and were necessary to proper consideration for legislative purposes.

Declaring pertinency "was an essential ingredient of this crime," Hoover said the questions must show this element. It is not enough that they have a bearing on "any possible fantastic legislation Congress might engage in," he declared.

Flood Losses in Mississippi Area Bring Drain Plea

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Feb. 19. (AP) The total loss due to uncontrolled floods in the Mississippi Valley annually amounts to 10 to 15 per cent of the total productive power of the United States, William Crooks, consulting engineer of Little Rock, told the national drainage congress today.

Flood losses, therefore, are an important factor in national prosperity, he said.

Discrimination by the Federal government in favoring the west with expenditures for drainage and reclamation was charged by Mr. Crooks. In one project in the west, he said, the government is spending $70 an acre for reclamation while $10 an acre in most cases will provide adequate drainage facilities in the Mississippi delta area.

SOUTHLAND SHIP SALE APPROVED

Federal Board Agrees to Turn Over West Lianga to Los Angeles Company

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—The Shipping Board today approved the sale of the steamship West Lianga to the Los Angeles Steamship Company for the sum of $100,000. Terms are 10 per cent cash and the balance over a ten-year period. The sale was made on the basis of unrestricted operation. The West Lianga is a steel cargo vessel of 8543 deadweight tons equipped with General Electric geared turbines and Scotch oil-burning boilers, and designed to steam at ten and one-fourth knots. She has been laid up at Norfolk since September 7, 1921.

In purchasing this ship the Los Angeles Steamship Company plans to overhaul and recondition her completely, and put her in service in the intercoastal trade on the Arrow Line. In this service the West Lianga will replace vessels recently withdrawn by the K. D. Dawson shipping interests for trans-Pacific operation.

COLD WEATHER HARD ON SOVIET

Collapse of Bolshevism Hastened

Crisis More Severe Than During 1921

Raids on Peasants' Grain Stores Planned

[Copyright, 1929, by New York Times]

RIGA, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—The unwieldly soviet government apparatus, representing bureaucracy in its zenith, shows signs of a breakdown. The extraordinarily cold winter is hastening the collapse of Bolshevism, according to reports from diplomats stationed in Moscow, who are uneasily watching the famine conditions develop in Russia. The crisis is even more serious than in 1921, for then the famine developed during the summer months, giving the government time to purchase grain needed to supply the cities with bread the following winter.

Today the average Russian village is fairly well supplied with hidden stores of grain except for 4,000,000 inhabitants of the Ukraine districts who have been starving since October, but cities are famine-stricken and the government has decided on desperate measures.

New converts of the Communist party between the ages of 20 and 30 years are being organized in companies for an attack against the villages and the confiscation of grain without payment has again begun. Another severe decree confiscates all tractors sold to individual purchasers, also peasant communes, in the last five years. These are assigned to the newly organized state farms, which the soviet government hopes will grow to 150,000 tons of grain during the coming year.

BERKELEY SUSPECT CAUGHT IN FLORIDA

BERKELEY, Feb. 19. (AP)—Jerome P. Reed, alias Jerry Murphy, 28 years of age, said to be a former Los Angeles policeman and Salt Lake City baseball player, is being held by police of Miami, Fla., as the bandit who robbed the Solano branch of the Berkeley First National Bank of $1300 last September. Word of his arrest was received today by Chief of Police Vollmer of Berkeley from the bureau of criminal identification at Washington. Pictures of Reed forwarded with the information were identified today by employees of the plundered bank.

COOLIDGE GETS NEW OFFER

Writing Syndicated Articles Urged on President, But He Waits for March 4 to Decide

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—President Coolidge continues to receive numerous proposals and suggestions for an occupation after his retirement from office but he as yet has made no definite decision as to what he will do. He tells those with propositions to offer that he is not in a position to give them a positive answer until after March 4.

The most recent proposal to reach the President is that he write syndicated articles for newspapers and magazines.

RUMORS CONFIRMED

Rumors that Mr. Coolidge was receiving offers of this kind have been given circulation within the last fortnight, based on the fact that he had been visited by representatives of half a dozen organizations engaged in this field.

On leaving the White House these representatives, however, consistently have declined to reveal their mission, and it became known definitely only today that their purpose was to interest Mr. Coolidge in writing as a future activity.

At the same time, it was learned that the President regards this work as an exceptionally fine field, but hesitates to bind himself to the production of articles in specified numbers and at specified times.

DECISION MUST WAIT

After he retires from the Presidency, Mr. Coolidge expects to write an occasional article dealing with his experiences in public office and with reminiscenses of notable occasions, but he prefers that these be undertaken at his leisure and completed, when he sees fit, with no thought for newspaper "deadlines."

For some months, Mr. Coolidge has declined to make any announcement as to what he plans to do after he leaves office and it has been said that he will reach no decision until some time after March 4. The President believes that as Chief Executive of the nation he would be unjustified in entering into an alliance with any outside interest as long as he is in office.

APPORTION BILL HITS NEW SNAG

Blease Blocks Effort for Night Session But He May Give Up Opposition Today

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Republican leaders in the Senate made an unsuccessful attempt today to obtain a unanimous consent agreement whereby the House reapportionment bill would be considered at a night session next Monday.

The request for such an agreement was made by Senator Curtis of Kansas, Vice-President-elect, and met with instant objection from Senator Blease, Democrat, South Carolina. Curtis and Blease afterward conferred and it is reported the Republican leader will renew the attempt tomorrow with good prospects of success.

Earlier in the day the Senate Steering Committee gave the reapportionment legislation a place on the calendar where it might and might not be reached before the March 4 adjournment.

Senator Vandenberg of Michigan, directing the fight in the upper branch for reapportionment of House seats, is inclined to believe his best chance will come in offering reapportionment as a rider to the census bill, which must be passed this session if proper preparation is to be made for taking the 1930 enumeration.

Canada Jails Finnish Editor for Sedition

SUDBURY (Ont.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Aarvo Vaara, editor of the Finnish newspaper Vapaus, was found guilty by a jury tonight of publishing seditious libel. Justice Wright sentenced him to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $1000 or two years additional in prison. The jury deliberated three hours.

Vaara was arrested last December 15, after two articles allegedly reflecting on King George were published. The articles referred to the King's illness and contrasted the comforts surrounding him with the condition of the "working classes." The paper is the organ of the Finnish workers' organization of Canada.

Justice Wright, in summing up for the jury, said the editor had overstepped the mark of common respect in the articles. "It was a most inhumane act," he said.

Vaara is a native of Finland and a naturalized British subject.

Hoover's Cousin Hurt by Auto

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—George C. Hoover, 61-year-old attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission and cousin of President-elect Hoover, was knocked down and seriously injured here today by an automobile driven by Miss Fannie P. Dial, daughter of former Senator Nathaniel B. Dial of South Carolina.

Mr. Hoover suffered a fractured leg, bruises to the body and possibly other injuries. President-elect Hoover was notified and is expected to visit his cousin at the hospital.

Brazilian River Floods Houses

SAO PAULO (Brazil) Feb. 19. (AP) The Tiete River, in the heart of Brazil's coffee-growing district, is experiencing the worst flood in forty years. It has overflowed its banks for several miles. Houses are under water and 25,000 persons are homeless.

Heavy losses are expected.

EX-COURT CLERK SENTENCED

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (AP)—William L. Rosa, former chief clerk of the United States District Court at Honolulu, today was sentenced to thirteen months in a Federal penitentiary for his part in a plot to smuggle opium from San Francisco to Honolulu.

Prison Sentence Roll Given Out

SAN QUENTIN, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Alva H. Floyd, former justice of the peace at Culver City, sentenced for embezzlement and falsification of records, is one of 143 prisoners whose names appear on the indeterminate sentence calendar for the month, made public today. The prison board has not yet determined the length of Floyd's sentence and it is expected it will be some time before the case is reached as the board is considerably behind in these cases.

There are fifty-one applications for parole listed on the calendar, among whom are five life-termers on first-degree murder charges. They are Thomas C. Barnes, San Diego; Long Sing, San Francisco, and John Walker, Fong Sing and Francisco Seavala, San Joaquin county.

Jury Acquits Woman Slayer

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—It took a jury in the court of Police Judge Jacks today only one ballot to acquit Mrs. Marie Lauretta of the fatal shooting of her husband November 30, 1928, when, as the climax to a lengthy series of drunken orgies, he tried to throw one of his children from a window. Mrs. Lauretta dissuaded him, lulled him to sleep, calmly took his pistol from him, shot him once, turned his head over and shot again—"just to make sure."

Originally jailed for murder, the charge was reduced to manslaughter before she went to trial.

Mrs. Stokes Wed Two Years Ago

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—Rose Pastor Stokes, who was divorced from J. G. Phelps Stokes, philanthropist, in 1925, has been married to Isaac Romaine, labor union leader, for two years, it was learned today.

Mrs. Romaine was discharged in Magistrate's Court yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct growing out of picketing activities in the garment district, but was summoned to appear in court next week for violating the education law by keeping 9-year-old Jerry Romaine, who marched with her, out of school. She has been married to the boy's father for two years.

MAYOR WALKER AVOIDS FETE

MIAMI (Fla.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Mayor Walker of New York City was on a fishing trip somewhere in the Gulf of Mexico today aboard the yacht Harmony, after outwitting an unofficial welcome committee here last night by arriving ahead of schedule.

GLENDALE PHONE ZONE SET

Subscribers Between City and Burbank Allowed to Choose Exchange, Under Board Order

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (AP)—Acting upon a complaint from the city of Glendale, the State Railroad Commission today established a one-mile zone between the city and Burbank in which telephone subscribers are given permission to choose the exchange best suited to their needs.

At present, according to the Glendale complaint, a majority of the subscribers are served by the Burbank exchange although most of their calls are destined for Glendale. As a result, it was charged, subscribers are required to pay tolls through Burbank.

PRECEDENT SET

Under the new plan, which the commission hails as a remedy for similar conditions existing throughout the State, the subscribers in the established zone have the privilege of selecting either the Glendale or Burbank exchange.

Telephone subscribers in the district west of Beverly Hills and in the business section of Sawtelle will receive the benefit of lower toll charges under a commission order issued today authorizing the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to establish a West Los Angeles exchange.

CHARGES TO BE LOWER

Telephone calls from the district to Los Angeles now are sent through the Santa Monica exchange but under the new order a more direct communication will be established with a resultant decrease in toll charges.

There are 1600 telephones in the district affected in which are the buildings of the University of California at Los Angeles, Occidental College and Harvard Military Academy.

WILL FORGERY CHARGES MADE

Former City Official of Fresno Involved

Fight Centers Around Estate of Judge Risley

Mrs. Marguerite Holland is Plaintiff

FRESNO, Feb. 19.—Charges that Thomas E. Risley, former commissioner of finance of Fresno, forged deeds and two insurance assignments through which he obtained control of the estate of his father, the late Judge E. W. Risley now said to have been worth approximately $1,000,000, was made today in the suit of his sister, Mrs. Marguerite Holland of Los Angeles, for an accounting of the estate.

The charge was made by M. G. Gallaher, counsel for Mrs. Holland, during the course of the reading of a 600-page deposition taken from the defendant.

Numerous details of Mrs. Holland's accusation against her brother were barred from evidence today by Judge Barnard, before whom the case is being heard without a jury, when he ruled that evidence pertaining to misrepresentation or fraud, by which Mrs. Holland says he obtained her signature to a settlement agreement is inadmissible.

The court's ruling limits the fight to the question of whether or not the signatures appended to the documents were written by Judge Risley or by another. That a bitter fight will be waged on this point is indicated by the fact that three handwriting experts have been called to pass upon the question.

Questions which Judge Barnard ruled should not be answered covered the care received by Judge Risley during his illness.

EUREKA SHERIFF IN CONTEMPT OF COURT

EUREKA, Feb. 19. (AP)—John W. Runner, Sheriff, was adjudged guilty of contempt by Superior Court here today, but escaped with a reprimand and an admonition to "pay more attention to legal advice than street-corner advice in future." Contempt proceedings were initiated by the grand jury which charged the Sheriff with refusing to allow a jury committee to interview prisoners privately at the County Jail and with refusing to honor a Superior Court order.

BEWARE THE COUGH FROM COLDS THAT HANG ON

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for coughs from colds and bronchial irritations. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs from colds, bronchitis and minor forms of bronchial irritations, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Cesa la Oposición Católica Contra los Rotarios

CIUDAD DEL VATICANO, 19 de Febrero.—Se supo hoy en los círculos del Vaticano que las autoridades eclesiásticas han depuesto su actitud de oposición a los rotarios. Se llegó a esta decisión en vista de que I. D. Sutton, del club Rotario de Tampico, en Méjico, envió una protesta contra la resolución de varios sacerdotes externada de modo semioficial en el Osservatore Romano, de considerar a los Rotarios como contrarios a toda idea religiosa. La Iglesia llegó a prohibir a los sacerdotes que pertenecieran a cualquier club Rotario. Ahora, después de recibirse esa protesta se ha reconsiderado el caso y en vista de las explicaciones habidas, la Iglesia no prohibirá que miembros suyos pertenezcan a la citada organización. Esta decisión va a ser publicada en el Civilitá Catolica, que fue el primer periódico católico donde los jesuitas comenzaron a lanzar ataques a aquellos sacerdotes y connotados católicos que se habían hecho rotarios.

Una es un diamante de quince quilates, por el cual, se dice, el Czar Nicolás no aceptó una oferta de compra en 150,000 libras esterlinas. La otra es una esmeralda de diez y siete quilates. El periódico dice que la duquesa quiere una suma por ambas, que fluctúa entre 50 a 60,000 libras.

Pat Crowe Wins Argument About Buffalo Suicide

BUFFALO, Feb. 19, (AP)—Buffalo police admitted tonight that the body of the man who shot himself yesterday had been erroneously identified as that of Pat Crowe, who kidnaped Edward A. Cudahy, Jr., in Omaha a quarter of a century ago.

New York dispatches stating Pat Crowe had turned up there and made indignant denial after reading what purported to be an account of his death in Buffalo failed to shake the faith of local police officials in their own deductions until a report came tonight from the Erie county penitentiary stating that the fingerprints taken of the dead man do not correspond with those taken of Pat Crowe when the latter was confined in that institution a few years ago.

The suicide, however, bore a striking likeness to the former bandit.

PARLEY ON WAR DEBTS STALLING

Powers Waiting for First Move from Each Other

Attitude of Conferees Holds Work at Standstill

Americans Avoid Part in Program Forming

PARIS, Feb. 19. (AP)—The question of who is going to speak up first has brought the work of the reparations experts to a momentary standstill.

The German delegates, having put in their documents to show what in their judgment is the present actual economic situation in Germany, do not seem disposed to go further. On the other hand, the French, principal creditors of Germany in reparations, find no reason for taking the initiative toward any change in the present system of payments under the Dawes plan.

The result is that the experts are at a loss on a method of procedure for continuation of the conference.

PROGRAM WORKED ON

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the Reichsbank, and Sir Josiah Stamp, British delegate, spent half the day as a subcommittee elaborating a program which evidently failed to satisfy everyone, since the full meeting of the experts today decided to add a Frenchman, an Italian and a Belgian to the subcommittee, which was asked to try again.

It was inferred from the fact that there was no American on the subcommittee that the United States delegation prefers the most directly interested parties to decide these most important questions of organization.

Owen D. Young and J. P. Morgan are generally recognized here as interested only in the technical phases of the question. They are not involved in the political angles, which, however, cannot be eliminated without difficulty.

FRENCH SIT BACK

The French thesis seems to be that the creditors of Germany have the right to payments under the Dawes plan, which were fixed by the first expert committee, and that if any changes are to be made in this the initiative must come from the debtor. The Germans, on the other hand, seek to hold that having set forth in full detail the economic situation of the Reich, it is for the committee to draw its conclusions and to decide what the Reich can pay and fix the annuities and total reparations accordingly. This thesis meets a stubborn attitude on the part of the Belgians, who resist any idea of decreasing their share of reparations and on the part of the Italians, who declare that they are not getting enough under the present system.

The final effort of the enlarged subcommittee is expected to bring forth some system under which the experts can go ahead, whether the proposal will demand of the Germans that they set forth their claims or whether it will ask the creditors to give an idea of what sacrifices they are prepared to make.

WHITE MAN'S RULE VITAL, AFRICA TOLD

Capetown Premier Says Equality of Races Cannot Ever Be Considered

[Copyright, 1929, by the Chicago Tribune]

CAPETOWN (South Africa) Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Premier Hertzog in a joint sitting of the House of Assembly and the Senate explained the principles of the proposed native representation and colored people's rights bills.

"I am sure," he said, "that if we go so far as to give the natives adequate equality with the whites we must prepare to pack our bundles and depart from these shores. Much harm is done when Europeans speak of giving the natives the rights they ask. The natives must be told that what they ask is impossible; that the white man is determined to govern South Africa, and that talk of equal rights is foolish."

Premier Hertzog said that the bills he proposed gave the native a certain amount of representation.

China Plans to Pay Off Debts

SHANGHAI (China) Feb. 19. (AP) Plans for the liquidation of China's domestic and foreign debts were announced today by the Nationalist government.

It was stated that a committee had been formed composed of T. V. Soo G. Finance Minister; C. T. Wang, Foreign Minister, and Wang Teh-Chun, Minister of Communications, with several foreign experts to arrange this liquidation.

The Foreign Ministry announced that it had notified the various foreign governments of the intention of the Nationalist government to repay foreign debts within twenty years after the declaration of tariff autonomy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (AP)—With 400 delegates from seven western States present, the Pacific States Butter, Egg, Cheese and Poultry Association convention here today decided to fight for lower freight rates on eggs sent to eastern markets.

Speakers said the Pacific Slope ships more than 5000 carloads of eggs east annually and pays nearly $3,500,000 in freight bills. Among the speakers were H. J. Dixon of Portland, Or., president of the organization, and H. P. Whitehead of Riverside. A banquet was held by the delegates tonight. The convention, which began yesterday, will end with election of officers tomorrow.

CHILD SOUGHT AS KIDNAPER'S VICTIM

BABY DORIS CLEW FOUND IN BAY CITY

Man With Child Said to Resemble Kidnaped Girl Calls at House for Drink

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Police attention in the supposed kidnaping of 4-year-old Doris Virginia Smith-Murphy, missing from a playground opposite her home in the Hayes Valley district here since last Friday afternoon, swung toward the father and the stepfather of the child tonight.

Mrs. Mary Razura, living on the fringe of the industrial section, told police tonight, after friends had urged her, that about 6:30 p.m. today a man leading a small girl by the hand stepped from a brown roadster, came to her kitchen door and asked if she would give the child a drink of water.

As Mrs. Razura turned to get the water, the man, she said, saw a newspaper with the picture of Doris upward, mumbled something which sounded like: "We'll have to get out of here," and hastened away without waiting for the girl to drink.

When detectives told the circumstances tonight to Mrs. Edward J. Murphy, Doris's mother, and described the man and girl as they were described by Mrs. Razura, Mrs. Murphy, without hesitation, said the details fitted Doris and the girl's father, Ulysses E. Smith. Inasmuch as police have not been able to locate the latter, now believed to be a sailor, they are inclined to place weight in the situation.

Less clear is the connection of the stepfather, but it is responsible for unusual police activity. Murphy, the stepfather, was taken from the home twice by detectives during the evening, and after he was returned the second time a squad of detectives began a thorough search of the Golden Gate-avenue apartment-house in which the Murphys live. They refused to give a reason for the search, but it followed receipt by Murphy of a third note signed "K.K." which caused the stepfather visible worry, and which police refused to make public. The second of the three came earlier in the day, by mail, signed with the same initials, and warning that "this is the last time I will write that everything is all right."

The general search became State-wide tonight as police broadcast descriptions of the missing girl to all points, calling attention to rewards aggregating $6000, some of which is for the girl's recovery and the balance for the supposed kidnaper's arrest and conviction.

Opposition to Flight Denied

LONDON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Reports in the German press that British opposition had led to abandonment of a flight of the dirigible Graf Zeppelin over Egypt were met in official British quarters today by the statement that no application had been made for a Zeppelin flight over British territory in the near east.

It was assumed, however, that the reports the flight would not be made are correct. It was pointed out that there are no facilities whatever for docking and handling so big an air craft in Palestine and other places along the prospective route within British jurisdiction.

PILOT KILLED WHEN MONOPLANE CRASHES

SAN ANGELO (Tex.) Feb. 19. (AP) Fred Sorrell of Springfield, Mo., died late today in a hospital at McCamey, Tex., of injuries received when his monoplane crashed at Irraan, Pecos county, earlier in the day. Roy and Elmer Cox of Irraan, passengers in the plane, are expected to recover. The ship fell when its motor stalled at seventy-five feet altitude.

"Organized Band" Declared Urging Free List

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Changes in the tariff on such articles as carillons, violins, sponges and lead pencils were suggested to the House Ways and Means Committee today before it completed hearings on that section of the law covering sundries.

Tomorrow the committee will begin taking testimony on the last of the fifteen schedules which make up the Fordney-McCumber Act of 1922—that relating to the free list. More than 250 witnesses will appear on these items.

Continuing its consideration of the advisability of a duty on carillons the committee today heard some discordant notes sounded by witnesses representing churches and domestic bell makers.

Six witnesses appeared before the committee yesterday seeking removal of the 40 per cent tariff on carillons, contending they were not produced in this country and that the duty amounted to an unnecessary tax on churches and colleges desiring to install such music.

This view again was impressed on the committee today by Howard Fleming, an officer of Grace Church, Plainfield, N. J., but American bell makers disagreed, declaring they could make carillons of sufficient size and tone if they were given an opportunity by domestic buyers.

S. W. Seery of the McShane Bell Foundry Company of Baltimore charged that those who appeared for the Park-Avenue Baptist Church of New York, the University of Chicago and other institutions and asked free entry for carillons were an "organized band" desirous of creating a foreign monopoly. He said none of the institutions had inquired of his company whether it could fill their orders, although it was ready to make carillons of any number and size of bells.

Higher duties on violins and cases for musical instruments were suggested by W. R. Clymer of Forest Hills, N. Y., while Alfred L. Smith of the Music Industries Chamber of Commerce, New York, and G. L. Catlin, Skinner Organ Company, Boston, recommended increased tariffs on pipe organs.

A raising of the duties on four types of sponges regarded by the Florida industry as competitive was urged by Representative Drane, Democrat, of that State, and Henry H. Morgan of Tarpon Springs.

STRANDED SHIP REFLOATED

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—The steamer Barbara C, aground for two days at Cowpoint, near Grays Harbor, was floated today undamaged, and will continue her voyage from Aberdeen to Los Angeles Harbor with her lumber cargo, the marine department of the Chamber of Commerce was advised.

THREE OHIO LIFERS ESCAPE

Five in All, Including Editor's Slayer, Flee Columbus Prison During Blinding Snowstorm

COLUMBUS (O.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Three life-term murderers, including Pat McDermott, slayer of Don Mellett, Canton publisher, sawed their way to freedom from the State penitentiary here early today.

They dropped from the roof of the residence of Warden Thomas and escaped under cover of a blinding snowstorm that soon obliterated their tracks.

THOSE IN ESCAPE

Besides McDermott, those who escaped are:

William Young, 40 years of age, Washington county, serving a life term for murder.

Mike Jacko, 21, Cuyahoga county, serving a life term for murder.

James Walton, 30, Cuyahoga county, serving a term of twelve to twenty-five years for robbery.

Joe Rosso, 26, Cuyahoga county, serving a term of ten to twenty-five years for robbery.

McDermott and Jacko were captured by suburban police in a stone quarry near Upper Arlington, a Columbus suburb, tonight.

BARS CUT WITH SAW

Warden Thomas said that one bar on each of the three cells was sawed in two, permitting the prisoners to get through. He said he believes the bars had been sawed with a hack saw that probably was taken from a plumber's tool kit.

Seven other men held in the three cells, each of which housed four prisoners, refused to escape.

PAT McDERMOTT KNOWN AS "TRIGGER MAN"

CANTON (O.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Pat McDermott, who escaped from Ohio penitentiary today, was convicted as the "trigger man" in the slaying of Don R. Mellett, Canton editor, who fell a victim to the organized vice ring of the Canton "jungles" he had warred against.

McDermott, a Cleveland underworld figure, was serving a life sentence, having been convicted of first-degree murder Christmas Eve of 1926, with a recommendation of mercy.

MARGIN WIDENS IN PROXY FIGHT

Aldrich Now Claims Total of 55 Per Cent

Majority Necessary to Win March Election

Stewart Discounts Count as Premature

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive) Proxies representing more than 55 per cent of the stock of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana are in the hands of the committee headed by John D. Rockefeller, Jr., which is opposing the re-election of Col. Robert W. Stewart as a director and chairman of the company, according to an announcement today by Winthrop W. Aldrich of Mr. Rockefeller's committee.

Previously the Rockefeller committee announced that it held proxies covering more than 51 per cent of the Standard of Indiana stock. A majority of the stock represented at the annual meeting of stockholders, which will be held in Whiting, Ind., on March 7, next, is necessary to defeat Col. Stewart.

However, George K. Bowden, a spokesman for Col. Stewart, disputed the committee's claims. "Mr. Aldrich," he said, "persists in counting his chickens before they are hatched. We now have a large majority of stockholders and are rapidly nearing a working majority of the stock. Our proxies include thousands of revocations of proxies originally given to Mr. Rockefeller through misunderstanding of the matters involved."

ARTIST PAPETTI DIES

MILAN (Italy) Feb. 19. (AP)—Prof. Camillo Papetti, artist and etcher, died today. He was 70 years of age.

Don't Be Skinny

New YEAST and IRON builds weight quickly. Your own druggist guarantees results—or pay nothing

It seems incredible how fast Ironized Yeast adds pounds of good firm flesh—on women and men, children and old people. Doctors know the value of vegetable iron and yeast in building up and improving the body. Ironized Yeast in a highly concentrated form, contains all the blood building properties of vegetable iron with yeast. It will give results in half the time required by yeast and iron taken separately.

People ask—what is in Ironized Yeast that transforms sallow, lifeless, faded complexions into the fresh smooth, lovely skin of early girlhood. Wrinkles disappear. Hollows fill out. No wonder thousands of women pour in letters to us in praise of the marvelous, youthifying effects of Ironized Yeast!

Yet the answer is simple. Vegetable iron and yeast have been used for years to vitalize the body; to make rich, healthy blood; to improve digestion and bowel action and add weight. In Ironized Yeast these two valuable elements are combined in a special formula that is much stronger than yeast and iron used separately. That's why Ironized Yeast works so quickly. Safe to take—pleasant-tasting tablets.

Go to any drug store and get a full size treatment. If after this generous trial, you are not delighted with effect, your money back immediately.—[Advertisement.

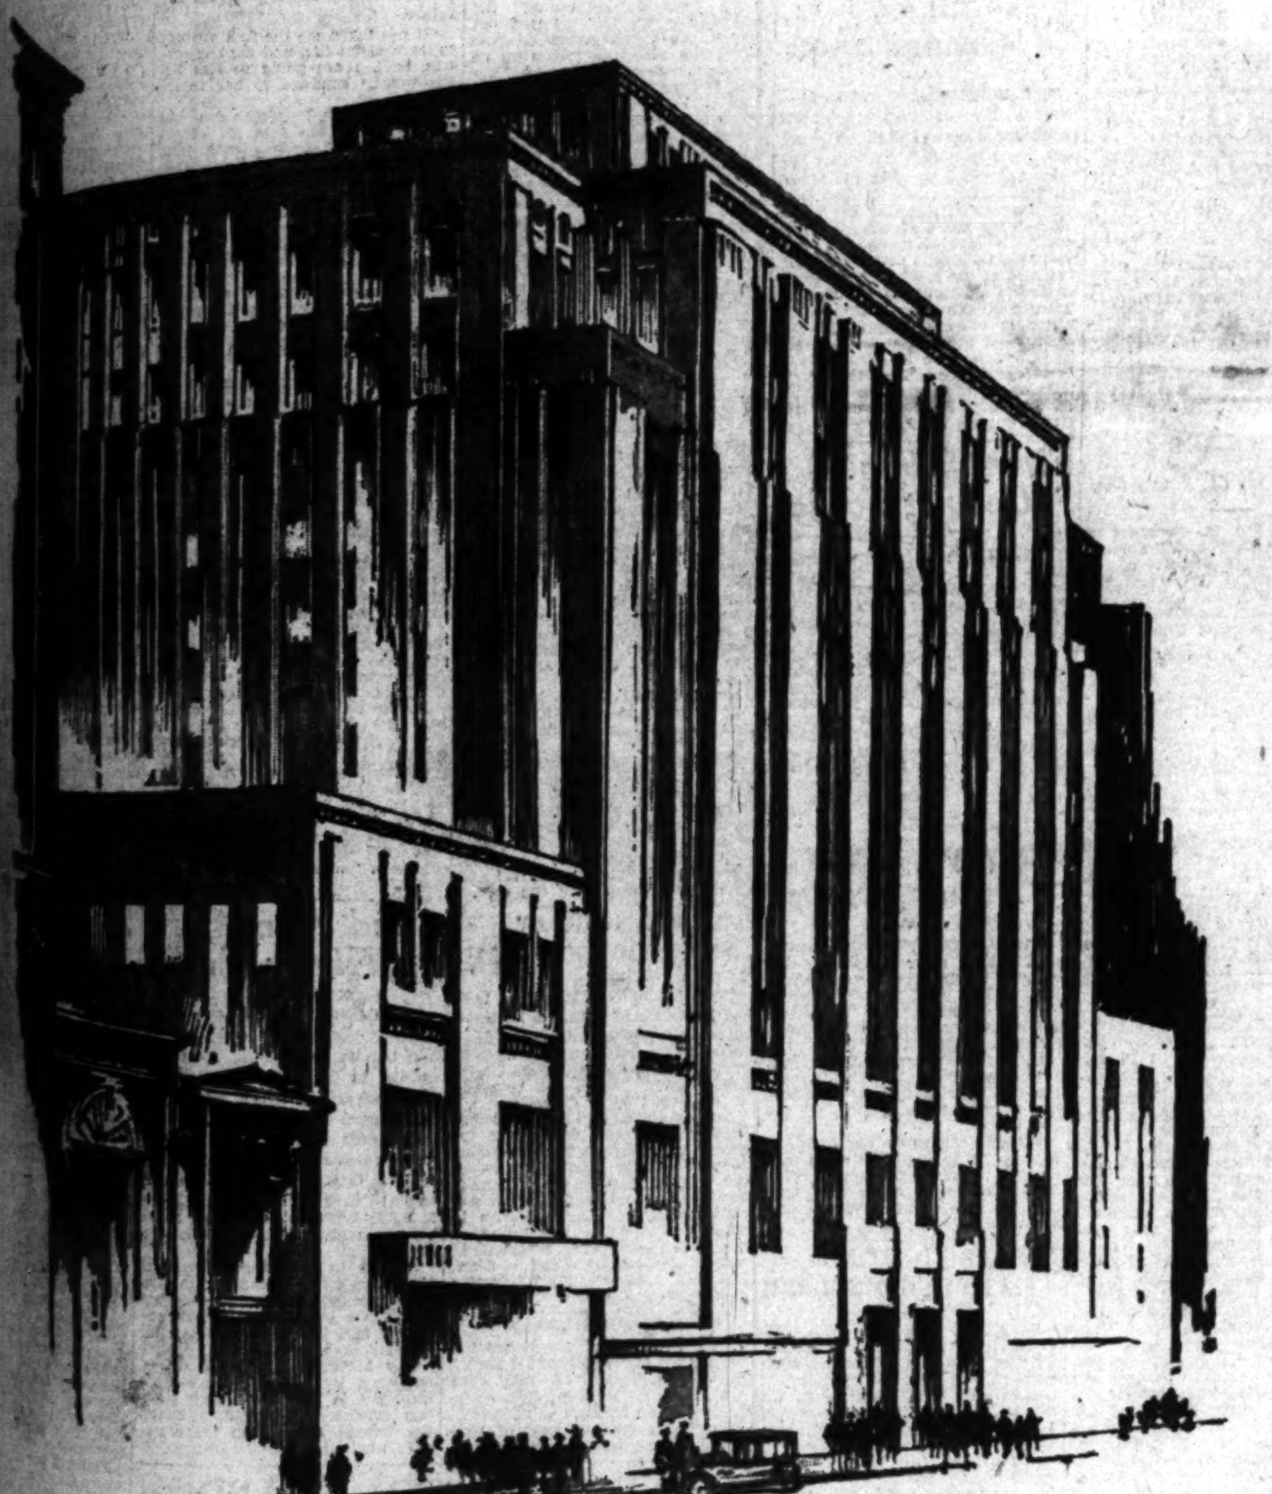
TITLE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY

Capital and Surplus $10,000,000

CALIFORNIA'S LARGEST TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY

recommends

that you protect your property or your real estate loan by a POLICY OF TITLE INSURANCE —rather than by a GUARANTEE OF TITLE—because of the greater protection afforded.



GARAGE IN THE BUILDING

...Free Parking in the Building for Customers: The Garage Entrance is at the North End on Spring Street.

IT HAS LONG BEEN the custom of those dealing in real estate in this county to ask for a Guarantee of Title when closing a real estate transaction. We have been issuing both "Guarantees" and Policies of Title Insurance for more than thirty years, but the public demand has been for Guarantees of Title. Even today a large number of those who come to us specifically ask for a "Guarantee"—but....

To obtain the most complete protection for your property, or for your loan, you should ask for a Policy of Title Insurance.

Title Insurance offers every protection given by the "Guarantee" plus certain added protective features—and it costs no more.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A GUARANTEE OF TITLE AND A POLICY OF TITLE INSURANCE?

Simply stated, a Guarantee of Title guarantees the condition of the title as disclosed by the official records. It does not insure you against defects not shown in the records, such as forgery, and false personation. ❧ A Policy of Title Insurance insures the title not only as disclosed by the official records, but also insures you against loss due to defects not shown by the records.

TITLE INSURANCE COSTS NO MORE THAN A GUARANTEE

It is, and has always been, the desire of this Company to offer the fullest possible protection to its customers, and, although there are additional liabilities assumed by the Company when issuing a Policy of Title Insurance, we advise all those buying real estate or lending money on real estate to secure Title Insurance in order that they may receive the greater protection given by this policy.

SECRET SCHOOL REFUGE RAIDED

"Outlaw" Headquarters in Supposed Vacant House

Initiation Paddle Covered With Obscene Wording

Board of Education Given Evidence for Action

SANTA ANA, Feb. 19.—Confiscated in a vacant house at 937 West Myrtle street by local police, a large paddle, covered with indecent lettering and believed to be an implement used in strange initiatory rites conducted by one of the "outlaw" secret organizations said to be composed at least in part of Santa Ana High School and Junior College students, was today in custody of D. K. Hammond, principal of the high school.

The paddle, which will be turned over to the Board of Education, according to Hammond, for whatever action the board deems necessary, is about two feet long and about a foot in width.

NEIGHBORS COMPLAIN

The wording had been done in pencil, and both sides were covered. More than a dozen unprintable phrases and approximately fifty vulgar words were written on the paddle, Hammond said.

The raid was the second development in the drive on "outlaw" scholastic secret orders. Several complaints had been received at police headquarters about automobiles arriving and leaving the supposedly vacant house at late hours at night, according to Chief of Police Claude Rogers.

SECOND ROOM REPORTED

Another room believed by officers to have been used by another secret order was found in a house at 937 West Highland street, it was reported.

The possibility that sponsored school organizations might take some action against the secret orders was seen here today inasmuch as the "outlaw" groups are said to be making trouble for the high school groups.

Hammond explained today that the school has several sponsored groups and clubs but that each organization has some definite aim. The "outlaw" groups seem to have as their main objective the staging of parties and dances, he declared.

Damage Suit is Echo of Fight

REDLANDS, Feb. 19.—The $20,000 damage case of E. A. Bethurem, real-estate operator here, against Capt. Theodore Krumm, City Councilman, will be on trial in the Superior Court Thursday. Judge Benjamin F. Warmer is to hear the case. The case has been set for 10 a.m. Thursday. Among the witnesses will be M. E. Gall, Adolph G. Johnson, Milton Brown, Claude Miles, Gertrude Miles, Norman P. Henderson, Mrs. Adolph G. Johnson and others. Some of them viewed an encounter several months ago in a downtown store in which Mr. Krumm is said to have manhandled Mr. Bethurem, a real-estate dealer. The argument was the outgrowth of criticism of Mr. Krumm, in which the plaintiff is said to have charged that Krumm failed to live up to his campaign promises after having been elected to the City Council.

The real-estate man charges that he sustained injuries in his encounter with Mr. Krumm, which have kept him from his work. He will introduce the testimony of at least two physicians.

Azusa Boosters Hold Banquet

AZUSA, Feb. 19.—More than 100 business men of the city were assembled at the Woman's Club last night for the monthly get together and booster dinner of the local Chamber of Commerce, S. E. Skidmore, secretary, announced today.

P. J. Tscharner, newly elected president of the chamber, presided over the meeting. General development of the city was discussed.

TRAINS GO FASTER THROUGH ONTARIO

ONTARIO, Feb. 19.—Within thirty-five days trains will be allowed to scoot through Ontario at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour. Heretofore they have been held down to twenty miles.

The slower speed of twenty miles cut down the running time of transcontinental trains, City Council was told, and valuable time was thus lost. Request was made that the speed be increased five miles additional.

Final reading of the increased speed ordinance was given last night effective within thirty-five days.

Council attempted to make an agreement with the railroad companies that if the extra five miles is allowed the trainmen cease blowing their whistles at night.

According to council there has been no let-up in the nocturnal train racket.

BESTOW HONOR ON USEFUL CITIZEN

Hiram W. Wadsworth

WADSWORTH EXALTED BY PASADENANS

President of Aqueduct Association is First Citizen of Crown City

PASADENA, Feb. 19.—For his invaluable services as president of the Colorado River Aqueduct Association Hiram W. Wadsworth will be awarded the Arthur Noble medal, presented annually to the person whose achievements are adjudged the most valuable to this city during the year, it was announced today at the weekly meeting of the Board of City Directors.

The committee of award consisted of Judge Edwin F. Hahn, chairman; Mrs. Arthur J. Wingard, Dr. Daniel F. Fox, John McWilliams, Jr., and George K. Hooper.

In announcing Mr. Wadsworth as their unanimous choice for Pasadena's highest honor, the committee issued the following statement:

"After discussing the list of those who had rendered notable service to the city in promoting its beauty and general welfare the committee's unanimous choice fell upon Hiram Wadsworth as the person entitled to th honor, for his services as president of the Colorado River Aqueduct Association, which initiated the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California to bring water from the Colorado River to Pasadena.

"This accomplishment is the culmination of wise foresight and of four and one-half years of voluntary and self-sacrificing effort in arousing and maintaining interest, securing legislation, successfully testing this in court, and finally presenting the proposition to the citizens at an election in November, 1928, at which it was strongly approved.

"The committee, in reaching this decision, which was arrived at by a single vote, has prominently in mind also the highly disinterested and valuable services rendered over many years by Mr. Wadsworth, touching practically all aspects of community and civic life, and, as well, the high ideals and tact which characterize his every act."

Mr. Wadsworth is one of the trustees of the California Institute of Technology.

COMMENT ON FOOD CAUSE OF ARREST

GLENDORA, Feb. 19.—Who in the h—— wants a cold egg sandwich for their supper followed by a series of oaths in the presence of a kind lady who graciously responded to his plea for something to eat, cost George Sherman, 60-year-old veteran hobo, thirty days in the County Jail when he appeared before Judge Dyer in the local justice court on a charge of disturbing the peace.

He was arrested by Chief of Police Baxter, who declares it is impossible for the tramp to express himself without the use of his extensive knowledge of profanity. However, he soon learned that in Judge Dyer's court, he needed a better study of the English language.

Sherman told Judge Dyer that he had been a bum most all his life and that he hailed from Colorado. "Thar's one thing I really like to do in this life (which doesn't mean much to him) and that is to eat good food, and I don't mean egg sandwiches," the tramp told Chief Baxter.

LOSE IN FIGHT TO SAVE LIFE

Blood Transfusion Fails in Accident Case at San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—Despite the efforts of two Ramona Hospital nurses who have given blood transfusions in a desperate effort to save the life of Charles Greegs, 55 years of age, of Claremont, the man, an automobile-accident victim, was critically ill today with practically no hope held for recovery. The injured man was rushed to the hospital here last night and a blood transfusion was given by Mrs. R. P. Micallef, night nurse at the institution.

Greegs rallied slightly, but this morning was worse and another transfusion was given by Mrs. Golda Lester, another nurse. The man's condition took a turn for the better but this afternoon he was sinking rapidly, according to Dr. C. N. Greusel, the physician in charge.

The transfusion was necessary to overcome the shock of a heavy blow to the injured man's head, which he received when the truck he was driving skidded and turned over as he was driving toward Colton, five miles west of Bloomington.

In the absence of friends or relatives of the injured man Mrs. Micallef offered her own blood. His companion, William Acker, 1105 East State street, Ontario, has a deep cut over his right eye and a bruised knee but is not seriously hurt.

According to Acker, the two were traveling east on the Valley Boulevard in a light truck when Greegs bent over to scratch a match on the floor of the truck. In doing so he lost control of the truck, which careened on the wet highway and turned over in the middle of the road. Greegs was pinned in the truck wreckage. Passing motorists aided the two injured men and they were brought to San Bernardino by ambulance.

Masons Break Ground for New Temple

VENTURA, Feb. 19.—With E. P. Foster, the oldest past master of the Ventura Masonic Lodge, invited to turn the first shovel of dirt, Ventura county Masons will hold the ground-breaking ceremony for their new temple at California and Santa Clara streets at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. A golden shovel will be used by the various lodge officials who are to take part.

The ground-breaking will take place just seven years to a day from the time the Masonic Temple Association was organized to build the new home, D. J. Reese said today.

The work of erecting the $138,000 temple will be carried on by A. Schroeder of Oxnard immediately.

Following the turning of the sod by Foster, Vice-president Wren Cannon will turn a shovelful, followed in order by Charles Petit and David J. Reese of the board of directors, and M. L. Brazil and Art Meade, Masters of the local lodges.

The erection of the new temple will mark the fifty-eighth year of Masonry in Ventura county.

Officers Find Missing Girl

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 19.—Ruth Kielland, 14-year-old Coronado schoolgirl, who ran away from home two days ago leaving a note requesting her parents not to interfere with her "career" by attempting to trace her, has been located at the home of family friends in Glendale, Undersheriff Ed Cooper announced today. Information from Glendale police indicated the girl had taken a stage from here to the home of the Brazier family there. It had been thought the girl contemplated motion-picture work, because she had been reading many movie periodicals lately. The names of acquaintances and friends of the Kielland family in and about Los Angeles were supplied officers in the search and the response from Glendale was almost immediate.

ENGLISH LADY ON DIVORCE

American Women Spoiled by Too Much Money, Say British Gentlewoman

PASADENA, Feb. 18.—The desire of American women to be two persons—mother and provider—at the same time is the cause of the increasing divorce rate in this country, according to Lady Katherine Mercer of London, who is a guest at the Hotel Vista del Arroyo.

"American women are spoiled," she declared. "They have too much money lavished upon them by too generous husbands who give them so much time to play that they succumb to various temptations.

"Instead of bringing up large families and taking care of their homes as English mothers do, they must have their clubs and their social engagements to take up all their time. Divorce in England is a serious matter!

"American women are the most charming representatives of their sex in the world, but they are too pampered. British women have not advanced in the business world as they have in America, but I think that the home is still the most important consideration for every woman."

Lady Mercer is the widow of the late Sir David Mercer, K.C.B., whose death occurred at the close of the World War. As head of the Royal Marines, Sir David Mercer won recognition as one of England's bravest military leaders.

The titled Englishwoman is in charge of the library department of the American Women's Club of London. She plans to write articles on the work of the club during her sojourn here.

ATTORNEY ASKS FOR CONVICTION

Prosecutor Talks to Jury in El Centro Case

Bartley Murder Case Nearing End

Defense Pleads Unwritten Law of Justification

EL CENTRO, Feb. 19.—Declaring that the evidence indicated that Ray Kilgore shot Francis A. Bartley once from ambush and a second time as he stood over the prostrate body of his victim, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Edward B. Patterson, during a two-hour plea this morning, asked that the Stanford youth who, according to the testimony, killed his mother's clandestine lover be found guilty of first-degree murder.

As Patterson displayed photographs showing the position of the body and the wounds inflicted by a shotgun to prove his assertion that the crime was committed by stealth, Mrs. Bartley, the widow, sobbed hysterically in a chair a few feet away.

The prosecuting attorney expressed doubt of the truth of the confession made by the mother of the defendant on the witness stand when she testified that she was guilty of wrongdoing with Bartley.

"She was doing what any mother would do willingly to save her son from life imprisonment or death," Patterson asserted.

He ridiculed the story told by Kilgore that he was unconscious of his acts when he bought a shotgun at Santa Monica and drove 250 miles to the Bartley ranch in Imperial Valley to slay the man. "That is all nonsense," said the attorney.

The deputy prosecutor completed his plea just before the noon recess. Defense Attorney Ernest Utley took up much of the afternoon session in reviewing the evidence. His plea in behalf of Kilgore was based first on the unwritten law of justification, and, second, on the testimony that the defendant was unconscious of his act when he prepared to shoot Bartley. He pictured the defendant as a serious-minded young man whose life for several months had been devoted to the task of reuniting a broken family.

"Through his mother's intercepted letter he discovered that all his efforts had been in vain. His subconscious mind then undertook to answer a problem that his normal mind had failed to solve," declared the attorney.

It was evident toward the close of today's session that the attorneys would not complete their arguments before tomorrow morning. Confidence was expressed that the case would be in the hands of the jury before tomorrow night.

Reynolds, county superintendent of schools; "Leadership and Programs," by Mrs. Earl Morris of Santa Ana, retiring manager of the nation bureau program service; and "Some Characteristics of a Progressive Parent," by Mrs. Tam Deering of San Diego, will feature the morning program.

In the afternoon Judge Edward Henderson is to speak on "Useful Citizenship," Mrs. W. A. Price of San Diego will address the conference on "The New Tools of Leisure," and E. B. Leffert of Los Angeles will speak on "Safety in the Home, School, Country."

AIRCRAFT WORKERS OVERCOME WITH GAS

GLENDALE, Feb. 19.—Four workmen employed at the hangar of the Slate Aircraft Company, working on the dirigible City of Glendale, were overcome by gas fumes which penetrated their gas masks today. Thomas W. Pritchard, 1228 Stanley avenue, Glendale, and Clair W. Thompson, 1950 Chickasaw street, Eagle Rock, were at work inside the hull of the ship when they were overcome by the gas.

Grover Slate, a relative of Capt. Thomas B. Slate, the inventor of the dirigible, living at 1320 Irving street, and R. H. Ruggles, 118½ North Olive street, attempted to go to their rescue and were also stricken by the fumes of the gas. The men were finally dragged out and the inhalator squad of the fire department, Battalion Chief R. E. Dodsworth in charge, worked over Pritchard and Thompson for some time before they could be revived. Slate and Ruggles were restored to consciousness in a few minutes after the other workmen rushed to their assistance.

URGES PREVENTIVE OF FIRES IN FOREST

PASADENA, Feb. 19.—The construction of gravel aprons which would catch lighted matches and cigarettes tossed away by careless motorists on mountain roads, was suggested today by George E. Marcy, former head of the Armour Grai nCompany of Chicago, as the oest practical method to save California's forests from destruction.

"Unless some precautions of this kind are taken, the forests will be burned and this lovely State will become as barren as the desert," said Mr. Marcy, who is a guest at the Hotel Huntington.

"Regulations will not save the forests. The only thing I see that would prevent fires, or minimize them, would be to throw up gravel aprons along the roads in forest regions, so that motorists could not toss their burning tobacco and matches into the brush."

POSTPONE ELECTION AT VENTURA

Proposed One-Man Affair Declared Off for Present; Single Voter Missing

VENTURA, Feb. 19.—Ventura's "freak" election is off. So says City Attorney Walter Fourt after a tramp over the Charles Jones fifteen-acre tract east of the city limits, which it was proposed to vote into the city.

When the annexation was proposed to the City Council, Fourt was ordered to take steps to call an election for the annexation. He understood that Jones had a tenant on the land who would cast the only vote and there was presented the novel proposition of a one-man election, with the tenant being election board, election judge, the only voter, and the canvasser of "all the vote."

But no one seemed to know the name of this tenant. The City Clerk did not remember the name. None of the local real estate men consulted could help. Finally, Fourt went personally to the land to be annexed to find out who this important voter was to be. He found no one living on the land.

The process of annexation now will be this, according to Fourt: There must be a petition, signed by 10 per cent of the number of voters who took part in the city's last election; the petition will go before the Board of Supervisors for approval; there will be a chance for formal protest; these, if any, being overruled, the Supervisors will refer the question back to the city for an election.

Rain Means Nothing to Orange Show

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 19.—After a day of rain thousands jammed the orange show structure and grounds today. It was Pomona-Ontario and West End Day, as well as Santa Monica Bay District Day at the exposition.

Creatore's band played two concerts. In conjunction with the show, the California Citrus Institute was held at the Elks' Club attended by scores of ranchers of districts throughout the State. Dr. H. R. Wellman, extension specialist in agriculture economics at the college of agriculture in Berkeley, delivered one of the most interesting talks of the meeting when he spoke on the subject of "Orange and Grapefruit Outlook."

Fingerprints Convict Forger

UPLAND, Feb. 19.—Fingerprints taken of a J. Hoffman in Upland last November 4, have sent him to Folsom prison for from fourteen years to life, from Santa Barbara, it was learned here today.

Hoffman was arrested here for reckless driving. His fingerprints were broadcast. Word was received from Santa Barbara he was wanted there on bad check charges. Upon serving his time in Upland Jail Hoffman was taken to Santa Barbara and convicted again. His long criminal record showed him to be a dangerous character and he was sentenced to Folsom.

Family Flees Burning House

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 19.—Awakened shortly after 2 o'clock this morning by the crackling of flames, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Brown and their three grandchildren were forced to flee from their burning ranch house six miles southeast of town. The family narrowly escaped death. Mrs. Brown was painfuly burned about the face and neck while assisting the children to escape from the house.

Mystery surrounds the fire's origin which apparently started in a brooder housing 900 small chickens. The chickens, a quantity of feed, and the ranch house with all contents were destroyed.

REDONDO BAPTISTS TO BUILD CHURCH

REDONDO BEACH, Feb. 19. Plans for an imposing new building for the first Baptist congregation were announced yesterday by the pastor, Rev. E. A. Earns, upon the recently purchased church property at the corner of Emerald and Elena streets.

The building fund is to be formed around the proceeds of the sale of the land upon which the present church building is situated, on Elena near Garnet streets and the main building and Sunday-school rooms which now stand there will be utilized as a minor part of the new building, the exterior finish of which will be of stucco, modeled along the lines of California architecture.

ENGINEER FAVORS NICARAGUAN CANAL

PASADENA, Feb. 19.—"One bomb could destroy the usefulness of the Panama Canal to the United States in time of war," declared Maj. James C. McGuire, engineering authority, who stressed the necessity for the immediate construction of the proposed Nicaragua Canal in the course of an interview at the Hotel Huntington today. Maj. McGuire, who has seen considerable service in Nicaragua and has gathered first-hand knowledge regarding the plan to provide a second link between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, is enjoying a brief vacation in this city.

POWER PROJECT NOT IN FAVOR

Farm Bureau Engineer Opposes Bonds

Imperial Valley Farmers Stand to Lose

Private Ownership Best for Taxpayers

EL CENTRO, Feb. 19. — Farm owners in Imperial Valley who are now carrying approximately 90 per cent of the Imperial Irrigation District tax burden, would receive little or no benefit from the proposed $2,100,000 bond issue for the installation of hydroelectric plants in the canal system, according to the conclusion of L. S. Wing, engineer for the California Farm Bureau Federation, in a report made public here today.

Summarizing his opinion of the power proposal, Wing declared that it "offers insufficient possibility of profit to warrant the district entering into this field of service."

The Farm Bureau engineer undertook an investigation of the district power program last September at the request of members in the Imperial Valley. His final report supplies a direct contradiction to the published statements of M. J. Dowd, district engineer, who has been chief sponsor of the plan.

The project advocated by Dowd included the construction of five small hydro-power units in the canal system and a steam plant at the city of Imperial. He asserted that the district could sell its power 30 per cent lower than the price now charged by the Southern Sierras Power Company which services this territory and makes a profit on the investment.

Wing expressed the opinion that the Southern Sierra company will be able to make radical reductions in its power charges during the next five years and pointed out that if the district is to compete with these rates the return on its investment would not exceed 2 per cent and might amount to a net loss.

The Farm Bureau engineer reviewed the possibilities of power development at Pilot Knob, near the intake on the Colorado River and expressed the opinion that the development at this point is feasible and probably would be profitable.

The report made by Wing confirms the conclusions of A. Kempky, San Francisco engineer, who advised against the Imperial project in a report made to State Engineer Hyatt several months ago.

Losses Lead to Suicide Effort

GLENDALE, Feb. 19.—Despondent over the loss of their savings of a lifetime, which had been dissipated in investments that resulted unfortunately, Mrs. Emma Jenkins, 46 years of age, wife of Fred W. Jenkins, 500 North Glendale avenue, last night swallowed several tablets of poison in an effort to commit suicide. She was removed to the Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital, where physicians state that she has a slender chance for recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins came here four years ago with $140,000 that they had amassed by years of frugal living. Investments since then swept away the greater part of their fortune and they invested what was left in an apartment-house. Because of inability to make a payment due they faced the prospect of losing all that was left to them and of being penniless tomorrow, according to Detectives Merrill and Drew, who investigated the case.

LAST RITES FRIDAY FOR REDONDO WOMAN

REDONDO BEACH, Feb. 19.—Last rites for Mrs. Louisa Nash, 76 years of age, who was found dead yesterday in her bath, will be held Friday at 1 p.m. at the First Christian Church. Burial will be made in Inglewood Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Nash lived alone, and her neighbors, having missed her for several days, investigated her home, at 521 Garnett street, to discover her lifeless body in the bathtub. Mrs. Nash came to California sixteen years ago. She was born in Wisconsin in 1852. She leaves a grand-daughter, Mrs. Madelon U. Frame, of Lawndale and a niece, Mrs. Lillian Austin of 1617 Hyperion avenue, Los Angeles.

SUES FOR DAMAGE

CORCORAN, Feb. 19.—A suit has been brought by Leonard Langley, guardian ad litem, of Ada Allen against R. E. Lewis for $960, growing out of an accident in which two automobiles crashed west of Corcoran on November 28, 1928.

FIRST HUNDRED YEARS HARDEST

Mrs. Mary Randolph
Of Monrovia, on hundredth birthday says she has just learned how to live and from now on will enjoy existence.

YEARS FAIL TO DIM HER ENJOYMENT

Monrovia Centenarian in Step With Modern Life, Even Simplified Diet

MONROVIA, Feb. 19.—A century old, but thoroughly modern, Mrs. Mary Randolph at the celebration of her 100th birth anniversary yesterday in her modest bungalow at 275 Stedman Place, gayly chatted with intimate friends of her plans for the future.

"It has taken me the first century to learn about life, and for the second, well, I am going to live it," the woman confided to her interviewer.

Although Mrs. Randolph does not exactly claim the title of "centenarian flapper," she declares that she would be more active if her guardians permitted and as proof of her agility did several fancy steps which were frowned upon by her companions. She next advanced a wager that she could outdo any of these "kicking beauties" in the chorus and was about to set the century record for high stepping when she was admonished by her nurse and directed to her rocker by a window.

Of her own accord, the aged woman brought up the question of "the secret of happiness," and declared that she is in sympathy with the divorce law, asserting that to make life drudgery is to stay tied to a mate who is not suited. She illustrated with her own life, stating that at the age of 83 years, following years as a widow, she married Warren B. Randolph, of Los Angeles, who was thirty years her junior, only to divorce him several years later.

Mrs. Randolph, the mother of five children, all of whom she has outlived, has six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren in the East.

Born February 18, 1829, in New York State, Mrs. Randolph spent the greater part of her life on a farm near Detroit, and moved to California twenty years ago.

At one time she managed extensive real estate holdings in the East and still looks after her own estate.

She lives with Mrs. A. A. Hanson, a nurse, whose only great worry concerning the health of the centenarian, is to keep her quiet.

Mrs. Randolph's parting repartee was that she attributed her long life to a "simple diet of pork and beans."

Aged Woman Hit by Truck

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 19.—Struck by a heavily-loaded truck which backed into her as she stepped from the curbing at Thirty-fifth street and El Cajon avenue today, Mrs. Florence Viosca, 60 years of age, of 4259 Thirty-fifth street, sustained injuries which may prove fatal, police report. One of the wheels which backed over the woman's leg mangled it at the knee. The same leg was pulled from the socket at the hip.

Rushed to the County Hospital physicians began an attempt to save the woman's life and amputated the leg at the knee. Due to her advanced age, it is feared the victim may succumb to shock.

Roy Massaeur, the truck driver, employed by a local construction firm, was to be charged with reckless driving, police said, although the woman was not in the crosswalk when struck.

WEALTHY GIRL JAILED

Daughter of Pasadena Millionaire Arrested on Forgery Charge

GLENDALE, Feb. 19.—Florence Rich, alias Peggy Mason, said to be the daughter of a Pasadena millionaire, was arraigned in police courts today on charges of forgery, following her arrest after a race through the Saturday night shopping crowds and her release later on $10,000 cash bail.

Lee Heath, former Chief of Police of Los Angeles, appeared as attorney for the defendant and asked Police Judge F. H. Lowe, when the date of the preliminary hearing had been set for the 28th inst., to permit him to offer a substitute for the cash bail. Judge Lowe agreed to the substitution on condition that the security offered be first scrutinized by the City Attorney to determine the capitalization of any bonding company offering the bond, with a statement of its liabilities and bonds outstanding. If property bond is offered the county records will be scrutinized before it is accepted.

The defendant was turned over to Pasadena officers when bail was not forthcoming, as she is said to be wanted in that city on charges of offering bad checks. Although only one complaint charging forgery was filed, a number of checks said to have been passed by the defendant on merchants in Glendale and Los Angeles were attached to the complaints. All of the checks are supposed to be on the Central Construction Company, 510 West Sixth street, Los Angeles, signed by J. W. Henderson as treasurer and made payable to Peggy Mason.

METAL MARKETS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Daily Metal Trade today says: Cold finished steel bars have been advanced $2 a ton at Pittsburgh following the $1 a ton increase in the price of hot rolled material. This increase applies on new spot business not covered by contracts and also on second quarter contracts.

Scarcity of steel in the Youngstown district is being reflected at the finishing mills, where operations are being interfered with to some extent. Sheet metal orders in this district and specifications continue to pile in upon mills in such volume that they are putting up the bars in some instances. At Pittsburgh some sheet mills are booked up several weeks ahead. The price situation in the sheet market lacks uniformity.

The copper market is quiet but unchanged at 18c, Connecticut. Zinc is steady at 6.35, East St. Louis. Lead is strong and today was advanced to 6.95, New York, and 6.80 to 6.82½, East St. Louis. Tin is easy at 49.37½c.

DIESEL ENGINE CHIEF AT PORT

Busch-Sulzer Head Here on Shipping Survey

Type of Power Advocated for Ocean Carriers

Use Held Vital to Growth of Merchant Marine

Restoration of the American merchant marine as a dominant factor in the world's sea-borne commerce depends largely on American shipowners following the lead of foreign operators in adoption of the Diesel engine for their new cargo fleets. That was the declaration made at the port yesterday by Edward B. Pollister, general manager of the Busch-Sultzer Brothers Engine Company, largest American builder of Diesel engines. Mr. Pollister is here from St. Louis on a survey of Pacific Coast shipping.

"America is being outstripped on every freight trade route on the oceans," said Mr. Pollister, "simply because our shipowners have not yet awakened to the fact that the ten-knot steam-driven freighter is fast being relegated to the scrap heap by the efficient, economical motorship, just as twenty years ago the sailing ship was supplanted by the steamer.

EXAMPLE AT HAND

"Here on the Pacific Coast, on which the commercial and maritime interests of the world are centering, you have an outstanding example. There are nine freight and passenger services in European-Pacific trade, all of which are maintained by new motorships or steamers that are being replaced by motorships; yet not one of these lines flies the United States flag.

"The efficiency of the Diesel engine has been thoroughly proven. Operating cost of a motorship of the same tonnage as a steam-driven cargo carrier is approximately half, thereby giving much greater operating radius and more cargo space, due to smaller machinery space and less bunker capacity required."

Mr. Pollister commended the action of the United States Shipping Board in converting a number of its freight steamers to Diesel-drive. The government's $250,000,000 loan fund, wherein three-fourths the cost of new American ship construction is loaned to the builders, is a worthy step toward restoration of America's sea power, he said, but he stressed the need for development of a new American fleet of freighters, which he characterized as the "backbone of the merchant marine."

Twenty-eight motorships, in passenger and freight services, which are powered with Busch-Sulzer Diesel engines, operate regularly out of Los Angeles Harbor in foreign services.

NORTH GERMAN LLOYD BUILDING NEW LINERS

North German Lloyd Line is building two larger and faster passenger steamers in Germany for entry in its Pacific-European fleet soon, replacing the Witram and the Wittell, according to announcement yesterday by Williams, Dimond & Co., agents.

They are the Isar, due here in April, and the Donaum, expected early in the summer. They are ships of 8000 tons gross, with cabins for twenty passengers and have a speed of fourteen knots. The fleet will continue with seven ships.

Outbound yesterday, possibly on her last trip here, was the Witram, after loading borax, cotton and honey, and embarking Capt. R. Paradise and five officers going home to Germany after their tanker, Clione, was sold here to British interests. The Schwaben of the same line sailed north yesterday after discharging 1200 tons of roofing paper, fertilizer and general cargo.

The big Diesel yacht Hilda, which slipped in unheralded from the east coast recently, will make her home at Santa Barbara as soon as the breakwater at the latter city is completed. She was bought by Charles Bolt from O. A. Mansville, and left New York under command of Capt. C. B. Flynn, December 15, dropping the Bolts at Havana. They since have returned to Santa Barbara and will make a short cruise off the Coast in about ten days. The yacht was built in 1926 at a cost of $600,000 and for a time was owned by Cliff Durant. She is 170 feet long, has two 300-horsepower Bethlehem Diesels, makes fourteen knots and has a cruising radius of 8000 miles. Her crew numbers twenty.

Drawings transmitted by photo radio from England to New York saved a week's time and $7000 to the Kerr motorship Silvermaple on the Atlantic early this month. The ship, bound westward around the world, damaged her rudder and rudder stock, 700 miles off New York. London was advised, sketches of the rudder were radioed to New York and a new stock was shipped two days later to the ship at Bermuda. Radio also saved a sick sailor's life on the Norwegian tanker Concordia after that ship had sailed from here for Japan, according to information received yesterday by the Sconhoft-Gallis Company. Capt. C. A. Arentz radioed the man's symptoms to Dr. C. B. Gibson on the President Monroe; the latter diagnosed the case as a minor abdominal gathering; gave Arentz surgical instructions and the latter operated successfully.

Harbor commissioners will open bids today on 240,000 board feet of timbers and pilings for a trestle in East Wilmington which will bring the Santa Fe extension to the Belt Line Railroad. The entire project will have cost the city approximately $600,000, including rights of way, excavation, changes in highways and such. Truck Boulevard has been lowered a maximum of twenty-six feet, the cut extending 2600 feet, to permit the railway to cross overhead. The cut and paving are done and concrete abutments to the bridge are being started. The latter will have a clearance of sixteen feet over the boulevard.

Hamburg American Line's new motor liner Seattle, in from Germany late last night, disembarked twenty-four of her forty-eight passengers here. Among them is Lieut.-Col. George Merz, commanding a riding academy for the infantry school at Dresden. He has been ordered to America for study by the German reichswehr.

W. J. Maggio's big motorized bait boat Hermosa came in from southern waters yesterday with sixty tons of yellowfin tuna, the largest catch in months. Several tons went to the fresh markets and the rest to the Coast Fishing Company's cannery. The season off Cape San Lucas still is early, boats there radioing back the fish are too wild.

Howard Benton, ship checker, was found dead yesterday morning in his office, 326 1-2 Avalon Boulevard. He suffered injuries in an automobile crash, but returned to work, going later to his offices. The body is at Wood's mortuary and police are investigating.

News of Ships and Sailings at Pacific Ports

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (AP)—On her maiden voyage to San Francisco under the house flag of the Dollar Steamship Company, the steamer President Johnson arrived here today from New York with 110 passengers and a capacity cargo. The vessel, which was formerly the Panama-Pacific liner Manchuria, was reconditioned on the east coast at a cost of $400,000, and will take a regular place in the Dollar intercoastal service. Capt. Makepeace Ridley, former master of the around-the-world liner President Van Buren, was on the bridge of the Johnson today.

Withdrawal of the Quaker Line from the intercoastal lumber conference, effective in ninety days, was announced here today following the regular weekly meeting of the organization. The Luckenbach Line, Nelson Company and Williams Line last week filed notice of their intention of withdrawing from the conference.

Metropolitan Trust Passes to Title Securities

Deal Jointly Announced by Companies' Heads

Combine Creates Institution With $6,000,000

Negotiations for the purchase of the Metropolitan Trust Company by the Consolidated Title Securities Company, holding company for the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company, have been completed, according to an announcement made yesterday by Charles B. Hopper, president of the former, and Glenn A. Schaefer, president and general manager of the latter company.

The Consolidated Title Securities Company has purchased the stock of the Metropolitan Trust Company. Offices of the trust company will be moved in the near future to the Security Title Insurance Building, and as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, Mr. Schaefer stated, the Metropolitan Trust Company will become an integral part of the Security organization, operating as its trust department.

The combined assets of the three companies, the Consolidated Title Securities Company, the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company, and the Metropolitan Trust Company, are at present in excess of $6,000,000. Trust estates amounting to $15,000,000, now administered by the Metropolitan Trust Company, will form the nucleus of the new trust department of the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company.

The Metropolitan Trust Company has also built up a savings department with deposits of approximately $1,500,000, but these are not included in the transaction, since California title companies are not permitted to operate a banking business.

The Metropolitan Trust Company will be represented on boards of directors of the Consolidated Title Securities Company and the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company by Alphonzo Bell, George L. Eastman, John Treanor and Charles B. Hopper, who has been executive head of the Metropolitan Trust Company since its organization. F. S. Hollister, vice-president of the Metropolitan, will continue active, heading the new trust department of the title company. Security officials who were active in completing negotiations for the purchase of the trust company, in addition to Mr. Schaefer, were William S. Porter, vice-president in charge of operations; T. W. Raymond, vice-president and secretary; James R. Ford, vice-president, and R. S. Padget, vice-president and treasurer.

The International Utilities Company owns a system providing electric light and power to British Columbia and Saskatchewan and gas to parts of Alberta. The companies controlled are Canadian Utilities, Inc., of Edmonton; Gas Production and Transportation Company, Inc., of Calgary; Duncan Utilities, Ltd., Nanaimo Electric Light, Power and Heat Company and Canadian Western Natural Gas, Light, Heat and Power Company, Ltd. It is understood that properties of the International Utilities Corporation in the United States will not be included in the merger.

TRUST FUND KEPT LIQUID

Fifty-four Per Cent in Cash and Call Loans Shown by Investment Managers' Company

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Investors and traders in the market looking for advise on the best course to pursue may find a few hints in the annual report of the Investment Managers' Company on the operations of its Trust Fund "A". This company, which is headed by Edgar Lawrence Smith, author of "Common Stocks as Long Term Investments," is evidently proceeding with a cautious eye to danger signals. At the close of the year 54 per cent of its capital was safely segregated as call loans and cash.

Somewhat the same policy was indicated by the Pacific Investing Company of Los Angeles, of which Henry S. McKee is the president. This company reported 46.8 per cent in call loans and cash, with the remainder distributed among common stocks, preferred stocks and bonds.

IDEAS DIFFER

If the report of the North American Investment Corporation of San Francisco is studied, however, an entirely different idea of investment policies is found. The North American policy, moreover, was successful, the report for 1928 showing $13.02 earned on the common, against $11.36 in the previous year. Only 3.83 per cent of the capital was employed in cash and call loans at the end of the year, the majority of the total having been used in common and preferred stocks and bonds.

Unlike the Pacific Investing and the North American, the A fund of the Investment Managers' Company discloses only common stocks in the investment account. Forty-six per cent of the fund was employed in this manner, distributed among only about thirty securities. In the previous year 48 per cent was in common stocks and 52 per cent in cash and call loans.

It is interesting to note that Southern California Edison common is highly regarded by the analysts of the Investment Managers' Company. Of the five public utility companies selected Edison was the favorite, with 6800 shares, compared with 4612 of North American, next in popularity with this investment trust.

RAILS TOP LIST

Rails, as a group, take first place in the investment list, as it stood on December 31, last. The percentage of the total was 38.7 per cent. Such stocks as Union Pacific, Southern Railway, Pennsylvania, Rock Island and Chesapeake and Ohio were included.

Miscellaneous stocks, including issues like Goodyear Tire, International Cement, International Harvester, Otis Elevator, Texas Corporation and United States Steel common accounted for 35.1 per cent of the whole. Texas Corporation, incidentally, was the only oil stock owned.

Public utility shares represented an investment of 17.8 per cent of the total, followed by 8.4 per cent in mining stocks. The latter group was made up of copper stocks, American Smelting and Cerro de Pasco.

Earnings of the A fund for 1928 were at the rate of 14.26 per cent annually, compared with 12.18 per cent in 1927 and 9.21 per cent in 1926.

Bond Company Issues Annual Income Report

Weeden & Co., one of the few investment banking houses to make public its operating income, reported yesterday 1928 net earnings available for taxes and dividends, of $141,137, which, after reserve for taxes of $14,687 and preferred dividends of $141,137, leaves a balance of $111,964 for the common stock, or $4.48 per share on the 25,000 shares outstanding December 31, last.

Frank Weeden, president, who made the announcement, stated that the year was a rather difficult one for the bond business. "Bond prices gradually weakened and the averages showed approximately 3¼ points decline during the year. In addition to this decline, there was extreme inactivity during the latter half of the year," he stated.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable conditions, gross sales of the company aggregated $75,750,000, compared with $58,500,000 in the previous year, an increase of $17,500,000, or about 30 per cent. Common stock of the company carries a current dividend rate of $2 a share per annum. Surplus at the close of the period totaled $92,500. The company maintains offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York.

Hancock Oil's Profits Point Up in January

Net earnings of the Hancock Oil Company for January were reported yesterday at $110,436.07, after depletion and depreciation charges, but before Federal income tax. This compares with $28,911.93 for January, 1928, and on 36,000 shares of Class A stock now outstanding is equal to about $3.06 a share, or $1.84 a share on the combined 60,000 shares of A and B stock outstanding.

The total net income for the year ended December 31, last, as previously announced, was $276,119.92, after all charges including Federal taxes. After preferred dividends, the 1928 net income was equivalent to $24.57 a share on an average of 10,877 shares of Class A common stock outstanding, or $7.65 a share on the average number of Class A and B common shares outstanding.

The recent activity of the company's stock on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange has developed various sale or merger rumors, but officials of the company assert that while several tentative purchase offers have been made, no final negotiations are pending. Will J. Reid, president of the company, stated positively that the company would not be involved in any merger. He added that he expected to have something interesting to tell the company stockholders at the annual meeting the 26th inst., but declined to comment as to whether this would be in the nature of dividends or a sale proposal.

Great Republic Life Assets in Gain for Year

Total admitted assets of the Great Republic Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles increased $413,902.36 during 1928 to a total of $4,580,098.81 as of December 31, last, while the total volume of insurance in force at the close of the year aggregated $36,004,232, A. Otis Birch, president, announced yesterday.

The annual premium income of the company amounted to $992,719.45. Payments to policyholders for the year totaled $403,176.54, bringing the total payments to policyholders since organization in 1913 to $2,249,890.07. The mortality experienced last year was 40.6 per cent of the expected, which compares with a ratio of 54 per cent for 1927.

Of the total assets, cash on hand represented more than $335,000. First mortgage loans aggregated $1,892,076.81, and policy loans and premium notes totaled $880,799.78. Stocks and bonds represented $752,114.20. Unassigned surplus amounted to $143,146.03, while the surplus set aside for policyholders amounted to $693,146.03. The company operates in eight western and middle-western States.

PENN DIXIE CEMENT NET SHADES LOWER

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive) Consolidated net profits of the Penn Dixie Cement Corporation amounted to $1,293,851, after all charges for the year closed December 31, last, it was announced yesterday. This is equivalent, after preferred dividends, to 90 cents a share on 400,000 common shares and compares with $1,967,493, or $2.64 a share earned in 1927.

CUBA NET GAINS

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive) Consolidated net income of the Cuba Company totaled $835,176 for the six months closed December 31, equal, after preferred dividends, to $1.03 a share on the 640,000 shares outstanding, against $440,101 or 55 cents a share in the 1927 period, it was announced today.

Citrus Fruit Shipments Hit Record Levels

Orange shipments from Southern California in January aggregated 5478 cars, compared with 2986 cars in January, 1928, a gain of 2492, or about 85 per cent, it was reported yesterday by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

Oranges shipped by the exchange aggregated 3598 cars, compared with 2042 in January, 1928. In boxes this was a gain of 76 per cent, but in the number of oranges, was an increase of about 100 per cent, according to the report, which pointed out that the gain was made despite unusual weather conditions which greatly retarded distribution.

Combined shipments of California and Florida oranges during January totaled 11,172 cars, the greatest volume of citrus fruit ever shipped in a month. This compares with 6957 cars in January, 1928, representing an increase of 4215 cars, or more than 60 per cent.

Cold weather was general throughout California districts from the 8th to 10th inst., but little or no damage is expected, except in unprotected orchards. The frost-warning service, and increased heater equipment in dangerous areas, proved valuable investments to the growers, officials stated.

Car Loadings Register Gain

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Loading of revenue freight for the week ended the 9th inst. totaled 955,478 cars, the car service division of the American Railway Association announced today. Compared with the preceding week, this was an increase of 8586 cars, with increase being reported in total loading of all commodities except grain and grain products and miscellaneous freight, which showed small decreases.

The total for the week of the 9th inst. was an increase of 49,001 cars over the corresponding week in 1928, but a decrease of 7134 cars under the corresponding week in 1927.

PACIFIC FINANCE PROFITS MOUNT

Operating Report for 1928 Shows Heavy Gain

Net Increase Over 1927 Set Nearly 48 Per Cent

Earnings on Common Stock Equal $7 Per Share

Pacific Finance Corporation completed its most successful year December 31, last, when the year's operations produced a net income of $1,635,695.32, an increase of $536,899.53 or about 48 per cent over 1927, after charging off uncollectible accounts and setting up adequate reserves for Federal income tax, future contingencies and unearned discount, Lee A. Phillips, president, stated yesterday in his annual report to the shareholders. The earnings are equivalent to approximately $7 a share on the average number of common shares outstanding during 1928, as compared to $5.25 a share for 1927, figured on the basis of the 4-for-1 stock splitup made since 1927.

Stockholders at the annual meeting yesterday approved the recent proposal of the directors to pass on to the shareholders added return from the company's earnings in the form of a 1 per cent quarterly stock dividend. No change was made in the personnel of directors or officers, except the addition of W. Von Binzer to the list of assistant secretaries.

The declaration of the quarterly stock dividend, Mr. Phillips pointed out, reflected the satisfactory operations in 1928 and indicated the assurance of the directors that the future would show continued improvement for the company.

DIVIDEND PAYMENTS

The usual dividends on preferred stock were paid during 1928 and $2.50 per share on the common stock up to October 1, last, and $3 per share per annum thereafter. As of December 31, last, the corporation has a paid-up capital of $6,000,000 preferred and $5,000,000 common and a surplus of $3,324,342.14. Total resources increased during the year from $30,620,000 to $34,673,000, or approximately 12 per cent. The total volume of business transacted aggregated over $75,000,000.

During the year the common stock was increased by $1,000,000 par value, which was offered to and subscribed for by the stockholders at $50 per share. The 8 per cent Series B preferred stock of a par value of $1,000,000, was redeemed and replaced by $1,000,000 par value 6½ per cent Series C preferred stock for which the company received par.

The balance sheet showed that the company ended the year with $3,368,151.83 cash on hand and currents assets of over two to one compared with current liabilities.

SITUATION IMPROVES

In automobile financing, Mr. Phillips stated, the company materially improved its position, increasing the volume of business more than 10 per cent over the preceding year and securing a better class of paper, repossession defaults and credit losses being 35 per cent less than last year. The commercial department handled more than $13,000,000 worth of business at a satisfactory profit and the dairy cattle department, organized recently, is showing progress. The miscellaneous time sales and aircraft departments, while transacting a comparatively small volume of business, are now well organized and should produce excellent results in 1929, according to Mr. Phillips.

The earnings and business of the affiliated companies, Rule & Sons, Inc., and the Elliott-Horne Company were reported as most satisfactory. Wheeler Brothers & Pierce, Inc., one of the oldest and largest insurance concerns on the Coast, was acquired by Rule & Sons, Inc., as of October 1, last. The two subsidiaries materially increased their profits over the preceding year and earned in excess of $200,000 over and above the amount paid to the parent corporation as dividends. The Pacific Finance Building, heretofore owned by the company, was sold last December as the company decided it could secure a better return on the capital involved in its regular business.

The company now maintains branches in all principal cities of the Pacific Coast and at Boise, Idaho; Salt Lake City, Utah, and Phoenix and Yuma in Arizona.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—Cotton was very quiet again today and fluctuations somewhat irregular as a result of further March liquidation. This consisted largely of switching from near to late months without much change in differences between positions.

The market showed a fairly undertone in sympathy with the steady showing of Liverpool, although slight opening advances were followed by equally slight reactions.

The midafternoon market was quiet and about net unchanged to 3 points higher.

FINANCE EXPERTS DISAGREE

Effect of Reserve Bank's Effort to Curb Speculation Develops Sharp Division of Opinion

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Opinion is sharply divided on the present Federal Reserve policy regarding speculative activity. One of the most important business, political and financial leaders of the United States, a big factor in the construction of the Federal Reserve Act, made this statement to the writer:

"As I view it, however well-intentioned the Federal Reserve Board's action was, the statement, especially its implications, was entirely beyond the power of the board. For, if the board lends itself to statements of this character it will involve the whole system in a bitter controversy which may not only discredit but have extremely harmful legislative and other reactions."

"Just wherein do you disagree with Federal Reserve policy?" I asked.

"Even if it were conceded that a financial oligarchy under control of a government bureau would have beneficent intentions, and in some respects beneficent results, if well administered, I think the danger of such an oligarchy would be infinitely greater than those which may be presented from time to time by so-called undue speculation," was the reply.

"It is extremely difficult, anyway, to define speculation, and I am not at all sure the curbing of speculation by legislative action or bureaucratic regulation would not do infinitely more harm to the progress and development of the country than to permit normal corrective processes to operate."

Now what? Is credit going to be still further restricted? Will the stock market move up or down this week and next week? What are the tendencies, anyhow?

Millions of people in the United States are asking that. Perhaps the comment of Benjamin M. Anderson, economist of the second largest bank in the United States, the Chase National, might be helpful.

He says that in estimating the supply of and demand for money one should not consider the gigantic total of commercial bank deposits in the United States, now more than $43,000,000,000, but rather, should look at the reserves carried by member banks of the Federal Reserve system. These total about $2,490,000,000, this figure being the deposits the member banks keep with the Federal Reserve.

"Here is the heart of the money market," he says.

Dr. Anderson narrows it even further. He says: "The real play in the money market is in a figure of $50,000,000 plus or minus, around the required reserves."

The power of the Federal Reserve authorities to increase or decrease reserves by $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 through their operations in rediscounts or by buying or selling government securities and acceptances, is "unquestionably adequate to control this situation," this economist goes on.

Regarding brokers' loans "for the account of others," Dr. Anderson believes that if the Federal Reserve should reduce the credit extended in this field by one-half of the amount out, "the resultant effect upon money rates in the stock market would leave no doubt who is master of the situation."

So Dr. Anderson joins hands with Col. Ayres, of Cleveland, in saying that the Federal Reserve is master, and will remain so.

Unquestionably, now, the Federal Reserve has the power to meet the present credit situation. Its hand was seen in the falling prices on the New York Stock Exchange. This week should show even more clearly than last that the Federal Reserve actually does mean business.

The twelve Federal Reserve banks, after paying all expenses for 1928, showed net earnings of better than $3,000,000 a month. The total was $37,148,000. From this was taken $5,598,000, chiefly for depreciation. Then, after a few minor adjustments, there remained $32,122,000 to distribute. This is what was done with it:

Dividends were declared on the stock held by the member banks at the rate of 6 per cent, amounting to $8,458,000. To surplus there was transferred $21,079,000, and to the Federal government there was paid, as a franchise tax, $2,585,000.

The reason for the large transfer to surplus is provided for by the Federal Reserve Act, which requires that the surplus shall first be built up to twice the amount of the paid-in capital, after which the Federal government receives 90 per cent of the surplus as an additional franchise tax, the remaining 10 per cent going to the Federal Reserve banks as a further addition to surplus.

Earnings for 1929, based on present conditions, should be much higher even than for 1928, and the gross share in the earnings should be much larger, too.

EARNINGS REPORTED BY WAIALUA SUGAR

HONOLULU, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Waialua Agricultural Company reported today that its net profit for 1928 was $1,677,357, which was equal to $5.16 a share. Dividends amounted to $1,040,000. From 5366 acres, 53,094 tons of sugar were harvested. The 1929 crop will be grown upon 5211 acres.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—Trading in today's dull and fractionally featureless bond market sank to a new low level for a full session for the year, with sales totaling $8,478,000, compared to $9,893,000 yesterday. A few issues in which there was some particular news development improved in the face of general selling off in the list.

First-grade rails were the only issues as a group to show strength, and their improvement was attributed to the Baltimore and Ohio's filing of a consolidation plan with the Interstate Commerce Commission. Time money was firm, but call loans sank to 6 per cent after renewing at 7.

Brooklyn Union Gas debenture 5½s, which are convertible into capital stock on basis of 2 shares for each $100 face value of debenture and which recently advanced sharply, broke 37⅞ points to 360¼. The stock is now selling around 180. Public Service of New Jersey 4½s rose another 2 points. International Telephone convertible 4½s closed fractionally higher. Utilities Power and Light 5½s were heavily bought at fractionally higher levels, on strength of the company's entrance into British utility field. Other utilities were easy.

Selling carried industrials down fractionally to more than 2 points. Soft spots were Abraham & Straus 5½s, Alleghany Corporation 5s, Anaconda Copper 7s and Bethlehem Steel convertible 5½s. Indiana Limestone 6s gained a point and International Cement 1¼ points.

Baltimore and Ohio issues were firm and Boston and Maine 5s moved up a point, but Erie refunding 5s touched a new low at 94 on a fractional decline. In the short line group, Ulster and Delaware refunding 4s dropped 3 points on profit-taking.

Trading was light in the irregular foreign list. Pirelli 7s improved, but Monecatini 7s with warrants sagged 2 points.

United States government obligations were firm.

Trading in curb bonds was restricted to a few selective issues, Associated Gas and Electric 4½s advancing 2 points.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

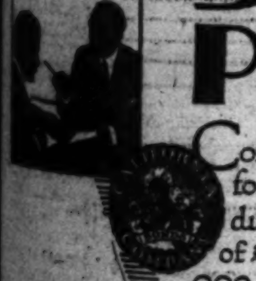
FACING A SERIOUS PROBLEM



Corporation bonds and notes called for payment in advance of maturity during 1928, reached the record sum of $1,840,000,000 or nearly $340,000,000 more than the previous record in 1927.

The retirement before maturity of this vast amount of corporation bonds, and the refunding in the majority of cases, on a lower yield basis, has created a serious problem for bond buyers living on the returns from accumulated capital. They must seek to obtain the same average rate of return without sacrificing dependability.

The investments recommended by the California Company, will prove of material assistance in obtaining a 6% to 7% income, with the highest degree of security. Write for our current list.

THE approach of March—the date for filing Federal Income Tax returns and declaring securities for California Personal Property Tax purposes—has emphasized the advisability of purchasing high-grade preferred stocks which are entirely exempt from California Personal Property Tax and from Normal Federal Income Tax.

An outstanding investment opportunity of this character is offered by Security Title Building, Inc. $7.00 Dividend Cumulative Participating Preferred Stock which carries a full 7% income, and in addition, participates equally with the Common Stock in dividends declared in any year after $3.00 per share has been paid on the Common.

Preferred Stocks of successful downtown office buildings located in leading Pacific Coast cities have long been closely held and this is the first time on record, we believe, that investors have been offered an opportunity to invest in this type of security. The building is a Class "A" limit-height bank and office structure and is located in the heart of the most rapidly growing section of downtown Los Angeles on the southeast corner of Sixth street and Grand Avenue. At the present time, the ground floor is 100% occupied and the upper floors about 83% occupied. This stock is redeemable only at the high call rate of $110 per share. We recommend:

Metropolitan Trust Passes to Title Securities

Deal Jointly Announced by Companies' Heads

Combine Creates Institution With $6,000,000

Negotiations for the purchase of the Metropolitan Trust Company by the Consolidated Title Securities Company, holding company for the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company, have been completed, according to an announcement made yesterday by Charles B. Hopper, president of the former, and Glenn A. Schaefer, president and general manager of the latter company.

The Consolidated Title Securities Company has purchased the stock of the Metropolitan Trust Company. Offices of the trust company will be moved in the near future to the Security Title Insurance Building, and as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made, Mr. Schaefer stated, the Metropolitan Trust Company will become an integral part of the Security organization, operating as its trust department.

The combined assets of the three companies, the Consolidated Title Securities Company, the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company, and the Metropolitan Trust Company, are at present in excess of $6,000,000. Trust estates amounting to $15,000,000, now administered by the Metropolitan Trust Company, will form the nucleus of the new trust department of the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company.

The Metropolitan Trust Company has also built up a savings department with deposits of approximately $2,500,000, but these are not included in the transaction, since California title companies are not permitted to operate a banking business.

The Metropolitan Trust Company will be represented on boards of directors of the Consolidated Title Securities Company and the Security Title Insurance and Guarantee Company by Alphonso Bell, George L. Eastman, John Treanor and Charles B. Hopper, who has been executive head of the Metropolitan Trust Company since its organization. F. S. Hollister, vice-president of the Metropolitan, will continue active, heading the new trust department of the title company. Security officials who were active in completing negotiations for the purchase of the trust company, in addition to Mr. Schaefer, were William S. Porter, vice-president in charge of operations; T. W. Raymond, vice-president and secretary; James R. Ford, vice-president, and R. S. Padget, vice-president and treasurer.

The International Utilities Company owns a system providing electric light and power to British Columbia and Saskatchewan and gas to parts of Alberta. The companies controlled are Canadian Utilities, Inc., of Edmonton; Gas Production and Transportation Company, Inc., of Calgary; Duncan Utilities, Ltd., Nanaimo Electric Light, Power and Heat Company and Canadian Western Natural Gas, Light, Heat and Power Company, Ltd. It is understood that properties of the International Utilities Corporation in the United States will not be included in the merger.

TRUST FUND KEPT LIQUID

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Investors and traders in the market looking for advise on the best course to pursue may find a few hints in the annual report of the Investment Managers' Company on the operations of its Trust Fund "A". This company, which is headed by Edgar Lawrence Smith, author of "Common Stocks as Long Term Investments," is evidently proceeding with a cautious eye to danger signals. At the close of the year 54 per cent of its capital was safely segregated as call loans and cash.

Somewhat the same policy was indicated by the Pacific Investing Company of Los Angeles, of which Henry S. McKee is the president. This company reported 46.8 per cent in call loans and cash, with the remainder distributed among common stocks, preferred stocks and bonds.

IDEAS DIFFER

If the report of the North American Investment Corporation of San Francisco is studied, however, an entirely different idea of investment policies is found. The North American policy, moreover, was successful, the report for 1928 showing $13.02 earned on the common, against $11.36 in the previous year. Only 3.83 per cent of the capital was employed in cash and call loans at the end of the year, the majority of the total having been used in common and preferred stocks and bonds.

Unlike the Pacific Investing and the North American, the A fund of the Investment Managers' Company discloses only common stocks in the investment account. Forty-six per cent of the fund was employed in this manner, distributed among only about thirty securities. In the previous year 48 per cent was in common stocks and 52 per cent in cash and call loans.

It is interesting to note that Southern California Edison common is highly regarded by the analysts of the Investment Managers' Company. Of the five public utility companies selected Edison was the favorite, with 6800 shares, compared with 4612 of North American, next in popularity with this investment trust.

RAILS TOP LIST

Rails, as a group, take first place in the investment list, as it stood on December 31, last. The percentage of the total was 38.7 per cent. Such stocks as Union Pacific, Southern Railway, Pennsylvania, Rock Island and Chesapeake and Ohio were included.

Miscellaneous stocks, including issues like Goodyear Tire, International Cement, International Harvester, Otis Elevator, Texas Corporation and United States Steel common accounted for 35.1 per cent of the whole. Texas Corporation, incidentally, was the only oil stock owned.

Public utility shares represented an investment of 17.8 per cent of the total, followed by 8.4 per cent in mining stocks. The latter group was made up of copper stocks, American Smelting and Cerro de Pasco.

Earnings of the A fund for 1928 were at the rate of 14.26 per cent annually, compared with 12.18 per cent in 1927 and 9.21 per cent in 1926.

Bond Company Issues Annual Income Report

Weeden & Co., one of the few investment banking houses to make public its operating income, reported yesterday 1928 net earnings available for taxes and dividends, of $141,137, which, after reserve for taxes of $14,687 and preferred dividends of $141,137, leaves a balance of $111,964 for the common stock, or $4.48 per share on the 25,000 shares outstanding December 31, last.

Frank Weeden, president, who made the announcement, stated that the year was a rather difficult one for the bond business. "Bond prices gradually weakened and the averages showed approximately 3½ points decline during the year. In addition to this decline, there was extreme inactivity during the latter half of the year," he stated.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable conditions, gross sales of the company aggregated $75,750,000, compared with $58,500,000 in the previous year, an increase of $17,500,000, or about 30 per cent. Common stock of the company carries a current dividend rate of $2 a share per annum. Surplus at the close of the period totaled $92,500. The company maintains offices in Los Angeles, San Francisco and New York.

Hancock Oil's Profits Point Up in January

Net earnings of the Hancock Oil Company for January were reported yesterday at $110,436.07, after depletion and depreciation charges, but before Federal income tax. This compares with $28,911.93 for January, 1928, and on 36,000 shares of Class A stock now outstanding is equal to about $3.06 a share, or $1.84 a share on the combined 60,000 shares of A and B stock outstanding.

The total net income for the year ended December 31, last, as previously announced, was $276,119.92, after all charges including Federal taxes. After preferred dividends, the 1928 net income was equivalent to $24.57 a share on an average of 10,877 shares of Class A common stock outstanding, or $7.65 a share on the average number of Class A and B common shares outstanding.

The recent activity of the company's stock on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange has developed various sale or merger rumors, but officials of the company assert that while several tentative purchase offers have been made, no final negotiations are pending. Will J. Reid, president of the company, stated positively that the company would not be involved in any merger. He added that he expected to have something interesting to tell the company stockholders at the annual meeting the 26th inst., but declined to comment as to whether this would be in the nature of dividends or a sale proposal.

Great Republic Life Assets in Gain for Year

Total admitted assets of the Great Republic Life Insurance Company of Los Angeles increased $413,902.36 during 1928 to a total of $4,580,096.81 as of December 31, last, while the total volume of insurance in force at the close of the year aggregated $36,004,232, A. Otis Birch, president, announced yesterday.

The annual premium income of the company amounted to $992,719.45. Payments to policyholders for the year totaled $403,176.54, bringing the total payments to policyholders since organization in 1913 to $2,249,890.07. The mortality experienced last year was 40.6 per cent of the expected, which compares with a ratio of 54 per cent for 1927.

Of the total assets, cash on hand represented more than $335,000. First mortgage loans aggregated $1,892,076.81, and policy loans and premium notes totaled $880,799.78. Stocks and bonds represented $752,114.20. Unassigned surplus amounted to $143,146.03, while the surplus set aside for policyholders amounted to $693,146.03. The company operates in eight western and middle-western States.

PENN DIXIE CEMENT NET SHADES LOWER

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive) Consolidated net profits of the Penn Dixie Cement Corporation amounted to $1,293,851, after all charges for the year closed December 31, last, it was announced yesterday. This is equivalent, after preferred dividends, to 90 cents a share on 400,000 common shares and compares with $1,967,493, or $2.64 a share earned in 1927.

CUBA NET GAINS

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive) Consolidated net income of the Cuba Company totaled $835,176 for the six months closed December 31, equal, after preferred dividends, to $1.03 a share on the 640,000 shares outstanding, against $440,101 or 55 cents a share in the 1927 period, it was announced today.

Citrus Fruit Shipments Hit Record Levels

Orange shipments from Southern California in January aggregated 5478 cars, compared with 2986 cars in January, 1928, a gain of 2492, or about 85 per cent, it was reported yesterday by the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

Oranges shipped by the exchange aggregated 3595 cars, compared with 2042 in January, 1928. In boxes this was a gain of 76 per cent, but in the number of oranges, was an increase of about 100 per cent, according to the report, which pointed out that the gain was made despite unusual weather conditions which greatly retarded distribution.

Combined shipments of California and Florida oranges during January totaled 11,172 cars, the greatest volume of citrus fruit ever shipped in a month. This compares with 6957 cars in January, 1928, representing an increase of 4215 cars, or more than 60 per cent.

Cold weather was general throughout California districts from the 8th to 10th inst., but little or no damage is expected, except in unprotected orchards. The frost-warning service, and increased heater equipment in dangerous areas, proved valuable investments to the growers, officials stated.

Car Loadings Register Gain

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Loading of revenue freight for the week ended the 9th inst. totaled 955,478 cars, the car service division of the American Railway Association announced today. Compared with the preceding week, this was an increase of 8586 cars, with increase being reported in total loading of all commodities except grain and grain products and miscellaneous freight, which showed small decreases.

The total for the week of the 9th inst. was an increase of 49,001 cars over the corresponding week in 1928, but a decrease of 7134 cars under the corresponding week in 1927.

COST OF BETHLEHEM STEEL RELIEF TOLD

PACIFIC FINANCE PROFITS MOUNT

Operating Report for 1928 Shows Heavy Gain

Net Increase Over 1927 Set Nearly 48 Per Cent

Earnings on Common Stock Equal $7 Per Share

Pacific Finance Corporation completed its most successful year December 31, last, when the year's operations produced a net income of $1,635,695.32, an increase of $536,899.53 or about 48 per cent over 1927, after charging off uncollectible accounts and setting up adequate reserves for Federal income tax, future contingencies and unearned discount, Lee A. Phillips, president, stated yesterday in his annual report to the shareholders. The earnings are equivalent to approximately $7 a share on the average number of common shares outstanding during 1928, as compared to $5.25 a share for 1927, figured on the basis of the 4-for-1 stock splitup made since 1927.

Stockholders at the annual meeting yesterday approved the recent proposal of the directors to pass on to the shareholders added return from the company's earnings in the form of a 1 per cent quarterly stock dividend. No change was made in the personnel of directors or officers, except the addition of W. Von Binzer to the list of assistant secretaries.

The declaration of the quarterly stock dividend, Mr. Phillips pointed out, reflected the satisfactory operations in 1928 and indicated the assurance of the directors that the future would show continued improvement for the company.

DIVIDEND PAYMENTS

The usual dividends on preferred stock were paid during 1928 and $2.50 per share on the common stock up to October 1, last, and $3 per share per annum thereafter. As of December 31, last, the corporation has a paid-up capital of $6,000,000 preferred and $5,000,000 common and a surplus of $3,324,342.14. Total resources increased during the year from $30,620,000 to $34,673,000, or approximately 12 per cent. The total volume of business transacted aggregated over $75,000,000.

During the year the common stock was increased by $1,000,000 par value, which was offered to and subscribed for by the stockholders at $50 per share. The 8 per cent Series B preferred stock of a par value of $1,000,000, was redeemed and replaced by $1,000,000 par value 6½ per cent Series C preferred stock for which the company received par.

The balance sheet showed that the company ended the year with $3,368,151.88 cash on hand and currents assets of over two to one compared with current liabilities.

SITUATION IMPROVES

In automobile financing, Mr. Phillips stated, the company materially improved its position, increasing the volume of business more than 10 per cent over the preceding year and securing a better class of paper, repossession defaults and credit losses being 25 per cent less than last year. The commercial department handled more than $13,000,000 worth of business at a satisfactory profit and the dairy cattle department, organized recently, is showing progress. The miscellaneous time sales and aircraft departments, while transacting a comparatively small volume of business, are now well organized and should produce excellent results in 1929, according to Mr. Phillips.

The earnings and business of the affiliated companies, Rule & Sons, Inc., and the Elliott-Horne Company were reported as most satisfactory. Wheeler Brothers & Pierce, Inc., one of the oldest and largest insurance concerns on the Coast, was acquired by Rule & Sons, Inc., as of October 1, last. The two subsidiaries materially increased their profits over the preceding year and earned in excess of $200,000 over and above the amount paid to the parent corporation as dividends. The Pacific Finance Building, heretofore owned by the company, was sold last December as the company decided it could secure a better return on the capital involved in its regular business.

The company now maintains branches in all principal cities of the Pacific Coast and at Boise, Idaho; Salt Lake City, Utah, and Phoenix and Yuma in Arizona.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 19 (AP)—Cotton was very quiet again today and fluctuations somewhat irregular as a result of further March liquidation. This consisted largely of switching from near to late months without much change in differences between positions.

The market showed a fairly undertone in sympathy with the steady showing of Liverpool, although slight opening advances were followed by equally slight reactions.

The midafternoon market was quiet and about net unchanged to 3 points higher.

Effect of Reserve Bank's Effort to Curb Speculation Develops Sharp Division of Opinion

[Copyright, 1929, by North American Newspaper Alliance.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—Opinion is sharply divided on the present Federal Reserve policy regarding speculative activity. One of the most important business, political and financial leaders of the United States, a big factor in the construction of the Federal Reserve Act, made this statement to the writer:

"As I view it, however well-intentioned the Federal Reserve Board's action was, the statement, especially its implications, was entirely beyond the power of the board. For, if the board lends itself to statements of this character it will involve the whole system in a bitter controversy which may not only discredit but have extremely harmful legislative and other reactions."

"Just wherein do you disagree with Federal Reserve policy?" I asked.

"Even if it were conceded that a financial oligarchy under control of a government bureau would have beneficent intentions, and in some respects beneficent results, if well administered, I think the danger of such an oligarchy would be infinitely greater than those which may be presented from time to time by so-called undue speculation," was the reply.

"It is extremely difficult, anyway, to define speculation, and I am not at all sure the curbing of speculation by legislative action or bureaucratic regulation would not do infinitely more harm to the progress and development of the country than to permit normal corrective processes to operate."

Now what? Is credit going to be still further restricted? Will the stock market move up or down this week and next week? What are the tendencies, anyhow?

Millions of people in the United States are asking that. Perhaps the comment of Benjamin M. Anderson, economist of the second largest bank in the United States, the Chase National, might be helpful.

He says that in estimating the supply of and demand for money one should not consider the gigantic total of commercial bank deposits in the United States, now more than $43,000,000,000, but rather, should look at the reserves carried by member banks of the Federal Reserve system. These total about $2,400,000,000, this figure being the deposits the member banks keep with the Federal Reserve.

"Here is the heart of the money market," he says.

Dr. Anderson narrows it even further. He says: "The real play in the money market is in a figure of $50,000,000 plus or minus, around the required reserves."

The power of the Federal Reserve authorities to increase or decrease reserves by $50,000,000 to $100,000,000 through their operations in rediscounts or by buying or selling government securities and acceptances, is "unquestionably adequate to control this situation," this economist goes on.

Regarding brokers' loans "for the account of others," Dr. Anderson believes that if the Federal Reserve should reduce the credit extended in this field by one-half of the amount out, "the resultant effect upon money rates in the stock market would leave no doubt who is master of the situation."

So Dr. Anderson joins hands with Col. Ayres, of Cleveland, in saying that the Federal Reserve is master, and will remain so.

Unquestionably, now, the Federal Reserve has the power to meet the present credit situation. Its hand was seen in the falling prices on the New York Stock Exchange. This week should show even more clearly than last that the Federal Reserve actually does mean business.

The twelve Federal Reserve banks, after paying all expenses for 1928, showed net earnings of better than $3,000,000 a month. The total was $37,148,000. From this was taken $5,598,000, chiefly for depreciation. Than, after a few minor adjustments, there remained $32,122,000 to distribute. This is what was done with it:

Dividends were declared on the stock held by the member banks at the rate of 6 per cent, amounting to $8,458,000. To surplus there was transferred $21,079,000, and to the Federal government there was paid, as a franchise tax, $2,585,000.

The reason for the large transfer to surplus is provided for by the Federal Reserve Act, which requires that the surplus shall first be built up to twice the amount of the paid-in capital, after which the Federal government receives 90 per cent of the surplus as an additional franchise tax, the remaining 10 per cent going to the Federal Reserve banks as a further addition to surplus.

Earnings for 1929, based on present conditions, should be much higher even than for 1928, and the gross share in the earnings should be much larger, too.

EARNINGS REPORTED BY WAIALUA SUGAR

HONOLULU, Feb. 19. (AP)—The Waialua Agricultural Company reported today that its net profit for 1928 was $1,677,357, which was equal to $5.16 a share. Dividends amounted to $1,040,000. From 5366 acres, 53,094 tons of sugar were harvested. The 1929 crop will be grown upon 5211 acres.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—Trading in today's dull and fractionally featureless bond market sank to a new low level for a full session for the year, with sales totaling $8,478,000, compared to $9,893,000 yesterday. A few issues in which there was some particular news development improved in the face of general selling off in the list.

First-grade rails were the only issues as a group to show strength, and their improvement was attributed to the Baltimore and Ohio's filing of a consolidation plan with the Interstate Commerce Commission. Time money was firm, but call loans sank to 6 per cent after renewing at 7.

Brooklyn Union Gas debenture 5½s, which are convertible into capital stock on basis of 2 shares for each $100 face value of debenture and which recently advanced sharply, broke 37½ points to 360½. The stock is now selling around 180. Public Service of New Jersey 4½s rose another 2 points. International Telephone convertible 4½s closed fractionally higher. Utilities Power and Light 5½s were heavily bought at fractionally higher levels, on strength of the company's entrance into British utility field. Other utilities were easy.

Selling carried industrials down fractionally to more than 2 points. Soft spots were Abraham & Straus 5½s, Alleghany Corporation 5s, Anaconda Copper 7s and Bethlehem Steel convertible 5½s. Indiana Limestone 6s gained a point and International Cement 1¼ points.

Baltimore and Ohio issues were firm and Boston and Maine 5s moved up a point, but Erie refunding 5s touched a new low at 94 on a fractional decline. In the short line group, Ulster and Delaware refunding 4s dropped 3 points on profit-taking.

Trading was light in the irregular foreign list. Pirelli 7s improved, but Montecatini 7s with warrants sagged 2 points.

United States government obligations were firm.

Trading in curb bonds was restricted to a few selective issues, Associated Gas and Electric 4½s advancing 2 points.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite transmission the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

FACING A SERIOUS PROBLEM

Corporation bonds and notes called for payment in advance of maturity during 1928, reached the record sum of $1,840,000,000. or nearly $340,000,000. more than the previous record in 1927.

The retirement before maturity of this vast amount of corporation bonds, and the refunding in the majority of cases, on a lower yield basis, has created a serious problem for bond buyers living on the returns from accumulated capital. They must seek to obtain the same average rate of return without sacrificing dependability.

The investments recommended by the California Company, will prove of material assistance in obtaining a 6% to 7% income, with the highest degree of security. Write for our current list.

7% INCOME with participation in further profits

THE approach of March—the date for filing Federal Income Tax returns and declaring securities for California Personal Property Tax purposes—has emphasized the advisability of purchasing high-grade preferred stocks which are entirely exempt from California Personal Property Tax and from Normal Federal Income Tax.

An outstanding investment opportunity of this character is offered by Security Title Building, Inc. $7.00 Dividend Cumulative Participating Preferred Stock which carries a full 7% income, and in addition, participates equally with the Common Stock in dividends declared in any year after $3.00 per share has been paid on the Common.

Preferred Stocks of successful downtown office buildings located in leading Pacific Coast cities have long been closely held and this is the first time on record, we believe, that investors have been offered an opportunity to invest in this type of security. The building is a Class "A" limit-height bank and office structure and is located in the heart of the most rapidly growing section of downtown Los Angeles on the southeast corner of Sixth street and Grand Avenue. At the present time, the ground floor is 100% occupied and the upper floors about 83% occupied. This stock is redeemable only at the high call rate of $110 per share. We recommend:

BAY CITY CURB

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (AP)—A tendency to continue to lower levels was evident in the bank group on the curb exchange today, Bank of America of California selling down to 168½ at the close, while Bank of America was down to 186. Marine Bancorporation sold to 35, off ½.

As a whole, the industrial group was weak, dropping to lower levels than ever before.

Maddux for the first time since it has been listed sprang into action. With 1400 shares it closed at 10, off 1½. This is a new low for the stock.

Pacific American lost fractionally, as well as did Marchant, Claude Neon, Inc., and National Auto Fibers.

The oil group was spotty and no set course was followed. Italo Petroleum sold down to 10, while the preferred was steady at 6. Universal Consolidated and Occidental Petroleum both showed fractional gains, but Palmer Union again slipped to its low of 4 cents. Southern California Edison rights, which was admitted today, sold at 3.40 without wavering. Another stock, admitted today, was United Aircraft, which sold at 25.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Volume of Stock Trading Drops as Brokers Hedge to Await Developments

With the trading volume sharply reduced, the gasoline-price war still unsettled and the continued apprehension attaching to the prospective action of the Federal Reserve Board, trading yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange was of a highly selective character. The day's turnover value was estimated at only slightly in excess of $1,000,000, with the contraction in activity especially marked in the oil and industrial groups. Price changes, on the whole, were fractional and slightly easier.

Union and Richfield led the activity of the oil list, far in advance of Rio Grande, which usually holds the leadership. Union closed off 3-8 to 47 1-4 and the Associates, 1-4 to 46, while Richfield turned 1-4 down to 41. Standard of California, at 64½, was off 1-8. Rio Grande held firm to 35, while Barnsdall strengthened 1-4 to 39 3-4. Macmillan improved 1-4 to 35 1-4, while Republic closed off the same amount to 7 3-4.

Los Angeles-First National Bank continued its advance with a 3-4-point gain to 139½. Citizens' National dropped down 13⅛ points to 506½ and California Bank slumped 1 7-8 to 128 1-8. Security Trust and Savings firmed up 5 points to 640. Transamerica Corporation held steady to 126.

Emsco Derrick was the strong spot of the market with an advance of 2 points to 42. Hydraulic Brake improved 3-4 to 53 3-4 and Jantzen Mills firmed up fractionally to 46. International Re-Insurance advanced 2 points to 57.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Holding firm to a narrow price range, operations on the Los Angeles Curb Exchange yesterday lagged again in volume and continued to indicate a nervous tension in security trading. A number of issues which rallied sharply in the previous session reacted fractionally, while one or two were carried upward, which, on the whole, gave the market an irregular appearance.

Kinner Motors, running contrary to other industrials, was one of the most active issues on the market and in response to the strong demand was forced up 5 cents to a new high and close at 3.45. Crystalite, inactive during the two previous sessions, shot up 1 1-4 to 46 and Electrical Products of Washington added another 1-4 to close at 26 3-4. Western Air Express, after touching 49 7-8, closed at 49, off ½ net. Other airplane issues turned fractionally lower.

Sales totaled 146,130 shares valued at $728,417.

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—Price movements lacked uniformity in today's curb market, but the general trend was again to higher levels. Trading was only moderately heavy in volume, due to the temporary withdrawal from the market of many large and small operators, pending further developments in the credit situation. Call money dropped from 7 to 6 per cent but there was no change in other monetary accommodations.

Public utilities were turned over in large volume. Electric Bond and Share soared 12 points to 266¾, but lost all but 2½ points of its gain. American and Foreign Power warrants ran up 10 points to a new high at 113½, and then lost all their gain. Cities Service closed 2 points higher, and gains of a point or more were recorded by several others including Electric Investors, Southeastern Power and Light and Utah Power and Light B certificates.

Auburn Auto continued its spectacular climb by soaring 11½ points to a new high at 172½. Ford of Canada advanced 3 points and Checker Cab 1⅞. Marconi issues were again in good demand, Marconi International selling nearly 2 points higher at one time on London buying.

Metropolitan Chain Stores was the leader of the merchandising group, moving up more than 5 points to a new high at 82¼. Kobacker Stores jumped 8 points to a new top at 60 on a few sales. A good demand also was apparent for the National Family Stores issues. Central Atlantic States Service Corporation advanced to a new high on the current movement on reports of new merger negotiations.

Despite reports of a gasoline price cutting war on the Pacific Coast which may be extended to the East through the entrance of western companies into business along the Atlantic seaboard, the oils displayed a fairly strong undertone. Vacuum moved up more than 2 points and Imperial, Intercontinental Petroleum, Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line and Salt Creek Producers all advanced a point or more.

Phelps Dodge, with an extreme gain of 15 points, most of which was retained, led the advance in the mining shares. Aviation issues also attracted a larger following on reports of rapidly expanding government and commercial business. Aviation Corporation of America, the Curtiss issues, Sikorsky and United Air Transport all closed a point or more higher.

Niles-Bement-Pond, the Isaac Silver issues, Tubize Artificial Silk, United States Freight and Crocker Wheeler all recorded substantial gains, although the turnover in most cases was small. J. C. Penney broke 7 points and General Tire and Rubber 37. Safe-T-Stat was again under pressure.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.

DRIFT OF STOCK PRICES ERRATIC

part of its gain. Case Threshing mounted 15 points in a small turnover. Commercial Investment Trust, General Refractories, Motor Products, St. Joseph Lead, Wright Aero, and Vanadium made extreme gains of 6 to 7 points. Some of the chain store shares made good headway, including Grand, Interstate Department and Safeway Stores. Advance Rumley issues also surged forward, and reports were circulated the new interests are seeking control. United States Steel sold up about 3 points, but lost most of its gain in realizing.

Coppers generally turned heavy on reports that the red metal trade had turned dull after the recent advances in prices. Andes made a new high on reports that Anaconda would shortly make an offer to minority stockholders, but closed lower. Kennecott, Chile Anaconda and Greene Cananea lost about 2 points each.

Panhandle Petroleum preferred dropped 15 points to a new low and Pierce Oil preferred 8 points in small turnovers. International Harvester, General Cable A, Peoples Gas, New York Central, Chrysler, Lehigh Valley Coal and Standard Milling were among issues closing 1 to 4 points lower.

The commodity markets were quiet, and price movements narrow. Wheat was firmer for a time, but closed practically unchanged, as did cotton and corn.

Foreign exchanges sagged, the Canadian dollar dropping to 99.40 5-8 cents, and the Japanese yen touching a new low for the year just above 45 cents. Sterling eased slightly.

Profit Taking Hits Upturn in Grain Futures

CHICAGO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—The grain markets fluctuated in an erratic manner, with wheat advancing early on continued apprehension of damage to the new crop in the West and Southwest, but the bulge brought in profit-taking and a decline of 1⅛@1¼c from the top. The finish was on a good rally, with prices unchanged to ⅛c higher, with March 1.28, May 1.32¾ and July 1.34⅝. Corn closed unchanged to ⅛c lower, after a range of ⅞@1c for the day, March being 94⅝@94½ at the last, with May 98⅝@98½. Oats lost ⅛@¼c, with March and July 49⅛ and May 51⅜. March rye acted tight and closed 1c higher at 1.13, with the deferred futures up ⅛@¼c, May being 1.23⅛ and July 1.12⅛.

The general run of news affecting the wheat market was more two-sided than of late, with the relative weakness in the cash situation attracting attention. Kansas City sold 150,000 bushels hard winter to come here, which had some effect on futures. It is said that many country longs have been going out of their lines at Minneapolis during the last few weeks, having taken futures several months ago in exchange for cash grain; this is regarded as having been instrumental in putting the Minneapolis market to a good discount under Chicago.

Cold weather in Europe has tied up many of the ports and made it almost impossible to distribute supplies in the interior, with the result that foreign buyers have been slow in making fresh purchases of North American wheats, and in addition, Argentine grain is offered at much lower prices relatively. World's available supplies decreased 3,336,000 bushels for the week and are 391,417,000 bushels, against 330,683,000 bushels last year.

Official admission that the winter wheat crop may have been damaged was shown in the Kansas weekly summary, and relatively low temperatures are expected to continue. Cables from Europe intimated that field work would probably be delayed as the result of floods following the melting of the unusual quantity of snow that has fallen of late. The Indian crop continues to deteriorate, and private advices suggest that another short yield is in sight, with further purchases made from Australia. Liverpool closed ⅛d lower to ⅜d higher. Winnipeg was unchanged to ⅛c higher at the close.

Further offers of cash corn to come here from the Southwest, with the decline in wheat and a lack of outside trade, resulted in a good reaction after a fractional upturn early. The break was checked by buying on resting orders at 98c for the May futures. There was also selling of corn against buying of oats to close spreads. Spot prices here were steady to ⅛c higher, as compared with May. Country offerings to arrive continued limited, and the bulk of the grain moving seems to be coming forward on consignment, and primary arrivals of 1,042,000 bushels for the day were 303,000 bushels in excess of last year. North American available supplies increased 4,283,000 bushels for the week and are 34,443,000 bushels, against 40,985,000 bushels last year.

Scattered longs were on the selling side of oats and the market showed independent weakness, with prices at the inside the lowest in over a month. Support came mainly from resting orders and on buying to close spreads with other grains. Commission houses were on the buying side of rye, with little pressure on the March. No export business was reported.

Unloading of a large line of March lard credited to foreign holders, with July and September taken in exchange at 38c and 93c difference, the latter for September, was a feature of the trading. There was also fair commission-house buying and scattered selling by packers and warehouse men. Prices had a small range and closed unchanged to 2½c lower.

Trading in meats was small. Ribs lost 5@10c and bellies were unchanged to 2½c higher.

Net Income of Honolulu Oil Drops in Year

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company reported yesterday net income for 1928 of $2,351,349 after all charges including Federal taxes, which is equal to $2.48 a share on the 944,900 shares of capital stock outstanding. This compares with $3,163,496 earned in 1927, equal to $3.35 a share and is a decrease of $812,147, or about 27 per cent.

Since 1925 the company has written off more than $1,500,000 from surplus to obtain immediate benefits in Federal income taxes, it was stated. In addition, and during the past two years, there has been written against surplus certain sums for adjustments to comply with modern conservative book-keeping methods which, together with large expenditures made in the development of properties recently acquired, is said to be the principal cause for the sharp reduction in surplus and earnings.

Gross income in 1928 aggregated $5,209,320 against $5,823,069 in 1927, a decrease of more than $600,000. Operating charges increased from $2,733,618 in 1927 to $2,949,872 in 1928. Estimated Federal taxes were cut $100,000 to $175,000.

This figure includes earnings of the Pure Oil Pipe Line Company of Texas.

In 1927 the parent company reported earnings of $18,327,711, or $22.63 a share on the 810,000 shares, but this was exclusive of the Texas subsidiary's net earnings of $847,283.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

Seven wells at Lawndale are drilling below 5000 feet, one is on a production test and one is producing. All of the seven drilling wells are expected to be at production depths before the end of this month, based on the depth of the one producer, which is approximately 5900 feet.

The San Clemente Oil Company started swabbing its Peck No. 1 last night, preparatory to a production test. However, with a large amount of drilling water and mud accumulated in the hole it is expected that it will be three or four days before the result of the test will be known.

The Smith Development Company, driller of the discovery well of the field, is leading the new wells with its Durant No. 1, which is down 5525 feet, or within 400 feet of where the sand was picked up in its Peck No. 1.

Closely following this well are the Vance No. 1 of the Standard Oil Company at 5510 feet; the Superior Oil Company's Ritter No. 1 at 5329 feet, the No. 70 well of J. E. O'Donnell at 5185 feet, the Richfield Oil Company's Paul Howard No. 1 at 5198 feet, and the Richfield intercity No. 1 at 5143 feet, and the Pacific Western Oil Company's Howland No. 1 at 5085 feet.

Twelve new locations have been made in the field during the past week, twenty rigs are going up and forty-six wells are being drilled, with one producing and one testing, making a total of eighty wells in the new field.

The Richfield Oil Company spudded in its Woods No. 1 yesterday, an outpost well about one mile northwest of the center of the drilling area.

Tests Discouraging

Tests made yesterday in the No. 19 well of George F. Getty, Inc., which the day before had been put on production in the new deep sand at Santa Fe Springs, indicate that the water in the production is coming from the sand rather than from an imperfect water shut-off. The well came in making 1300 barrels of oil and 1500 barrels of water a day, and that rate on both was being maintained yesterday.

The operators are not yet fully convinced that the water is from the bottom of the hole, and are hopeful that it may prove to be a mechanical fault that can be corrected, but this hope is of weak tenure.

The new sand was found at about 6360 feet and was cored to 6605 feet, and the cores failed to indicate a dangerous amount of water in the sand. The well was finished with 250 feet of perforated pipe at the bottom and with a combination string set in the hole.

Another Test Due

Another test of the new deep sand at Santa Fe Springs will be made later this week in the Richfield Oil Company's Elliott No. 2, which is standing cemented at a depth of 7195 feet. This well is in the northwest part of the field, just south of Telegraph Road. Oil sand was cored to a depth of ninety feet in the hole.

The Associated Oil Company is drilling ahead in its Clark No. 2, near the Richfield's well, and is down to 7590 feet. This well cored through the same sand found in the Richfield well.

Potrero Test Due

The Associated Oil Company is preparing for a production test in its Potrero No. 1, located on the golf course of the Potrero Country Club. The well is now standing cemented at a depth of 3265 feet, drilled 200 feet deeper into the oil sands. The test will be made Thursday or Friday, according to plans yesterday.

The formation in this well is nearly 300 feet higher than a similar structure found in the company's Cypress No. 3, nearly a mile to the southeast, which well is now on production. A successful completion of the Potrero well would prove up an extensive area.

Win Assessment Fight

Ranchers in the Santa Ynez Valley, near Santa Barbara, have just won an assessment battle which has been waging for three years. According to reports, the Santa Ynez Valley Land and Development Company sold land to ranchers and retained the oil right. When an oil boom started there the ranchers learned that they could not lease their lands for oil development.

A move was started to have the county levy a tax against the land company for the oil rights which it holds, and the matter has just been settled by the County Board of Supervisors at Santa Barbara, which has decided that the oil rights so held shall be taxed at the rate of $3 per acre.

Plans First Well

The Mineral Mountain Mining Company, headed by John Sandburg who was formerly a prominent Southern California oil operator, is planning to start its first well on an 1100-acre lease in the shale hills in Kern county.

The district has yielded oil at depths between 1200 feet and 3500 feet. The company plans to drill this well and if the production is satisfactory it will, according to reports, keep two strings of tools at work on the lease.

Test Water Shutoff

The water shutoff in the Republic Petroleum Corporation's No. 32 well at Midway was being tested last night, the well being plugged back to 3810 feet.

The corporation's No. 33 well is drilling ahead at 2345 feet.

Elwood Wells

The Doty No. 3 of the Barnsdall-Rio Grande combination was drilling ahead at 3398 feet yesterday. It is one location east of the Doty No. 2 in the Elwood field, and is tending to prove up the structure of the field, since the Vaqueros sand was picked up in the Doty No. 2 and other wells in that immediate area at less than 3400 feet. The fact that nothing has been found in the Doty No. 3 helps to establish the eastern edge of the structure.

The combination's Luton-Bell No. 6 is drilling ahead at 2308 feet. It is the westernmost well of the field.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (Exclusive)—The recent strong movement in crude rubber slowed up considerably in today's market. The foreign markets were both dull and prices here opened irregular at levels 10 points over to 10 under previous finals. In a fairly active forenoon session values moved still lower. While afternoon dealings were quiet some recoveries were made and the market closed steady, unchanged to 40 points off. Sales for the day were 787 lots, or 1967 long tons, 494 contracts of which were done in the first two hours.

Dullness in the outside market brought about a decline in spot price of ¼c to 25¼c. London was unchanged at 12⅝d and Singapore 1-16d off at 12⅛d.

S. W. Rodda Victor in Biscuit Company Contest

S. W. Rodda, the Los Angeles sales agent for the National Biscuit Company, has just been awarded third prize in a competitive contest among eight sales agencies in this section. The general offices of the company at New York compiled all data and based the award upon management of agency, improvement in operating costs and increased sales.

The sales agent attributes much of the credit to the co-operation he has received from his associates at the local agency.

RAIL CHIEF AMAZED BY CITY'S RISE

President of Milwaukee Line Sees Los Angeles as One of World's Greatest

"Thirty years ago when I first visited Los Angeles the city had a population of 102,000. Now I understand there are more than 1,500,000 residents here. Less than three years ago I visited this city and was amazed at the growth; this trip finds me filled with greater amazement."

H.A. SCANDRETT

H. A. Scandrett, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Pacific Railroad, thus expressed his feeling regarding Los Angeles yesterday soon after he had arrived on a business trip in connection with his railroad.

"When I first came here many years ago," continued Mr. Scandrett, "I was informed that it was just a boom and that the bubble soon would be pricked. I have been told the same thing upon each of my visits here, but in some way the bubble doesn't burst and the growth of this city goes on. It is my opinion that one of the greatest cities in the world is being built here right now."

Mr. Scandrett, who has been president of his road for a little more than a year, declared that a large amount of California fruit is hauled over his railroad every year. His trip here, he said, has to do with freight matters and a general inspection tour.

CANADIANS TO GATHER

At the reception to the Canadian tourists tomorrow, Thursday, at the Stowell Hotel, Alice Farish, French Canadian operatic singer, will give selections from "Romeo and Juliet," while May Sugimoto, Japanese artist, also will appear. The Southern California Orchestra and the Rosewood Orchestra, directed by Don McCormick of Winnipeg, are on the program.

Albert Marco, alias Marco Albori, former reputed vice ruler, now in the County Jail awaiting appeal on a conviction of assault with a weapon on two men in a night club last year.

MARCO APPEARS TODAY

Marco is to be taken from the jail to court today to be arraigned on the indictment. Wallis, suffering from broken ribs and in a hospital bed, is to appear for arraignment Monday. Mrs. Grimes is at liberty on her own recognizance as a State's witness.

Tomorrow at 2 p.m. before Judge Shaw the grand jury is scheduled to return another group of indictments against several of the principals in the case on the substantive charges of perjury, Col. Thomas F. Cooke, foreman of the jury, announced. The charges revealed in yesterday's true bill charge a conspiracy, whereas the forthcoming group will charge outright perjury to individuals.

The true bills would have been returned Monday, Col. Cooke said, but the District Attorney's office was unable to prepare them in time for the grand jury to take them to court.

OFFICERS SUSPENDED

As a result of the indictment of Wallis, Williams and Cox, Chief of Police Davis yesterday afternoon suspended the officers from duty pending the return of a jury verdict after trial.

The history of the Jacobson case shows that the Councilman in the early part of 1927 made in the City Council persistent attacks on organized vice in the city. Marco at that time was asserted to be a powerful ruler in the underworld.

On August 5, 1927, the police officer named in the indictment, went to 4372 Beagle street, the home of Mrs. Grimes, where, they later testified at Jacobson's trial, they found the Councilman partially disrobed in a room with Mrs. Grimes. Both were arrested and taken first to the home of N. Rodney Webster, then a police commissioner, and later to the police intelligence bureau, before they were booked at Central Police Station.

JACOBSON TRIED

After being released from jail on the morals charge to which he was booked, Jacobson charged that he had been "framed." On his request for a grand jury investigation a session of the jurors was called, but he declined to testify and went to trial in the Municipal Court on the morals charge.

After a long trial the jury failed to agree, was dismissed and the charges against Jacobson also with-

CLUB LAUDS MEMORY OF F. P. FLINT

All-Year Organization Passes Resolution of Sympathy Over Death

A resolution honoring the memory of former United States Senator Flint, who died recently on a steamship near Manila while on a tour of the world with Mrs. Flint, was adopted yesterday afternoon by the executive committee of the All-Year Club of Southern California. The resolution follows:

Whereas, divine Providence in its infinite wisdom has seen fit to call from our midst Senator Frank P. Flint, who has presided over the affairs of this organization as chairman of the executive committee for the last four years, and,

Whereas, Senator Flint gave unstintingly of his time and effort in assisting this work he felt was vital to all Southern California, and

Whereas, his wide contacts and personality gave to national leaders a sympathetic understanding of the All-Year Club and the things it was endeavoring to accomplish for Southern California, and

Whereas, in spite of failing health he remained in active official contact with the club's affairs, and

Whereas, his death is a loss not only to this organization but to the entire community, now, therefore,

Be it resolved, that individually and collectively we express our heartfelt sympathy to his bereaved loved ones, and

Be it further resolved, that this organization hereby express its sense of deep loss in the passing of this great man who has played such an important part in making possible many of the All-Year Club's accomplishments, and,

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the meeting of the executive committee held this day, and,

Be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to those near and dear to him.

Court Decides ex-Iowan Acted Sanely on Will

George Lafayette Finn, former Senator from Iowa, was of sound mind when he dictated a statement just before his death revoking all wills and codicils he made, Superior Judge Guerin decided in Probate Court yesterday.

David Burr Luckey of Santa Monica was appointed administrator of the estate, which probably will be divided among heirs as provided by law. Finn's estate consisted of $650,000 worth of securities. Relatives are Charles H. Finn of San Francisco, W. H. Finn of Leoti, Kan., and Daniel Finn, Philadelphia, brothers; Jane Corwin Finn, Los Angeles, niece, and Gladys McAfee, Venice, grand-niece.

KEYES IN NEW TRIAL PLEA

Counsel for Former Prosecutor and Rosenberg and Getzoff Argue, With Ruling Expected Today

Engaging in an even more spirited and lengthy battle than was expected, attorneys for former Dist.-Atty. Keyes, E. H. Rosenberg and Ben Getzoff, convicted of criminal conspiracy to give and receive bribes, argued all day yesterday in Superior Judge Butler's court attempting to obtain a new trial for their clients.

The arguments were not completed at adjournment last night and will be resumed at 10 a.m. today, with indications that the court will not be able to rule on the motions for a new trial before noon today or later.

Collectively and separately the three defendants struggled for another chance to upset the conviction that carries a sentence of from one to fourteen years in State's prison.

ATTORNEYS ARGUE

Arguing in behalf of Keyes were Attorneys William Beirne and Paul Schenck, while Rosenberg was represented by Attorney Le Compte Davis, and Getzoff by Attorney Le McDonald.

Beirne started the arguments when Judge Butler's court convened shortly after 10 a.m. yesterday morning, with an attack on the validity of the indictments under which Keyes, Rosenberg and Getzoff were convicted.

Keyes's attorney presented a motion for an arrest of judgment that was entered into by the other defendants. Briefly, the defense counsel argued that Keyes, technically, should not have been tried on a conspiracy charge, and that, therefore, all the defendants are entitled to a new trial.

This view was contested by Dist.-Atty. Fitts and Chief Deputy District Attorney Stewart. Judge Butler denied the defense motion when the arguments on the question were finally ended.

SENSATION CAUSED

Attorney Le Compte Davis caused something of a sensation during the morning session when, in support of assertions contained in the motion for a new trial contending that new evidence has been discovered since the trial, he offered to put witnesses on the stand to prove that a Lincoln automobile, purchased by Getzoff and given to Keyes, involved others than the defendants.

Davis declared that he offered to prove by these witnesses that A. I. Lasker, former president of an automobile finance company, convicted of violating the Corporate Securities Act and indicted on another bribe charge with Keyes and others, appeared at the automobile

PLAN FOR HOSPITAL EXTOLLED

Visiting Physician Praises Projected Receiving Unit of City as Ideal

Plans for Los Angeles' new Central Receiving Hospital were given the approval of one of the country's foremost fracture specialists yesterday when Dr. Charles L. Scudder, chairman of the fracture committee of the American College of Surgeons, declared them to be "ideally conceived." Dr. Scudder, whose committee is in the city for a series of meetings, was moved to comment on the new project while the luncheon guest of Chief Police Surgeon Dodge and Surgeons Saverein and Sebastian at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital.

"I find here in Los Angeles," he said, "that the establishment of a Central Receiving Hospital is properly planned and that its proposed organization is ideally conceived.

"As I see it, the basis of organization and the first care of the injured is that established by scientific mediums and yours will coordinate the work of the regular hospitals in a way wonderful and remarkable. The work is in line with the ideals of the fracture committee of the American College of Surgeons and it has my full approval."

The luncheon at the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital followed a visit made by Dr. Scudder to the fracture clinic of the Orthopedic Hospital as the guest of Dr. Charles L. Lohman, its superintendent.

FINAL TRIBUTES PAID TO DOHENY

Ancient Splendor Surrounds Rites at Church

Bishop Presides as Throngs Bow Reverently

Private Services Conducted at Forest Lawn

The splendor of rites centuries old marked the funeral services at St. Vincent's Church yesterday for E. L. Doheny, Jr. Requiem mass was said for him.

The beautiful church, the stately structure that was made possible through the faith and generosity of the elder Doheny, was filled with friends who had come to pay their last respects to the young man, and to pour forth their grief with the wife, the father and the other members of the family.

The pews were filled to capacity and the throng lined four deep in the side aisles almost from the altar rail to the rear of the church. It was some time before the funeral services began that the church practically was filled, with the exception of places reserved for members of the family, the long list of honorary pallbearers and the members of the board of trustees of the University of Southern California, of which young Doheny was an alumnus.

GREAT CROWD

A special detail of traffic officers was required to handle the traffic that milled about the church at the corner of Figueroa and West Adams streets. At 10 o'clock, when the hearse arrived at the church door, a great crowd, unable to get into the church, had gathered and stood with heads bared.

Despite the great numbers of persons within, a peaceful quiet reigned as the soft white stone walls of the church reflected the flickering light of the candles.

Soon, in a distant belfry it seemed, a bell began to toll gently, and the whisper went about that the family had arrived. As the bell tolled the casket was borne into the church, preceded by Rev. John Martinez, attended by an altar boy carrying the processional cross, and two acolites in black cassock and white surplice. The honorary pallbearers followed immediately in front of the coffin. Immediately behind came the members of the family.

The widow was heavily veiled and was supported on one side by E. L. Doheny, Sr., who bore himself well; seemingly wounded deeply, but helping a beloved comrade to carry on.

BISHOP ARRIVES

The sanctuary began to fill with visiting clergy, monks and fathers from the various orders, led by Bishop Cantwell in his red robes. There also were three monsignori in red, Mgr. John Cawley, Mgr. John McCarthy, and Mgr. John Clifford. Bishop Cantwell sat on the throne to the side, with its purple canopy, whence he presided over the services.

Father Martinez, the assistant pastor of St. Vincent's, was the celebrant of the requiem mass. The chaplains to the bishop were Rev. Dr. M. F. Winne, president of the Los Angeles Seminary, and Rev. W. F. Ford.

During the services there were several vocal solos from members of the choir, and organ selections.

The formal rites in the church were concluded by Bishop Cantwell as celebrant of the obsequies, when he stepped to the casket, read prayers and performed the ceremonies with holy water and incense.

EULOGY DELIVERED

It was then that Father O'Malley, pastor of St. Vincent's, came forward into the pulpit and delivered the eulogy. He took for his theme a passage from the Book of Kings, "Doth bitter death separate in this manner." This thought he wrought into a stirring sermon.

The thought of saying good-by, he noted, is difficult enough when it is to the little ones just starting out in life or to those who have seen three-score-and-ten, "but to have to say good-by to one in the full flush of manhood, to have to stand at the grave of one in the full bloom of life—this, in sober truth, is bitter death!"

And so he played on that theme.

"THE idea! The impertinence!" is what Mr. Gene Tunney says when he is about to knock out a newspaper photographer—one of his favorite forms of outdoor exercise. It is just as well to have a regular system.

THE UPPER CLAWSSES

Gene seems to have the idea that his present mode of assault and battery is rather high-toned, as befitting the husband of a millionairess in the Social Register.

The effect is, unfortunately, different. It raises in the public mind the uncomfortable suspicion that Mr. Tunney — despite his million and his book—is only a common scrub, after all.

THE MOST HELPLESS MAN

When old Jim Jeffries was champion of the world I once remarked to him that it must be wonderful to know you can lick anybody on earth.

"Yes," said Jim, "but there is the other side, too. Do you realize that I am the only man in the world who could not hit back if somebody hit me? It would be like drawing a gun on an unarmed man."

Mr. Tunney seems to have no such chivalric inhibitions.

A NEGLECTED ARTIST

It looks as though Max Reinhardt were very likely to pass up Hollywood in disgust and go back to Germany.

Hollywood is a weird place when it comes to brains. The savants at the heads of some of the studios pick up all the rag-tags and misfits and hot-air performers, neglecting the great artists of quiet demeanor.

Miss Lillian Gish, whom Reinhardt was to direct, is beyond question the finest actress who has ever been seen on the screen. Reinhardt stands at the topmost rung of the ladder in European theatricals. The combination might have wrought a notable contribution to screen history.

OUR HEROES

This year of anniversaries presents an opportunity for Los Angeles to make up for its neglect of its heroes.

There are two or three pioneers without whom Los Angeles would not have been. Felipe de Neve, Fra Junipero Serra, Kit Carson, Gen. Beale and Jedediah Smith certainly should be remembered in some substantial way in this city.

The terrible ordeal of Gen. Beale—then a young navy ensign—and Kit Carson in breaking through the Mexican lines at the Battle of San Pasqual was one of the great chapters of the history of the West.

JUST A LITTLE ONE

When a street has been named for each of the real estate promoters perhaps it will be possible to find a stray back alley somewhere to carry the names of these early-day heroes.

DISGRACED

Most of the spectators at the horse show seem to have lost all social caste by admiring the cow ponies more than the fancy thoroughbreds.

SHULER SUED BY DEPUTY SHERIFF

Slander Over Shooting in Jail Asserted

Wounded Officer Seeks $150,000 Damages

Pastor's Statements Over Radio Set Forth

Coming as an aftermath to the shooting of Johnny Hawkins, convict, in the County Jail elevator January 21, last, Rev. Bob Shuler, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, yesterday was named defendant in a suit for $150,000 damages filed in Superior Court by Deputy Sheriff A. R. (Casey) Jones. Jones charges slander.

Jones, who still is in the hospital recovering from a wound he received in the exchange of shots that ended with the shooting of Hawkins, declares in his complaint that Shuler slandered him in discussing the shooting over radio KGEF, broadcasting station of Shuler's church.

CHARGES MADE

According to the complaint, prepared by Attorney Joseph L. Painer, Shuler insinuated in his radio broadcast that Jones had joined a conspiracy whereby Hawkins and a fellow-prisoner, Zeke Hayes, were to be allowed to come into possession of a gun so that when they tried to escape both could be slain.

The complaint specifically quotes Shuler as saying:

"You know that the Hall of Justice is buzzing with the story that the gun was brought in and turned over to those two fellows as a frame-up conspiracy to start that shooting if they (the prisoners) started to testify before the grand jury."

Another quotation attributed in the complaint to Shuler states:

"But it seems that what kept them (Jones and another deputy) from going through is the fact that the negro elevator man didn't know about the plan and when they (the officers) pulled a gun, the negro jumped over and grabbed the fellow (Hawkins) and they couldn't kill him without killing the negro."

STORY OF SHOOTING

The shooting around which the suit revolves occurred in the jail elevator between the ninth and tenth floors. Hawkins and Hayes were being returned to a jail cell after having been in court for appearance on robbery charges, when Hawkins, according to reports of those in the elevator, pulled a gun and ordered Deputy Sheriff Pope, the elevator operator, to proceed to the ground floor.

Pope stopped the elevator, and Jones and Deputy Sheriff Higgins, in charge of the prisoners, drew their guns and opened fire simultaneously with Hawkins, the investigation of the shooting disclosed. Hawkins, who was seized by Pope as the first shot was fired, finally fell to the floor of the cage mortally wounded, while Jones was shot through the neck. Pope and others in the car escaped injury.

COURT TO RULE ON BUMPING

Question Is, Did Man Bump Derrick or Derrick Bump Man

Whether Wallen Anderson bumped into a six-ton derrick, or the derrick bumped into him, is the question at issue before a jury in Superior Judge Hahn's court in the $51,000 damage suit of Anderson against the Baker Iron Works.

Anderson was working on the Pickford-Fairbanks movie lot, he says, when the derrick, which was building a steel set, ran into him. The defendant company claims he ran into the derrick. The case will be resumed today.

JUDGESHIP CANDIDATES CITED LAW

City Clerk Calls Notice of Municipal Bench Post Aspirants to Rule

City Clerk Domingues issued a reminder yesterday to prospective candidates for Municipal Court judgeships that they must enter the election lists before the candidates for the other offices at the coming city election, because of the State law requiring them to file declarations of intention to become candidates with the City Clerk.

The first day for filing nominating petitions for any office will be March 8. The candidates for the office of judge of the Municipal Court, however, may not file nominating petitions unless they have filed their declarations of intention between the 26th inst., and March 2, inclusive.

It also was announced yesterday by City Clerk Domingues that he would commence to issue nominating petition forms March 1 and that the law requires them to be filed with him before March 29.

Suicide Laid to Rent-Bill Dun

Because he was broke and could not pay a rent bill of $97 that had been pinned on the door of his room at 217 South Avenue 18, Daniel Brito, 40 years of age, decided yesterday that life was no longer worth living. So he went to a high cliff in Elysian Park, at a point near the North Broadway bridge, and plunged ninety feet to the Southern Pacific yards below.

He was picked up in an unconscious condition and rushed to the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, where he died a few minutes later.

The man's nephew, Charles Brito, 8, of 1780 Albion street, told detectives that his uncle had been despondent for some time.

WORK BEGUN ON MUSICAL REVUE

Directors Picked for U.S.C. Production

Principals in Student Extravaganza

Directors for the 1929 extravaganza of the University of Southern California have been chosen by Ray MacDonald, productions director, and active plans for the presentation of the musical revue on April 11, 12 and 13 are being completed.

Lillian Smith will direct the student jazz orchestra and Jean Maschio will have charge of the dancing of the choruses. James H. Morrison and Leland S. Auer, who won the $100 prize for writing the best script, "College Days," will work with these two students in working out the musical numbers and dances.

Casting for the choruses will begin this afternoon with preliminary tryouts in Bovard Auditorium. Seventy-five co-eds will be picked for the dances.

DOHENY'S WILL KEPT SECRET

It Will be Submitted for Probate After Return of Wellborn, Who Handled His Affairs

The will of Edward L. Doheny, Jr., slain last Saturday by his confidential secretary and companion, will not be submitted for probate until the return the last of this week of Olin Wellborn, Jr., who has handled the affairs of the multimillionaire oil king's son for several years, it was announced last night by members of the Doheny family.

Mr. Wellborn is expected back from New York Saturday and he immediately will begin the task of preparing for the distribution of the estate of Mr. Doheny, who was shot to death last Saturday night night by Theodore Hugh Plunkett who later committed suicide.

FAMILY WILL BENEFIT

Because of his devotion to his wife and five children the contents of the will are expected to divulge that his entire estate, outside of charitable bequests, is left for distribution among them, R. M. Sands, confidential secretary to E. L. Doheny, Sr., stated last night.

The bulk of the slain man's business assets are said to be invested in the Petroleum Securities Company, formerly a subsidiary of the Pan-American Oil Company, but which became a separate organization following the sale of that company some time ago by the Doheny interests, Mr. Sands said.

The Petroleum Securities Company will open its doors at noon today after having remained closed during yesterday as a tribute to the memory of its former vice-president and general manager.

AMOUNT UNDETERMINED

It probably will be some time before all of Mr. Doheny's interests are brought into a position where the extent of his estate can be announced, it is said.

Since his entrance into the business world, Doheny's interests had been aligned closely with his father's. Mr. Doheny, Sr., is one of the largest independent oil operators in the world. Shortly after his graduation from the University of Southern California young Doheny followed the footsteps of his father in the petroleum business.

Following the ordeal of the funeral yesterday morning the 72-year-old father was continuing to view stoically the tragedy that enshrouded his son's Beverly Hills mansion with grief and reiterated his intention of "carrying on."

"I am very appreciative of the telegrams and other messages of sympathy I have received since this terrible tragedy has entered my lif. I want all of those freinds who thus have expressed themselves, and others whom I know in their hearts realize what such an event means in the life of anyone, to sincerely understand that I thank them from the bottom of my heart," Mr. Sands said the oil magnate told him last night following the funeral.

NEW TRIAL PLEA MADE FOR KEYES

agency where the Lincoln was purchased and demanded a commission on the deal, and finally forced the automotive concern to give him several hundred dollars credit on an old automobile that he (Lasker) turned in.

NEW TRIAL ASKED

The defense attorney made no effort to conceal the intimation that he sought to establish that Lasker paid for the Lincoln automobile, and he argued that, as the Lasker matter was to be the subject of another trial, it had no part in the evidence that convicted Rosenberg and Getzoff.

The testimony was not allowed, however, after considerable argument, and the witnesses were dismissed.

During the afternoon the arguments on motions for a new trial were taken up. Attorney Beirne again represented Keyes, citing many instances in which he said the trial judge erred in his rulings on evidence and contending that his client should have a new trial.

Attorney Le Compte Davis consumed more than an hour in his arguments for a new trial for Rosenberg. He asserted that the only testimony against Rosenberg was the word of Jacob Berman, also known as Jack Bennett, who turned State's evidence. Davis was still arguing when court adjourned.

APPEARANCE CHANGED

Throughout the day, Keyes, who, with the other defendants has been confined in jail since his conviction, sat near the counsel table with his wife, Mrs. Lillian Keyes, and daughter, Elizabeth Keyes. Keyes appeared considerably thinner than when he made his last appearance in court more than a week ago. Rosenberg also showed the effects of jail existence, while Ben Getzoff, the Spring-street tailor, was the most seriously affected of all. Getzoff, who collapsed after his conviction and has spent most of his time since in the jail hospital, had to be carried down to the courtroom to attend the afternoon session. Most of the time he sat with bowed head, apparently only mildly interested in the efforts of the defense attorneys.

If Judge Butler denies the motions for new trials today, the convicted men will be sentenced, and in each case their attorneys have announced that they will immediately file notice of appeal to a higher court. A plea will be made to have the prisoners released on bail pending the decision of the Appellate Court.

ANOTHER TAX LIEN SEEKS BERMAN'S MONEY

The fourth income-tax lien to be filed in the government's efforts to obtain $1,463,844.88 from Jacob Berman, also known as Jack Bennett, "bright young man" of the Julian Petroleum debacle, was filed yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Welch.

The latest lien was filed against Morris Drusin, said to be a broker of 1440 Broadway, New York, who was mentioned as transferee of Berman's assets. One lien previously had been filed against Berman for additional taxes for that sum for 1926, and similar ones were filed against Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berman, his brother and sister-in-law, as transferees.

Rich Matron of Beverly Hills Granted Divorce

Mrs. Monica C. Van Doren was granted a divorce decree yesterday from Pierce W. Van Doren, wealthy Beverly Hills contractor, on the grounds of cruelty. The decree was signed by Superior Judge Bogue.

During the last two years Mrs. Van Doren filed two suits for separate maintenance and one for a divorce. It was on the action for divorce that she was given her freedom yesterday following a short hearing. The two suits for separate maintenance had been dismissed.

CHURCH RITES HONOR DOHENY

Final Tributes Rendered to Son of Oil Magnate

Throngs Attend Obsequies as Bishop Presides

Private Services Conducted at Forest Lawn Park

There was no denying that it was a bitter death that had cut off young Doheny. And words were so fruitless, it seemed; so inadequate to express the feelings we experience for those left alone with this bitter death.

"He left life with all that it held forth to him. A man of keen mind, fine judgment, a practical business capacity to carry on the achievements of a successful sire. And then a bitter death says, 'No!'"

LOVE FOR FATHER

The pastor remarked on the deep abiding love that young Doheny had for his father—a love that was child-like in its beauty. And he was a loving husband and a fond father, was Ned Doheny, to whom his wife and five little ones were the very center and core of his heart. As a friend had said on hearing the terrible news of his untimely end, "Ned Doheny had a heart of gold." He had a kindness, Father O'Malley remarked, that was apparent to the very end. In fact, his very last act of kindness, an effort to help a friend, was characteristic of him.

From all over the country, from all over the world, indeed, had come messages of condolence, messages of grief and sorrow, testifying to the goodness of his heart. And as a citizen he had shown his worth, helping in the endeavors of his community, contributing to educational facilities that make for better citizenship, ready to do his part in anything that means the amelioration of suffering in this world.

ONLY TEMPORARY

And was this to be the end—this bitter death?

"Would we could say one word to soothe the sorrow of the loved ones he left and to lighten the burden of the cross they bear. The one word is the word he learned when he was confirmed at the altar:

"'I am the resurrection and the life. He who believeth in me, although he be dead, shall live. And he who liveth and believeth in me shall not die forever.'

"Does this bitter death close the story of his life—to say good-by forever to his wife, to his father and to his friends? Ah, no, no, no! We do not stand like those without faith, to sink now in despair. Bitter death hath separated him from me? 'No,' a thousand times, 'No!' It is only a temporary separation!

"We walk along life's way to the Father's house, and He stands there to greet us.

"To you, crushed with sorrow: lift up your eyes to see the dawning of the day. Lift up your eyes to see that the separation is not forever and forever. The world's arms reach out to comfort you."

Father O'Malley said he spoke, in the name of the bishop, the deep sympathy and sorrow of all.

"And," he concluded, "in the words of the liturgy, 'God grant Ned Doheny eternal rest, and let eternal light shine upon him!'"

PRIVATE RITES

The services at the cemetery were private, interment being in the family mausoleum atop a knoll in Forest Lawn. The temple of marble, in the shadow of an olive tree, is an impressive structure, and it was banked with floral pieces of all kinds, the tall marble columns and dome forming a canopy over the crypt. The heavy bronze casket rested before a maroon valene, topped by a great spray of orchids.

The members of the family were seated before the mausoleum while the services were read by Rev. John M. Lavelle, assistant pastor of St. Vincent's.

The funeral arrangements were in charge of Bresee Brothers.

PLUNKETT FUNERAL SERVICE WILL BE TODAY

The funeral this morning of Theodore Hugh Plunkett will mark the closing chapter of the Saturday night tragedy at the home of E. L. Doheny, Jr.

Services for the young man who served for seventeen years in the two Doheny families will be conducted at the White Company funeral parlors, 664 West Washington Boulevard, at 11 o'clock. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Rev. George Davidson of St. John's Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Both the services at the funeral parlors and at the grave will be for members of the family and their friends only. Steps have been taken to prevent the idle curious from attending.

C. Warren Smith and J. Clark Smith, brothers of Mrs. Doheny, Jr., will act with six other friends of Plunkett as pallbearers. The others are G. W. Johnson, Mark Hanna, George Riley, James Murdock, Arthur Bolander and Dr. R. F. Critchlow.

Condolences of the many friends of the dead man and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Plunkett, Sr., have been pouring into the family home, 3900 Dalton avenue, since the double tragedy in Doheny's Beverly Hills mansion which brought grief into two homes last Saturday night.

Both of Plunkett's parents are reported grief stricken and all funeral arrangements are being handled by his brother, C. A. Plunkett, Jr.

M. M. Ferguson in Bench Race

Morris M. Ferguson, an attorney, yesterday announced that he is a candidate for nomination for judge of the Municipal Court. He has practiced law in Los Angeles for twenty years and during much of that time has been a member of the State and county central committees of the Republican party. He is a member of many fraternal organizations, and has been active as a public speaker both gaining him a wide acquaintanceship.

Mr. Ferguson was born in East St. Louis, Ill., in June, 1867.

The indictments of the octet which resulted from the inquiry and the woman's affidavit set forth eight overt acts in connection with the asserted framing of the Councilman. The true bills were framed under Subdivision Two of Section 182 of the Penal Code.

ASSERTED OVERT ACTS

The first asserted overt act charges that Cox and Marco on or about August, 1927, procured Mrs. Grimes to communicate with Jacobson and invite him to her Beagle-street home on the pretense of discussing assessment problems, and the second act charges Cox, Marco, Raymond, Lucas and Crawford with causing the invitation to be issued by Mrs. Grimes on August 5, 1927.

The third overt act declares that Mrs. Grimes, with the vice-crusading Councilman in her home, fondled, embraced, caressed and induced him into a compromising situation, while the fourth act asserts Lucas, Raymond, Wallis and Williams to have been in the Beagle-street neighborhood.

The fifth act asserts Lucas, Raymond and Wallis were in hiding at 9 p.m. August 5, 1927, outside the Grimes home, and the sixth charges them with smashing their way into the bedroom, where they found Mrs. Grimes and Jacobson, while the seventh charges the arrest and the eighth asserts that Lucas signed the complaints against the pair.

WITNESSES NAMED

The indictments name the following witnesses who testified before the grand jury: Mrs. Grimes, Cox, Jacobson, Wallis, Mrs. Fern Carlin, Donald Crawford, W. V. Anderson, attorney for Jacobson; R. J. Francour, A. J. Cody, William Stringer, Katherine Wyman, D. J. Wyman and S. N. Coulter.

Since Mrs. Grimes published her purported affidavit and appeared before the grand jury she is assumed to have turned State's evidence and yesterday was released on her own recognizance. Neither will Marco be required to post security as he already is an inmate of the County Jail while his appeal is pending.

Wallis yesterday was reported recovering from broken ribs at the police hospital. He was taken there Monday after his automobile skidded and crashed into another car in front of 6207 Hollywood Boulevard while on the way to Hollywood Police Station, where he was chief of detectives before his suspension.

E. S. INGRAM STANDS FOR RE-ELECTION

Councilman Tells Basis on Which He Asks Return From Tenth District

E. Snapper Ingram yesterday announced his candidacy for re-election to the City Council from the Tenth District. His campaign advisory committee includes Perry W. Weidner, Warren Bovard, Joseph Scott, William May Garland, Frank B. Belcher, Senator J. W. McKinley, Leon V. McCardle, Leo V. Youngworth, Col. O. C. Wyman, Col. J. W. Sutphen and Clarence L. Kincaid.

E. SNAPPER INGRAM

"I am basing my candidacy on the record of the Tenth during the two years in which I served," says Mr. Ingram's statement. "The streets have been kept up, we have obtained traffic signals in excess of the quota allotted to the district, the police and fire protection has been improved until now it is as good or better than that of any other district and, as a whole, I have attempted to keep every campaign pledge I made.

"The assessment evil was one that I pledged to fight upon election, and it is of record that no special assessment for any large public undertaking has been levied in the Tenth District during my term in office. I am violently opposed to overlapping assessments and will continue to fight them."

Mr. Ingram is a member of the American Legion and the Masonic order.

tion which indicate that these influences have taken root in our community.

Responsible men and women interested in civic welfare are agreed that Los Angeles needs a thorough house cleaning, a new declaration of ideals in its municipal government, and an honest and efficient enforcement of the law. To the accomplishment of these purposes I dedicate my candidacy.

PROTEST HEARING TODAY

The City Council is scheduled to hear protests today against the ordinance of intention for the improvement of streets in the Beacon-street and Second-street improvement district.

REGENTS HEAR OF NEW GIFTS

State University to Receive Legacy of $140,000

Presents of $40,000 Made for Various Purposes

Board Transacts Business and Sees New Campus

A legacy of $140,000 and gifts totaling $40,000 to the University of California were announced by President W. W. Campbell to the Board of Regents yesterday at its Los Angeles meeting in the directors' room of the Pacific Mutual Building.

The legacy was left to the university by James Sutton of Berkeley, who for thirty-seven years was recorder of faculties at the institution. He died ten days ago, leaving an estate of $280,000, half of which is to go to the university without any restrictions attached. The $40,000 in gifts range from $50 to $15,000, the $15,000 being given by Mrs. P. E. Bowles for public utilities connections at Bowles Hall, the dormitory for men at Berkeley.

APPEAL HEARD

The board heard an appeal from a committee of Southern California horticulturists in behalf of the Duval bill now before the State Assembly asking $150,000 for construction of a subtropical horticulture building at Westwood. Members of the committee are A. J. McFadden, Santa Ana; A. C. Hardison, Santa Paula; C. E. Kelsey, Ventura, and G. B. Hodgkin, Los Angeles. The matter was referred to R. G. Sproul, comptroller, with instructions to confer with the committee.

Faculty changes announced included acceptance of the resignation of Dr. Paul F. Cadman, associate professor of economics and dean of men on the Berkeley campus, who will leave the university June 30, next, to enter business in Los Angeles. Leave of absence was given B. A. Etcheverry, professor of irrigation, from March 26 to June 30, to study irrigation, reclamation and flood control in Italy, France and Spain. Leave also was granted for half a year to Prof. Paul Perigord of the French department, University of California at Los Angeles.

PLANS REVEALED

Guiseppe Caronia, head of the Institute of Epidemiology at Naples and head of the department of pediatrics in the polyclinic of the University of Rome, will join the staff at Hooper Foundation to study measles, the appointment being made possible by a gift of $5000 from A. P. Giannini. A. Sommerfeld of the University of Munchen at Munchen, Germany, was named to give a series of lectures in physics at Berkeley this spring.

H. A. Young of Los Angeles, a student in the college of chemistry at Berkeley, was awarded the $200 Bruce Howard Memorial Scholarship in chemistry.

Following the business session the regents lunched in the directors' dining-room of the Pacific Mutual Building and then viewed the new buildings of the University of California at Los Angeles.

ROAD REFEREES APPOINTED

To determine the value of 200 parcels of land to be used for the widening of Telegraph Road three referees were appointed by Superior Judge Keetch, presiding, yesterday.

The appointees are Hogan Willisford of Downey and W. Bonner Adams and R. O. Bell of Los Angeles.

Deputy County Counsel Tarr, who will represent the county at the referee's hearings, has set the first meeting of referees at 9:30 a.m., March 5. On this day it will be determined when individual property owners may appear for valuation of their land. The meetings will continue for two or three months, Deputy Tarr said.

Tank on Car at Border Has Wrong Content

The wrong road and the wrong tank were used in the asserted smuggling of liquor across the border from Tia Juana, Mex., according to customs inspectors, who testified yesterday in United States District Judge Louderbach's court during the trial of Roy Redman and J. V. Cunningham.

It was brought out that Charles O. Mallon was stopped at the border while driving a large car over a lonely road. The inspectors said they found a "trick" gasoline tank, half of which contained gasoline and the other half six and a half gallons of liquor. Mallon is said to have implicated Redman and Cunningham, who yesterday were found guilty of violating the customs law. Cunningham was sentenced to six months in jail and Redman was given three months in the San Diego jail, as he already had been in jail eighty-eight days. Mallon was not tried, but was held as a material witness in a pending case.

Shades of Early Bandit May Rise in Local Court

Shades of Jesse James will be scheduled to stalk through Superior Court here if the suit for $9400 filed yesterday by Jesse E. James against Paramount-Famous - Lasky studios ever goes to trial.

James, who is a son of the famous outlaw, declares the defendant has paid him only $600 of a $10,000 bill due him for aiding in filming a picture based on his father's life. James asserts he loaned costumes and other paraphernalia to the defendant for use in the picture, and also aided as a technician, adviser and writer.

The suit, drawn by Attorney David H. Cannon, was filed in the name of Mrs. Stella F. James, wife of James, owing to the asserted illness of the latter.

Action Against Burbank City Officials Tried

It will cost city officials of Burbank $91,000 if Ernest D. Britten, who has sued for false imprisonment, wins his suit, now on trial in Superior Judge Edmonds's court.

Britten was arrested on a charge of operating a still, but the complaint later was dismissed. Thereupon, charging false arest and malicious prosecution, he sued Mayor J. T. Lapsley, City Manager Albert B. Gibley, Councilmen M. E. Bruce and R. L. Morgan, Police Chief Malcolm Lowry and Policemen R. L. Reid, C. H. Tipps, G. A. Phelps, M. J. Fisher, W. H. Duffy and H. M. Delano.

Britten says his arrest was due to "politics," and was the result of his attacks on the Mayor and Council.

The trial will be continued today.

Wife Hits Back at Her Husband

When Leslie R. Mason, traveling salesman, accused his wife of associating with five different men Mrs. Mason, not to be outdone, filed a cross-complaint for divorce, in which she accused her husband of consorting with five different women.

Mason said his wife has no soul, she charges, gave her only $1 a day and drank too much, and occasionally beat her. She also said he told her he only married her to save himself from the draft in the World War. Mrs. Mason demands a division of $100,000 in community property. Mason, in his original complaint, said the community property amounts to only $2500.

Junk Dealing Permit Denied

Application of Lavietes & Miller of 706 Banning street for a permit to engage in the junk-dealing business, argued for the concern by Attorneys Andreani and Haines at some length yesterday before the Police Commission, was turned down by that body. The commission, which passed a resolution some months ago against granting further new permits to junk dealers because of the number of police required for checking up the business, declined to change its ruling.

The commission held that while it legally cannot fix a definite number who may be in the business, it can regulate it by refusing further permits.

Anthony, Inc., in commemoration of its twenty-five years in Los Angeles, opens the doors of its new building at the corner of Tenth and Hope streets Friday from 7 to 11 p.m.

Because of her success in presenting two other similar pageants in San Francisco and Oakland, Miss Lita Chevret, known in Hollywood for her presentation of motion-picture dance spectacles, has been chosen by Mr. Anthony to put on the pageant.

The first performance of the evening will start at 7 p.m.

Today's Bible Text

It is better to go to the house of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. Ecclesiastes vii:2.

THE FRIENDLY HAND

The ruling princes of forty of the states and provinces of India unite in pledging loyalty and faith to the British empire. Had it not been for the firm mildness of the Britons India would be a battleground twelve months of every year. The overlords have been saved from their own excesses and the people as a whole have benefited accordingly.

NO DIVORCE MILL

It was thought that the State of Wyoming craved standing as a divorce mart and would be glad to compete with Nevada for the movie trade. But not so. The other day the Wyoming Legislature defeated the bill which would make possible the filing of a divorce after one had been in the State four days. The road to Reno is open, and Wyoming will not seek to flag the trade.

BULLS AND BEARS

Senator King, who is a Utah Democrat, told his fellow-Senators that he knows that 85 per cent of the business on the New York Stock Exchange is done on a marginal basis and also that more than 80 per cent of these marginal traders were wiped out at some stage of the adventure. If this be true many of the fancy stories about profit-taking have been fictitious. Nevertheless there has been a long and voluptuous bull market and even those who must have been trimmed are pridefully wearing the halo of experience. They are stung and glad of it. So why should a mere Senator worry about it?

THE HOLY CITY

The best place for a museum of the relics and records of the Holy Land is in the city of Jerusalem. That makes it a world affair and establishes it as the eternal shrine of Christendom. Modern progress in the Jewish city is breaking up hallowed memories and it is well to have a strong museum organization at hand to save everything possible from the iconoclast. With this in mind the Rockefellers do well in giving full backing to this notable project. With $2,000,000 to start with the institution will never be feeble or impotent. It will be a rallying place for Christian thought and research.

AN IMPERIAL VALLEY

More marvels in the Imperial Valley country. An archeologist who has been looking the district over for lost cities or saber-toothed tigers says that the valley does not promise much in his line, but he says he pawed over one section of perhaps more than 10,000 acres that was a placer gold prospect paying around $3.50 a yard. He also found a deposit of salt that seemed almost chemically pure and which seemed to be good for about 40,000,000 tons. Furthermore, he ran into an agate formation a full mile in length with some of the stones bigger than a car. These were a few of the incidentals noted on the side. There are still a lot of things lying around in Nature's domain that are worth the attention of the prospector.

BUSINESS AND FARMING

If these promoters and merger magnates make the effort to place American farming on a big business and chain-store basis some odd things will happen. If farms are to be consolidated and operated along the lines used by Henry in building his Fords they will carry numbers and the book-keeping will be in loose-leaf ledgers. The big boss of the ranch will be known as the chairman of the board. The hired man may be known as vice-president in charge of hay and oats. The guy who brings home the bacon will be known as director of hogs. The man who does the milking will be known as chief of dairy products and the one who hires help would be chairman of personnel. The village gossip would be the press agent, but he would be known as the counsellor of public relations. Maybe the superintendent of the sales department would attempt to keep the surplus crops in a filing cabinet, but at any rate the affairs of the ranch would be conducted in a highly efficient manner. If there is too much overhead a fan-blower will be put to work to blow it off.

THE STATE WATER PROJECT

The proposal now under consideration for a State bond issue of $300,000,000 or more to finance various water projects throughout the State is one that should not meet with legislative, or other favor. Water development projects have rightly been regarded in the past as matters of local or regional concern, and it seems to be for the best interests of all concerned that they should continue so.

The specific projects principally in mind are the Kennett Dam and other proposals for control of the Sacramento River in the north and the Colorado River Aqueduct in the south, and it is urged that by combining these and other projects into a comprehensive plan there will be great advantages in financing, in administration, and in construction and that each project will help all the others. This argument is fallacious. Every water project should be considered on its own merits, should be able to stand on its own feet and should not be a burden upon any other district than the one it benefits. Any other plan leads to inevitable log-rolling and sectional jockeying, with the danger that every project will become a political football.

That the Sacramento Valley needs various works on the Sacramento River to control floods, to prevent tidal invasion and the like is acknowledged here; that Southern California needs an aqueduct from the Colorado River for a domestic water supply and for other uses is acknowledged in the north; neither question is in issue. But there is no reason why northern cities and counties should pay taxes for the aqueduct, or why southern cities and counties should pay taxes for the Sacramento development.

We are being told on the one hand that power generated by the Kennett Dam will be sufficient not only to repay the cost of construction of the Sacramento River works, but will leave a surplus that will go far toward meeting the interest and principal requirements of the bond issue for all the projects; and we are being told on the other that without State aid the Sacramento development cannot be financed. These assertions are not reconcilable. If the Kennett Dam will be such a good investment there should be no difficulty whatever about financing it; and the district to which it belongs should have all the benefits. Southern California is entitled to no part of them. Further, the project is too important to the Sacramento Valley for that valley to permit outside interference in it, which might be hampering; from its very nature the local control of it should be complete.

It is the same story with the Colorado aqueduct. This also is of intensely local concern, of vital regional importance, and its development and control not only should be but must be in the hands only of those immediately interested.

To put the destiny of either of these projects into the hands of a State commission which might be inclined, for political or sectional reasons, to favor one at the expense of the other, would be a very serious mistake. Either project is big enough to require the whole-hearted attention of an earnest and capable body of men, and a single body is unlikely to give either project the time it deserves, even with the best intentions in the world. There would be inevitable conflicts, disputes over priority and various other complications. With or without reason, there would be charges and countercharges of undue favoritism to the one region or the other, and much danger that important but minor projects included in the general program would be lost sight of altogether.

With each separate project proceeding independently, if there was failure to make progress on some such project, say, as the control of the Santa Ana River, the reason for delay could be promptly ascertained and a remedy applied. If the Santa Ana project were in the hands of a State commission, together with a sheaf of others, there would be no way to force action.

There are many other grounds of objection to the plan—among them that it is no function of the State to supply a city with water. The financial set-up has serious things the matter with it, as taxation and fiscal experts are pointing out. The issue of such a large block of bonds would take up a large proportion of the State's borrowing power, which might be needed in some unforeseeable emergency.

But the fact that the grouping together of a number of regional or local interests does not make them a State interest is sufficient reason for opposing the plan without the necessity of going farther.

THE GIFT OF FRANCE

Gift of a magnificent Sevres vase as a trophy for the finalists in the international oratorical contest to contend for this year is announced by the French government through the Ministry of Public Instruction. The vase, valued at $2000, will be one of the finest products of one of the world's finest potteries. Its donation is an indication of the value the French republic sets upon the study of the fundamentals of government, which this oratorical contest promotes in each of the twenty-one nations which take part in it.

It is somewhat doubtful whether ceramics or oratory is to be considered the older art; certainly both date back beyond the dawn of civilization. There is no record of when the first oration was made; the first pottery probably was produced somewhere around 15,000 years ago, and may have been a factor in inducing men to settle in communities—where the arts of the orator impelled them to co-operative effort. It is even reasonable to suppose that one of the first uses of oratory was to convince some family group of the desirability of locating near a good clay deposit; but at any rate the arts of the ceramist and the arts of the orator have been highly prized in all cultures.

The Ministry of Public Instruction has taken over all arrangements in connection with France's participation in the international contest and will nominate the finalist for that nation, giving the contest an official status which it has gained through merit and demonstrated educative value, and certifying to the degree of public interest which it has aroused there.

Since the Sevres pottery is under government control, the trophy also has an official status which will add to its value, and its possessor may well feel that he has one of the finest gifts that could be bestowed by the most artistic people on earth.

THE WAY IS OPEN

There unquestionably is a common meeting ground on which representatives of Los Angeles and Long Beach can get together for an organized presentation of argument before the Federal Army Board of Engineers in behalf of combining the harbors of the two cities into a single great port.

Popular sentiment in both communities is strongly for the harbor unification.

April 20 has been designated as the time for the appearance of witnesses before the board anent the project. It is a vitally important hearing for, if the board passes along the nullification recommendation recently made by a board of review here, it may wind up by Congress guillotining the project by withdrawing the $7,000,000 subsidy it has offered in furthering the requisite breakwater extension.

With these facts so plainly presenting themselves and the need of meeting them so apparent, there is not a single valid reason for hesitancy or timidity in recognizing the necessities of the situation and acting accordingly.

If inconsequential personal politics, obstructionist tactics and disregard of the public mandate for port unity are more important and impelling than the expressed will of the people and of the government, then the situation is serious.

Sincere as may be individual requests to the Federal board for more time, they cannot be as convincing or effectual as the presentation to the board of a constructive program by a unified representation from both cities. Such a program need not be merely a promise to do something in the event the board consents to delay the adverse review recommendation, which palpably was actuated by impatience with past inactivity. It could well include at least a tentative discussion of whatever points might be at issue, with a view to the possible revision of certain provisions amenable to technical changes that have come about.

There is not a point that cannot be satisfactorily adjudicated.

Let Los Angeles and Long Beach show the government that they mean business and the national port plan will not go into the discard.

Those who gather up the snarled threads of the port situation and weave them into a fabric of unity can be assured of the whole-hearted support and appreciation of a well-served citizenry.

Correct this sentence: "I called on six used-car dealers," said he, "and not one offered me a car formerly owned by an old gentleman who never had it off the pavement."

The LEE SIDE O' L.A.

BY Lee Shippey

A CLOUD of smudge—smoke in the blue
May be a cloud of smudge to you,
And nothing more.

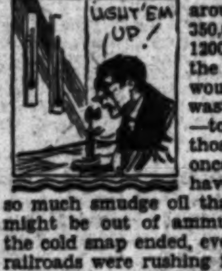
But if you are acquaint with California's "orange empire" a cloud of smudge smoke is a portent of drama, a flag of battle, a sign more significant than was ever an Indian smoke signal calling tribes to war. It is evidence that an army is fighting for more gold than Midas ever dreamed.

Yet many of us who live so close to it do not realize what preparation, what alert watchfulness, what efficient organization and what indomitable courage saved California's citrus crop during the recent unusual snap, the coldest in years.

Like an Army

Besides their marketing organizations, the citrus men have protective associations. Not all will enter the marketing associations, but the danger of frost brings practically all of them together to fight for their treasures. In less efficient times, each fruit grower fought for his own trees, independently. Now they are organized like an army. At Redlands, for example, a "general" sat at his desk, with a map before him which showed where every line of smudge pots was placed. Dispatch riders, with motorcycles, awaited his orders. By radio and telephone, he was in touch with government weather observers as much as 200 miles away. He knew how the thermometer stood in fifty towns, how the wind was blowing, how fast the frost was coming.

Holding Fire



In the orchards around him were 350,000 heaters, 1200 men to fight the frost. It would have been wasteful—suicidal—to light up all those heaters at once. They would have consumed so much smudge oil that the district might be out of ammunition before the cold snap ended, even though the railroads were rushing in smudge oil, at less than cost of transportation, to help save the crop. He must guard his reserves well or all would be lost.

Not till the frost was almost on the district did the orders go forth, by telephone and dispatch rider, to light up a row of pots here, there, yonder, the precise row being indicated in every case. As the thermometer continued to fall, the "second wave" of pots was put in action, and then the third.

Smoke of Battle

Naturally, it is at night that these battles are fought, as rarely is there need of smudging during daylight hours. It is not easy then to watch the drift of the smoke, but it must be watched. All night long the tanks of smudge oil are driven through the orchards, to keep every strategic point well supplied with ammunition. And when day breaks the tired, grimed men hardly know it, for such a fog of smoke envelops the region that little can be seen. We drove into the orange belt during that cold snap, and near Ontario, at 10 in the morning, it would have been dangerous to drive without lighted headlights. We were told that some years ago such clouds of smudge smoke drifted out to sea that ships had to proceed with great caution in entering the harbor.

Inventors to Rescue

Only once or twice in a decade is it necessary to smudge as we had to smudge this year, and soon it may not be necessary to smudge at all. Inventors are busy on devices which will make this picturesque and costly drama unnecessary. One theory is that airplanes, the wings of which will keep the air moving, or airplane propellers set up in orchards, will prevent frost. William Mapstead of San Bernardino, who has an orange grove near Covina, is experimenting with electricity, wiring his orchard and putting reflectors above the trees which throw all the heat down into the grove. Electricity is generated by a tractor, and when frost threatens all he has to do is press a button. The fact that the Redlands district alone spent about $200,000 in four days to save its orange crop is evidence that any inventor who can devise a method which will assure protection against frost will not only benefit his State, but make a fortune. For smudging is expensive, dirty and often demands larger gangs of workers than are available.

Under a Cloud

When there is snow on the mountains, one driving through Azusa may see a scene which railroad folders and other advertisements of Southern California have made famous. In the background, beside the highway, are blooming rose gardens and palm trees, backed by orange groves, and in the background rises the snowy peak of Old Baldy. In the thick of the battle of smudges we tried to see that scene, but even the near-by houses were lost in what looked like London fog.

But that lasted for only a little while. And it saved the oranges.

IN SUSPENSE

There is a suspicion that some of the girls are wearing suspenders with the idea that they can keep the men in suspense a little longer.

BUT THE MEMORY LINGERS STILL

By James J. Montague

It is authoritatively announced that after March 4 there will be no longer a White House spokesman

I always was strong for the speeches he uttered,
His language was terse and direct and exact.
He never once wavered or stumbled or stuttered,
But clearly and carefully stated the fact.
His mind was a mine of precise information.
He never waxed wordy or grew overwrought,
And he always was sure what the administration
And the President thought.
He wasted no time in hum-hawing digressions,
He seemed to be able, with one sweeping glance
To view the whole trend of Congressional sessions
And to forecast the state of the nation's finance.
He could quash a canard or dispose of a rumor,
And deny allegations without getting rough,
And he mostly avoided a semblance of humor,
Which is dangerous stuff.
He would take one behind the political curtain
And the mind-baffling problems of statecraft unfold,
And reading his words the next day one was certain
That he knew quite a little bit more than he told.
We never had cause to be troubled or worried,
Or to look toward the future with wavering hope,
As long as each morning, serene and unhurried
He gave us the dope.
And now, so the tidings this morning betoken,
We shortly must lose this mysterious sage.
His last telling word far too soon will be spoken
As he bows his farewell to the national stage.
In vain to retain him are pleas and beseechings
He will lay down the job, though we like it or not,
And the people who used to delight in his teachings
Will miss him a lot!

Czar-like Power?

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Since the fierce light of notoriety has recently beat upon the office of District Attorney, it seems apropos to call attention to what appears to be a defect in regime of that office, viz: the prerogative vested in the public prosecutor to recommend dismissal of cases "for lack of sufficient evidence to convict."

Therein lurk evil possibilities, great temptations, momentous opportunities.

As court reporter for a local paper, years ago, the writer was present on various occasions when the District Attorney appeared in the department in which some defendant was to be tried, and, having announced that there was insufficient evidence to convict, recommended that the case be stricken from the calendar. There was no reason to believe at that time, nor has there been since, that irregularities of any sort entered into such proceedings; they were regarded as merely routine.

However, in view of the recent conviction of former Dist.-Atty. Asa Keyes, the danger inherent in this czar-like power becomes startlingly evident.

A Woman Protests

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 15.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In a letter of February 13 by a J. Stanfield he states: "If a woman knows that there is no alimony she will not marry a man unless she really likes him, and when she does marry him she is not apt to break up the home and send the man to dispartism and wreck her own life—but it is the woman's own lookout if she stays with that kind." I consider this statement an insult to womanhood and motherhood.

What are you going to do with the men who pass themselves off as outside angels and are inside devils; one who lives with his wife nearly thirty years and after she is broken in health, unable to earn her living, has raised a family for him, helped in every way to make him what he is socially, financially and perchance morally, he leaves her for the younger flapper?

I would ask the above-mentioned J. Stanfield if he considers it justice for a wife and mother, after she has devoted her life energies to make a real home for husband, to be cast aside, with a meager support and that not alimony but a loan on the home she has striven all her married life to secure?

ONE WHO KNOWS.

Wiseacres

COEUR D'ALENE (Idaho) Feb. 11.—[To the Editor of The Times:] An eminent doctor says: "Old age is simply a disease which science can combat. There is no such thing as physiological old age." While it is true that life can be prolonged to over 100 years (but prolonged more by spiritual and religious means than by physical means) it is the height of absurdity to say that old age is simply a disease. Old age is a natural process. All of us will become old if we live long enough. A science that attempts to go against natural laws is opposed to the ideal of true science, and will run its head against a wall.

Another wiseacre, this time a prominent English writer and "philosopher," says: "The important thing about work is that it affords leisure for play; if it does not do this, it is not fulfilling its social purpose." This is pleasant meat for our leisured classes, but it is putting the cart before the horse. Play is for children. Its only place in a man's life is to make him better fit for his work.

WHAT IS PROVINCIALISM?

BY LANNIE HAYNES MARTIN

At a dinner at the Pleiades Club a few nights ago a famous English artist told the many assembled guests of how Lorenzo Medici, known as the "Magnificent," had made his city, Florence, the most beautiful and most artistically famous in the world merely by encouraging artists, musicians, painters, sculptors, and poets, and he suggested that some wealthy patriot of Los Angeles could do the same thing for his own community at the same time making himself famous, by becoming a patron to the fine arts.

While it would, indeed, be a fine thing, both for the city and for the artists, if some one of great means would assume the role of Lorenzo the Magnificent, still all of us who have sympathy, discrimination and love of the beautiful, could do something to further the cause of art, literature and music by showing genuine appreciation of the works of our contemporaries, and also for the achievements of visitors from other countries who bring to us different methods and a wider outlook, would we only accept it.

At another gathering a short time ago a local man speaking on art said, "We have good enough artists right here in California, we do not need and do not want foreign artists here." And the one or two really well-known artists who were there felt so sorry and ashamed that they said, "We wanted to crawl under the table."

So it would seem that provincialism is not merely lack of culture and cosmopolitan viewpoint, but lack of sympathy and courtesy, as well. Every year Los Angeles draws a greater number of foreign artists. We have here now a number of famous Mexican singers, actresses and painters. We have German scientists, Japanese statesmen, French and Russian poets, British men of letters, and yet how blithely the ignorant will dismiss these men with a wave of the hand and say, "Oh, they are merely foreigners!" There are some very despicable things in narrow-minded nationalism which a little investigation of the "inferiority complex" will disclose.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Home Nursing?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is included. Address: Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

All the members of the home nursing class in the Bell Evening High School, 704 Bell avenue, Bell, are mothers. This prophesies health and happiness for the Bell youngsters.

The class meets on Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 7 to 9 o'clock; and is being taught by an experienced nurse, Jennie E. Thorwoldson, R.N. Instruction is free to the public. The text-book is the Red Cross text, and completion of the course leads to a Red Cross certificate. The book is loaned free to students, but a deposit is required to insure the book's return.

Those working for a certificate must enter near the beginning of the semester, though students who do not wish credit may enter later. An advanced course follows the first course and leads to a higher certificate.

Where do the slang terms come from which so mysteriously spring into use over night? The "funnies" seem to start some of them—yet they are adopted from real life in other cases. Take, for instance, the current terms, so picturesque yet most unattractive, which you may be called upon to explain to an inquiring foreigner any day. Do you know the different shades of meaning of, say, applesauce, banana oil, baloney? Do you use, instead, hooey, or blah-blah? Does hokum mean the same?

A.: The proportion of female to male dolls is twelve to one.

Q.: How many Pan-American Congresses have there been? F. B. R.

A.: There have been six Pan-American Congresses. These were held in Washington in 1889, in Mexico in 1901-1902, in Rio de Janeiro in 1906, in Buenos Aires in 1910, in Chile in 1923, and in Havana in 1928.

Q.: How do Cherokee Indians rank in intelligence? U. P.

Q.: What State had two Governors by the name of Cranston? J. W. G.

A.: There have been two Governors of Rhode Island by the name of Cranston. John Cranston, supposed to have been born in England about 1626, served from 1678 to 1680. His son, Samuel Cranston, was also Governor of Rhode Island, serving twenty-nine consecutive terms, commencing 1698.

Q.: How many weather bureaus are there in the United States? O. R.

A.: There are several classes of stations maintained by the Weather Bureau, the most important, of course, being those established for making daily weather forecasts. These number about 200 in the continental United States, some eight or ten in Alaska, and probably fifteen or twenty in the West Indies and adjacent areas. In addition to those mentioned above there are other classes known as crop stations, special frost stations, river stations, etc., numbering probably 1000 or more, and still another class known as co-operative observers, of which there are some 4000 or 5000 well distributed over the country. No pay is attached to observers of the last mentioned class.

Q.: Who took the part of Lincoln in England in Drinkwater's "Abraham Lincoln"? M. B.

A.: When played in England William J. Rea, an Irish actor, was the leading player in the role of Lincoln. In the New York presentation of this play, the title part was played by Frank McGlynn.

S.C.-Occidental Affair to be Staged Along With Nurmi-Williams Invitational Event

BY BRAVEN DYER

Due to the generosity of Los Angeles Athletic Club officials, Southern California and Occidental College won't be left out in the cold when the Paavo Nurmi-Percy Williams invitational meet is held in the Coliseum on March 23.

The Trojans and Tigers had a meet scheduled for the same date, the affair to be held at Patterson Field, Eagle Rock. It would probably draw in the neighborhood of 2000 fans. When L.A.A.C. officials, after arranging the date for their big meet, were told of the dual engagement between Occidental and S. C., they promptly invited the two colleges to join them in the Coliseum affair and the offer was just as promptly accepted. The two schools will share in the gate receipts, which insures them just as much money as they would have drawn on their own hook. In addition, the athletes get the inspiration of competing on a program which features the greatest distance runner the world has ever known and the fastest dash man of the present day.

JOHN KUCK

Of course, Mercury officials could have struggled along somehow without including S. C. and Occidental on the program. Nurmi and Williams will draw close to 50,000 fans whether they run against tough competition or some aged dames from the old ladies' home. Talk that the L.A.A.C. needed the Trojan and Occidental men to compete against the visitors is so much hokum. It will be nice if such men as Borah and Wehner of S.C. and Ruth and Belman of Occidental can take part in the invitational 100 which is to feature Williams, but if they can't the meet will be run off anyway as there are lots of other sprinters in this region capable of giving the Canadian flash an uncomfortable afternoon.

GREENTREE POLO FOUR PLAYS MIDWICK AT ALHAMBRA TODAY

BY FRANK ROCHE

What promises to be the greatest polo week in Southland history gets under way today at the Midwick Country Club when Jock Whitney's Greentree riders tackle a Midwick high-goal team captained by Eric Pedley. Friday another group of high-goal stars will perform at Midwick and Sunday the climax will be reached when the greatest group of poloists ever assembled at one club in the West will clash on the Purple turf. The game Sunday will feature a rematch between the Rancho San Carlos horsemen captained by the incomparable Tommy Hitchcock, and the Midwick Club four captained by a player who ranks second only to Hitchcock in polo, Winston Guest.

TEDDY MILLER

The teams as announced for Sunday by Midwick officials yesterday are for San Carlos: W. Averill Harriman, eight goals; Capt. Forrester, six goals; Tommy Hitchcock, ten goals, and Aiden Roark, five goals. The Midwick team will line up with the following in the saddle: Stephen (Laddie) Sanford, seven goals; Elmer Boeseke, seven goals; Eric Pedley, eight goals, and Winston Guest, nine goals.

These teams total 29 and 31 goals, respectively. Included on these two teams are three members of the American International Big Four,

MERCURY CAGERS DEFEAT H.A.C. QUINTET, 38 TO 32

Coach Stan Joseph's Los Angeles Athletic Club cagers went into the lead of the local A.A.U. basketball race last night by trouncing the Hollywood A.C. quintet 38-32. The game was a rough affair and was played at the Mercury gym. Jack Ketchum of the L.A.A.C. five copped high scoring honors by hitting the hoop for 17 points. Schneider, Hollywood forward, was right behind Ketchum with 16 digits.

This victory virtually gives the Mercury quintet the champion-

YOUNG INFIELDERS SHOW PROMISE AT SAN DIEGO

Burns Attracts Attention in Outfield

BY BOB RAY

Jigger Statz, the most popular flychaser to wear an Angel uniform in recent years, deserted the fairways of Southern California golf courses yesterday for the greensward of Wrigley's Field, where he got in a monkey-suit and joined the rest of Marty Krug's Seraphs in the spring training grind.

ARNOLD STATZ

Statz, who is given most of the credit for the pennant the Angels won in 1926, looked to be in great trim and will be rarin' to go just as soon as Marty Krug gives the boys the word to start shootin'. Jigger took things kind of easy out in the outfield yesterday but he showed that he hasn't lost any of his finesse in the exciting art of taming line drives labeled for triples into easy outs.

Because the field was still a bit heavy from Monday morning's rain, Skipper Krug did not have the athletes over-exert themselves during yesterday's session. Marty will have the boys working harder than ever, though, today for the grounds ought to be in good shape once more.

Aside from Statz there were several other Angels making their spring training debut at yesterday's workout. The new faces were Leo Burns, an outfielder who was with Pocatello last year; Art Parker, young infielder who also saw action with Pocatello last season; Ob

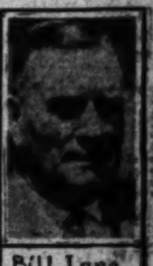
Rumler Wallops Ball Hard in Practice

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 19.—Mayhap Bill Lane has found the second baseman to replace Johnny Kerr, drafted from the club of last season by the Chicago White Sox and again, maybe he has not. But one thing is sure, Mike Maloney, young second baseman from the Boise club of the Utah-Idaho League, in the spring training camp of the Hollywood club here, will be given every chance to show his ability to fill Kerr's shoes.



Bill Lane

Maloney got his first chance to show his ability around the keystone sack today as Manager Oscar Vitt lined up some of the young infielders for practice. None of the regulars are in camp as yet. Mickey Heath, first baseman, Tom Holley and Leo Ostenberg, third basemen and Dudley Lee, shortstop, have been given special permission to report a week late. All are finishing up a semipro campaign Sunday and will be on hand the following day. Horace Kibbie, purchased from Fort Worth, of the Texas League, another second-base prospect, has not yet reported, so Maloney will get plenty of attention as will other young infielders.

Vitt called the squad out at 10 o'clock this morning and Lane and Vitt both talked to the players for a short time in the clubhouse. The order for once around the park fol-

GOTHAM BOUT COMMISSION REFUSES TO AID ILLINOIS

NEW YORK, Feb. 19. (AP)—The New York State Athletic Commission today declined a request of Illinois boxing authorities to help force Joe Dundee, world's welterweight champion, to defend his title or otherwise recognize the winner of a fight between Jackie Fields and Young Jack Thompson as Dundee's successor.

Fields and Thompson, Pacific Coast sensations, are matched to fight in Chicago.

The New York solons, in reply to the chairman of the Illinois commission, asserted they could not act because Dundee is already under suspension in this State.

Bud Taylor, Terre Haute, featherweight, and Al Singer of New York have been rematched for a bout at Madison Square Garden, March 15, upon which date Taylor's suspension for fouling Singer in their last fight will be lifted.

ERIC KRENZ

The times and marks throughout were considered fairly indicative of the strength the Stanford team is expected to show this year. The distance men were fairly ragged, but performances in other events were quite passable. STATZ BEGINS WORKING EARLY

Gardner, first-sacker from the Washington Timber League, and Slim McLean, a local first-base guardian.

Burns, who hails from San Francisco and was the property of the Missions last spring, looks like a great prospect. He has not yet reached his majority but he has plenty of size and speed and had the reputation of possessing the best arm in the Utah-Idaho League last season. Just what the Angels plan to do with Burns this season, inasmuch as they have such capable flychasers as Webb, Statz, Berger, Schulmerich, Hood and Moseff on their roster, is something for Krug to worry over. It only goes to prove that old adage that "them as has, gits."

Among the visiting athletes at yesterday's workout was George Uhle, former star Cleveland hurler, who reports to Detroit this spring. Uhle has been bothered with an ailing arm and had an appointment with "Doc" Spencer, local wizard with baseball appendages, yesterday afternoon. Sammy Bohne, a former Coast League and big-league infielder, was also a visitor at Wrigley Field. Bohne now belongs to the Minneapolis club.

Marty Krug announced yesterday that he intends to drop over to Catalina Island some time the latter part of next week to watch the Cubs in action. Krug says that he is not after any Cub talent but that he just wants to see the new players in action so he can have the knowledge about them for future reference.

The Olympic management and the Emanuels came to a parting of the ways, Wadhams said, over the matter of percentage and guarantee.

The Emanuels wanted both, but Promoter Jack Doyle insisted on a choice of one or the other as outlined in his original offer—a $20,000 guarantee or 27½ per cent of the gate receipts.

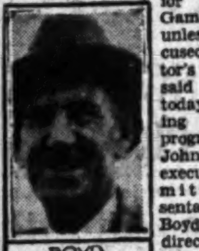
POPE PRAISES OLYMPICS

Santa Barbara County Superintendent Says That 'All Boys of That Region Will Enroll in Games

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 19.—No more perfect barometer of interest in boys and their athletic education could be shown than in the action of A. S. Pope, county superintendent of schools, in his announcement today that every school under his jurisdiction in the rural districts of Santa Barbara county register their youngsters in a 100 per cent schedule in the 1929 Junior Olympic Games program.

"Every boy enrolled in the schools under our supervision from the ages of 9 to 15 years must participate in the Junior Olympic Games program unless he is excused by a doctor's certificate," said Mr. Pope today in discussing the 1929 program with John F. Ness, executive committee representative, and Boyd Comstock, director of the 1929 Junior Olympic Games.



BOYD COMSTOCK

"The proof in benefits in clean, athletic competition and play lies in the amount of good that it can do a student during the course of the program," continued Mr. Pope, "and I am offering two silver trophies, one for the junior division and one for the senior division, to the school with the best record for efficiency in the Olympic program. I want our county schools to set a new record in attendance in the games, and to work not for the development of a champion, but so that every boy in the entire school system will be benefited by the juvenile pentathlon."

In the Santa Barbara city school system the Junior Olympic Games program is now being organized under the supervision of a committee headed by Robert L. Glover and Calvin McRae of the La Cumbre Junior High School, and Eldon Ford, assistant superintendent of the Santa Barbara city schools. The principals of the various city schools will meet to arrange definite plans and schedules for the junior games program at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, at which time the appointment of members of the student executive committee will be made and all materials for enrollment of boys in the five athletic events will be distributed.

According to Mr. Glover, Santa Barbara county will have a much larger enrollment in the games this year than last.

The Oakland all-American six, with its beautifully decorated insignias for the Junior Olympic Games, is attracting much attention along the routes taken by the executives from the Los Angeles headquarters, and boys flock around the field car. The many recesses in the roomy roadster in which Boyd Comstock's book on running is stored have been drained by youngsters eager to get started in their training.

Visits were made late today with school executives in San Luis Obispo and Paso Robles. Ness and Comstock leave tomorrow morning for Kern county on their tour, which will be climaxed with a meeting of county business representatives and school officials of Inyo county, held in Lone Pine Thursday night.

Anderson Star as Tro-Babes Trim Compton

With "Chuck" Anderson winning the 100-yard dash in 9 4-5s., the S.C. frosh defeated Compton Junior College, 90½ to 31½ on Bovard Field yesterday. The freshmen trimmed their foes by a larger score than did the U.C.L.A. varsity, which trimmed the Tartars, 80-48, last week.

Anderson, who hails from Hollywood High School, was caught in 9 4-5 by three different watches. He won over his team-mate, Schnelle, by a matter of two yards, with Scott of Compton third. He did not run in the furlong. None of the other times was particularly brilliant. The results:

One new Coast record was hung up by the Webfeet when they swam the 160-yard relay in 1m. 4 2-5s. John Anderson, Oregon sprinter, proved the outstanding performer in the meet, winning the fifty and 100-yard dashes, in addition to swimming a lap in the relay.

Mushy Forces Rival to Quit

FRESNO, Feb. 19. (AP)—Mushy Callahan, junior welterweight champion, won on a technical knockout over Frankie Fuente of El Paso, Tex., here tonight in the fourth round of a ten-round bout when Fuente's seconds threw in a towel to save Fuente further punishment. Fuente was knocked down twice in the second round, once in the third and was off his feet three times in the fourth before the fight ended. Callahan weighed 147 and Fuente 143.

SONNENBERG FLOPS DE VITO

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Feb. 19. (AP) Gus Sonnenberg of this city, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, tonight experienced one of the longest bouts of his career in defending his title against Joe De Vito, also of Providence. The champion won in straight falls, but he required 50m. 27s. to gain the first, and then 18m. 9s. to register the second.

Romans Down Fairfax Team

Coach Clif Reynolds's L. A. High trackmen had little trouble in downing the highly touted Fairfax squad, 71-28, at Housh Field yesterday. Clean sweeps in the mile and 220 and five other first places piled up the points for the Romans.

With "Red" Houck winning both sprints, Bob Reed took over the quarter-mile event, and galloped home a winner in 53.6s. for one of the best exhibitions of the day. The results:

Crucial Soccer Games on Card

Cup tie games will hold the interest in the Los Angeles City League soccer world on Sunday, when the four teams in the semifinal round will meet to decide who will go north for further play in the California Cup competition.

Plans are being devised by the association heads whereby the California winners will meet with the Mid-West winners. The U.S.F.A. is endeavoring this year to name an all-American champion through interstate play-offs. So with the trip to San Francisco as the prize for a victory on Sunday the two games slated for the Loyola Field promise to bring out something extraordinary in the way of competition.

Sons of St. George tackle the Hollywood men in the opening encounter, while Magyars are drawn against L.A.A.C. in the second affair.

BOXERS THROWN OUT

CLEVELAND, Feb. 19. (AP)—The six-round main bout between Johnny Datto, Filipino featherweight, and Phil Zwick of Cleveland was ruled "no contest" by Referee Johnny Kilbane tonight. The referee had warned the fighters in the fourth round to speed things up. They exchanged a few hefty punches in the final stanza but not enough to impress Kilbane.

MYERS OUTPOINTS BROWN

INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) Feb. 19. (AP)—Spug Myers, Pocatello (Idaho) lightweight, outpointed Harry (Kid) Brown of Philadelphia in ten rounds here tonight.

DOYLE KAYOES GARCIA

BILL RODGERS BEATS BEAVER VANGUARD INTO SPRING CAMP

SANTA ANA, Feb. 19.—Although the advance guard of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast League is not due in Santa Ana until tomorrow morning, Beaver officialdom was represented here 100 per cent today.

"Raw Meat" Bill Rodgers, manager of the Oregonians and one of baseball's most colorful personalities, checked in at St. Ann's Inn, Beaver headquarters, last night and, characteristically, was all steamed up with the hope that some of the Portland hirelings may reach town in time for a workout at the Orange county fair grounds Wednesday.

President Tom Turner, Secretary Roy Mack and Trainer Dr. James A. Turner, the president's brother, registered yesterday and soon went into a huddle with S. W. Stanley, secretary of the Orange County Fair Association, which is financing the training camp.

The Beavers have nine new players on their list so far and President Turner says he has deals pending for the delivery of at least four more experienced men. The Philadelphia Athletics, who have an interest in the team, is certain to come through with some help and so will Pittsburgh, which owes the Beavers a player in the transaction which sent Larry French, young southpaw, to the Pirates.

INDIANS GO THROUGH SNAPPY WORKOUT

SAN CLEMENTE, Feb. 19.—Manager Ernie Johnson of the Seattle Indians sent his squad through a snappy two-hour practice today and began casting his eye over the rookie hopefuls for a battery to oppose San Clemente Saturday in the first game. Jim Ault, recently signed by Seattle and who looks to be in good condition, will be on the mound for the Hanson nine.

Eddie Ainsmith, veteran catcher; Dave Barbee, who may or may not be traded to Portland for "Cowboy" Tomlin; Larry Canton, former Sioux City pitcher, were in uniforms today.

Charles Borreani, catcher, "Chili" McDaniel, first baseman, and Long Jim Edwards, pitcher, are due to report. Rudy Kallio got in from Portland late this afternoon but not in time for a workout. Johnson intends to hold a stiff batting practice tomorrow.

Illustrating the speed with which the glory of baseball fades was the application of Bert Ellison, former Seal manager, with Dallas last year, who asked Bill Klepper for a job. Klepper didn't figure the old-timer was quite fast enough so he couldn't take him on. Ellison will try some of the other Coast clubs.

Klepper told Tom Turner of Portland that he wouldn't trade Barbee for Tomlin, but Klepper was in Los Angeles today and it was said that the last word in the parley had not been said. Wally Hood, Los Angeles fly chaser, is said to be the focal point for another trade but Klepper would make no statement here.

Preparations are being made for a large crowd at the game Sunday here between Hollywood and Seattle, Gus Scherck, chief of the exploitation forces, said.

ERNIE NEVERS CHECKS INTO CAMP

STOCKTON, Feb. 19. (AP)—Ernie Nevers, Walter Hubbell and Merton Nelson arrived in the San Francisco Missions' training camp here today, bringing Wade (Red) Killefer's pitching staff to within two of its full strength. Killefer expects Harry Krause in a few days, and Herman Pillette may be a week late because of an accident to his little son at Long Beach.

Killefer put his squad through a workout today, interspersing the regular program with jaunts around the park. He rings a bell when he wants the men to take a run. On hearing the bell clang, the players drop their other training and start off at a dog trot. The Missions will work out once daily this week. Two sessions daily are scheduled for next week.

JEFFCOAT SHOWS UP AT ACORN QUARTERS

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 19. (AP)—Charlie Jeffcoat, southpaw pitcher, obtained from the Albany club of the Eastern League, reported at the Oakland baseball club's training camp here today for the opening of the training season. Jeffcoat took part in the first spring workout. Twenty-five men were out in uniform, but Howard insisted on holding them down to a light workout.

MAILS AND TURPIN REPORT TO SEALS

MONTEREY, Feb. 19. (AP)—Among the new arrivals in the San Francisco Seals' training camp today were Walter Mails and Hal Turpin, pitchers, and Jerry Donovan, first baseman.

Nick Williams's team defeated Bobby Coltrin's team, 7 to 2, in today's practice game.

MICKEY COCHRANE NOT ON JOURNEY

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19. (AP)—Mickey Cochrane, first string catcher for the Philadelphia Athletics, was a prominent absentee when the first flight of Mackmen headed for the Florida training camp tonight. Cochrane, recipient of the "most valuable player" award last year, has announced himself as a holdout. His contract, carrying an increase in salary, remains unsigned, the catcher being of the opinion that he is worth $3000 more to the Athletics than set forth in the printed slip.

SAN PEDRO RUNNERS TRAMPLE NARBONNE

San Pedro High's track-and-field squad ran over the Narbonne tracksters yesterday afternoon at San Pedro running up the score of 72 to 32. No exceptional good times distances were made due to the sogginess of the track. The Class C San Pedro runners also defeated the Narbonne babes, 47½ to 29½. Summary:

With Willingham crashing out a home run, the Trojan frosh defeated Belmont High School, 6-2, yesterday in the opening game of the practice season for both baseball teams. Frankovitch, with a double, and a brilliant catch in center, sparkled for the high school. Buchanan held the losers to three hits. The score:

AVIATOR FIVE MEETS HOLLYWOOD QUINTET

The March Field Aviators' basketball squad, scheduled to meet the Hollywood Athletic Club quintet Friday night, will engage in some real aerial practice early the same afternoon.

The feature exhibition clash, arranged in honor of Washington's birthday, will group representatives from fifteen major universities. "Tut" Imlay, former California football and basketball star, has worked all season with the March Field aggregation and the Army casaba exponents have toppled many of the best outfits in Southern California.

PANTHER FIVE WINS

The California Christian casaba tossers walloped the Whittier College freshman five last night at the Whittier gym, 31-22. Lefty Tower of the Panthers took high scoring honors, hitting the hoop for 21 points. The game was close in the first half, the score at the end of the period being 11-9 in favor of the Panther five.

Paramount basketball team won the feature game, 32-29, last night from the Universal quintet in a double-header cage program at Fairfax High. Sultenfuss took high-point honors with 11 points. In the other contest the M.-G.-M. cagers walloped the Chaplin Studio five, 33-20.

PETERS RALLIES TO TO GET DRAW WITH SPEEDY DADO

three rounds he held the upper hand although in the fifth session—the fastest of a great fight — he was forced to even terms after rocking Dado to his heels with a right and left to the head.

The seventh and eighth were even. Dado had a big margin in the ninth, and the boys wound up in a furious rally at the bell—so furious that they never heard the clang and had to be parted by the referee.

Dado caught Peters with a beautiful left-hand counter in this round, and the smack was heard all over the house.

Peters had a slight edge in a fiercely fought tenth round, but hardly enough to offset the big margin gained by Dado in the ninth, and if any hairs were to have been drawn they would have been in favor of Dado.

The draw appeared to satisfy the crowd, which cheered Dado for his brilliant fight and Peters for his game uphill battle.

STAYAWAYS LOSE OUT

Last night's bout was not staged at the bargain prices which held sway last week when Bert Colima packed the house with Johnny Gill at 50 cents to $2. The ante was $1 to $3 last night, and the response was 5600 cash customers who paid $9206 for their fun.

However, the stayaways missed a great show, which saw the principals both fighting under handicaps. Peters wrenched his right ankle in the fifth round, and his chief second, Al Lang, claimed this was responsible for so much of his fighting out of the corners, which he hugged for support by the ropes. For Dado it was claimed he injured the same shoulder he dislocated in a fight with Newsboy Brown almost a year ago.

If these boys ever fight when they are in perfect physical shape Promoter Jack Doyle should arrange for extra chairs. It will be an epic.

Peters came in weighing 114 and Dado, 112½ pounds.

Crazy Joe Bitto scored a knockdown over Joe Peregrina in the last round of their six-round bout and won the award.

Sid Torres won from Benny Marks in six rounds; Rosalio Caballero defeated Jack Stevens in four rounds, and Frankie Boldt beat Frankie Thone in four heats in the other preliminaries.

OLYMPIC CLUB SQUAD STRONG

Many Former College Stars on Cinder Team

Conquerors of Borah Will Run in Sprints

Fuller Heads Great Array of Distance Men

[This is the sixth of a series of articles written by Bud Spencer on the track and field situation on the Pacific Coast. Spencer captained the Stanford team which last year won the national intercollegiates at Cambridge. He was a member of the United States Olympic team at Amsterdam.

BY "BUD" SPENCER
(Holder of World's 400-Meter Record)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.—With a roster including a long list of former college stars the Olympic Club of San Francisco possesses a strong track team; one that will make both Stanford and California go through a few unusual performances to beat them. It was last year in the Los Angeles Coliseum that Coach Charlie Hunter and his Olympians let out a cyclone of good performances from the bag, and when the relay had ended the clubmen were on the long end of a close score against S. C.

EMERSON SPENCER

College teams used to believe that a long list of college stars on a club squad meant only a lot of unconditioned athletes on crutches, and there was never much fear of getting licked by these so-called has-beens. Well, last year both L.A.A.C. and the Olympic Club upset this theory and took a notion to clean up on a few of our college squads.

MEET TROJANS

The University of Southern California will meet the Olympic Club athletes on March 16, next, one week after the San Franciscans do battle with Stanford. I think that, regardless of the stars on the club team, U.S.C. and Stanford will have a little of the advantage because of the early dates, for college teams are usually in condition sooner than the outsiders, although the L.A.A.C. aggregation of last year would easily contradict this statement, but they were one exception.

In the sprints there will be Russell Sweet, the old Montana star athlete; Phil Barber, former U.C. captain, and Les Grey, high school star last year for Stockton. The former two have been good sprinters in their day, but their legs aren't exactly what they used to be, although last spring they got one good race out of their system to catch Charlie Borah unawares and in poor early season condition. Grey is young and lacks experience, but looks like a coming star.

In the quarter-mile there is Bill Storie, member of Stanford's team a few years ago, and second man on the Coast record relay of Babcock, Storie, Richardson and Miller. There was a fast quartet of 440 men, and in my estimation, Storie is one athlete who has really improved since he was graduated from college ranks. He is a slim, frail-looking runner, but is fast and has a good deal more strength than most people think. He can do 49s. so will be feared by all quarter-milers this spring. Blink Williamson, a former Stanford star of many years ago, has shaken the cobwebs and oiled up his legs, and, according to Blink, he is very much of the opinion that he is not as old as most people would wish on him. Williams can do 50s. flat.

FULLER IS STAR

In the half-mile, Earl Fuller, member of the 1928 Olympic team and finalist in the 800-meter, is good enough to win against any Coast competition. Fans of Los Angeles will remember that this boy really came to the front in track circles last spring in the Coliseum when he turned in a wonderful performance of 1m. 55s. and a fraction in the half-mile. Back in Boston in the Olympic tryouts Fuller pushed Hahn fairly close and must have done a good 1m. 53s. That is remarkable time after a rushed trip from seaboard to seaboard. With the retirement of Hahn recently, Fuller looks like probably the best half-miler in America. He never attended college and was just one of the boys who plugged around and around the small picnic tracks until finally he developed himself into quite a runner.

Tom McGuire, Stanford half-miler last year, will try and get into condition again this year and he can do around 1m. 58s.

In the longer races, the mile and two mile, there are three pretty capable runners. Royce Clayton used to turn in some 4m. 23s. races up at Oregon State, and won the Coast Conference two years ago at Los Angeles. Don Cleaver took a fine second to Abbot of Illinois in the national collegiates at Chicago last June. Cleaver was running for Idaho that day and was one of the team-mates of that famous little runner of three years ago by the name of Gillette, and he was thin enough to be mistaken for a razor, too. Bert Hooper, an old-timer from no college, but just another self-developed runner, can be counted on to turn in fairly good performances in either the mile or two mile.

MERRILL IS WINNER IN OAKMONT EVENT

Shooting a nobby 175-36—139 for thirty-six holes, Les Merrill won the monthly tournament of the "Terrible Twenty," played over the Oakmont Country Club course yesterday. Ed Westberg finished second with 190-42—148. In the blind bogey event M. Sulenpa finished in front. The next tournament is to be held at the Hollywood Country Club.

PLANS FOR ANNUAL WINTER SPORT CARNIVAL COMPLET

Indicating everything is in readiness for the third annual winter sports carnival, to be staged next Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Los Angeles county Big Pines Recreation Camp, F. E. Wadsworth, superintendent of the camp, last night wired Dr. Alex J. Linck, general chairman of the carnival committee, that his men had completed preparations for the event.

Under Wadsworth's supervision, their work included final preparation of the ski jump, which is reported to be among the finest "hills" ever laid for skiing, conditioning of the toboggan slides, and scraping of the ice surface of Jackson Lake for the first ice hockey game ever to be played in the open in Southern California, which is to be one of the conspicuous features of the snow and ice event.

Sponsor of the event, the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce last night through its president, Kennedy Ellsworth, indicated the event this year will be by far the most interesting yet attempted by the body of young business men. It is expected to attract a crowd of more than 40,000 over the Washington Birthday week-end, which will be a record three-day attendance for the camp if reached.

Ski jumping, tobogganing, ice skating, ice hockey and exhibition skating are among the many events carded. An entry list of more than fifteen of the country's foremost ski jumpers is expected in the ski jump, while the exhibition skating will find such well-known skaters as Jack Gregory, Canadian champion, known there as the [illegible] man top," [illegible] Wells, [illegible] Sunshine, Peggy Jean, [illegible] Wessel, and Al [illegible] ing their wares.

A NEW FLASH

ALTHOUGH the average track coach will tell you football is the bunk for a sprinter, Jack Elder, the bow-legged Notre Damė football flash, seems to be quite capable of taking care of himself on the running paths just the same. At least, one would judge as much after reading of Elder's conquest in a sixty-yard dash with Percy Williams, the double Olympic winner, at New York the other night.

The time was fast—within one-fifth second of the world's record—and indicates that the Notre Dame boy is getting a good start on the season. It was Williams's first defeat since his appearance in New York circles this winter, and the victory will give Elder more consideration than if he had run in faster time against a less impressive field. Beating Williams is bound to become just as much of war cry with the sprinters this year as it was when Charley Paddock was in his prime.

Elder played in the gridiron struggle against the Trojans here last December, and in the final period ripped off a lot of yardage around the flanks with his snappy, fleet-footed dashes.

But he shines more on the track than he does on the football field—is a potential champion in fact. When Arthur Duffy, the first man to run 100 yards in 9 3-5s., was here last year to start and referee the Pyle bunion derby he said some very complimentary things about Elder. He declared that Elder was one of the finest prospects for short distances—50 yards up to 100—he had ever seen, and predicted that Elder would be heard from later.

THE MOHLERS

THE appointment of Orv Mohler's father as baseball coach at Annapolis sort of confirms a rumor that the Alhambra High School star seriously considered entering the Naval Academy instead of Southern California.

But the Trojans talked a little faster apparently than the navy boys and the kid stays home while the old man goes east.

Mohler senior was just as much of an athlete in his day as young Orv threatens to be in college. Mohler senior was known as "Kid" Mohler to thousands of baseball fans when he played second base and captained the San Francisco Seals twenty years ago.

This came to my mind last fall when young Orv was running wild on Compton in the Coliseum.

In the stands sat a short, gray-haired little fellow named Jimmy Toman who appeared to be getting a big kick out of young Mohler rolling up the yards.

At his side was another gray head—a little fellow, too. It was Mohler senior enjoying the festivities in a quiet, self-contented manner. Toman and Mohler played baseball on rival teams in the good old days—Toman at shortstop for the Angels, Mohler at second for the Seals.

But both were pulling for young Orv, and "Jimmy the Whale," as he was called in the old days, was getting just as big a kick out of it as Mohler senior.

SAME OLD STUFF

THE ballyhoo is running in old lanes down Miami way, what with Sharkey's manager insisting on Massachusetts referees and Pa Stribling refusing to accept either one of those named.

And on top of that Dempsey is given another one of those quarter-million-dollar offers for a match after the Sharkey-Stribling bout is out of the way.

There would, of course, be no use in waiting until after the Florida bout to extend the offer. The ballyhoo would have suffered.

LINES UP UMPS

WHILE the Coast League moguls have been busy getting their hired hands tied to contracts and shooing them into training camp President Harry Williams has wasted no time in signing up a good set of umpires.

Last week he announced two already on the list—Chet Chadbourne, the old Portland outfielder, and Herb Fanning.

Now he's added Forest L. Cady, a gentleman of bulk who has been working in the Western League the past three years.

Cady was a Red Sox catcher in the days of Duffy Lewis, Harry Hooper and Babe Ruth as a pitcher—in the days when the Boston Reds were at the top.

MIDWICK POLO ON TAP TODAY

Hitchcock, Harriman and Guest, in addition to Sanford, an alternate on the International squad. Likewise it includes a probable member of the next American Big Four in our own Eric Pedley.

HAS OWN PONIES

When Laddie Sanford rides Sunday he will be using his own string of ponies which are considered the greatest in polo. Sanford is known as the best mounted man in the game. Last Sunday he rode borrowed mounts because his own ponies were in the north but this coming Sunday he will have his own string here.

The game has all the earmarks of being the greatest ever staged in the West. It has another international touch to it due to the presence of Capt. Forrester and Alden Roark, two famous British stars who will ride with Hitchcock.

Today's mallet contest should produce some fine polo. On the Greentree team is Jock Whitney, son of Payne Whitney and nephew of Harry Payne Whitney, the latter a famous American ace in days gone by. Whitney flew across country with the same pilot that accompanied Amelia Earhart on her memorable crossing of the Atlantic. The other members of team are Capts. Forrester and Walford of the Seventeen Lancers and Alden Roark, brother of Pat Roark, famous Irish star.

MILLER AT BACK

Midwick will be represented by Elmer Boeseke, J. M. Spalding, Eric Pedley and Ted Miller. Miller is playing in a new position when he starts at back. He appears to be at home at it, however, according to accounts of his game in the north.

The line-ups:

Greentree.		Midwick.
Whitney	No. 1	Spalding
Walford	No. 2	Boeseke
Forrester	No. 3	Pedley
Roark	Back	Miller

HYMIE MILLER MEETS KENNEDY TOMORROW

Two former amateur flyweight champions will mingle tomorrow night at Pasadena Arena. They are Don Kennedy of Pasadena and Hymie Miller, former American amateur champion. Each is a product of the L.A.A.C.

Five slashing four-round fights will constitute the rest of the card tomorrow night:

TIGERS TRIM WHITTIER

Oxy Five Still Undefeated in Conference Cage Race; Poets Lose Close Tilt

Coach Eddie Kienholz's Occidental College basketball quintet kept on their way toward the Southern Conference cage title, by trimming the Whittier Poets 30-24 in an extra period game played at Alumni Gym, Eagle Rock, last night. The Tigers are undefeated in conference circles to date.

Whittier led all the way, until the last minute of play, when Ed Beebe and Capt. Ketchersid of Oxy sunk a couple of baskets to tie the score 24-24. In the extra period the Oxy five made 6 points while Whittier was held scoreless. Beebe made four of the six while Dick Glover accounted for the other two.

The line-ups:

Occidental (30)—Glover (11,) Dipmter, Ketchersid (4,) McAllister (2,) forwards; K. Walker, Getts (4,) centers; Baird (1,) Murray (2,) Beebe (6,) guards. Whittier (24)—D. Walker (6,) Jertberg (6,) forwards; Ritz, center; Cummings, Aldridge (1,) guards.

SCORE BY PERIODS

Occidental	8	16	6—30
Whittier	14	10	0—24

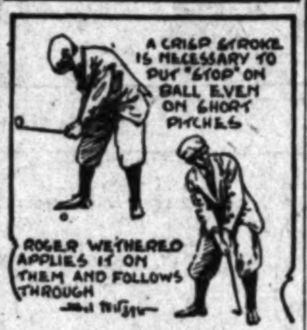
Wethered Has Short, Snappy Pitch Shot



A CRISP STROKE IS NECESSARY TO PUT "STOP" ON BALL EVEN ON SHORT PITCHES
ROGER WETHERED APPLIES IT ON THEM AND FOLLOWS THROUGH Sol Metzger

BY SOL METZGER

In the first of these short chats on pitching and backspin, the fact was brought out that one has to hit through a shot to play it well. It was illustrated by the game of Mrs. Harry Pressler, women's western champion. Let us now hie ourselves across the United States and the Atlantic Ocean to see if theories and practices regarding fundamentals of golf vary. Thus comes Roger Wethered into the picture, one of the greatest amateur players of Great Britain. Roger has an odd short pitch. But it has points to back it up that are quite common. And it gets results.

He's a bloomin' whale at lifting 'em over a hazard dead to the fluttering flag of a windswept green. And he does follow through, as the sketch of him at the finish of such a pitch shows.

But the point I want to make today is that he hits the bloody ball crisply to negotiate this shot. It's no long dragging through of the clubhead. Just a short backswing and a slow start, but at contact there is a zip to the stroke. You can't make a ball take spin if this zip is lacking, any more than you can make a billiard ball take english without doing some fast work with the cue. Remember that on your short shots. Practice them first this year until you get the idea. Then the long ones will take care of themselves. Tomorrow—a few remarks to clear the business of hitting down.

To cure a habit of slicing you must first learn the cause. Sol Metzger's leaflet on "Slicing" takes up in detail the causes. Send stamped, addressed envelope to Sol Metzger, care of The Times, and request this leaflet.

Track Meets

urday's Relay Carnival at the Coliseum. Virtually every institution of learning in Southern California will be represented, Arnold Eddy, secretary of the A.A.U., reports that more than 300 athletes will compete. Universities, colleges, athletic clubs, junior colleges and other organizations have entered men.

The outstanding feature of the meet will be the weight events with Bud Houser, John Kuck and Herman Brix in the limelight. Houser, world's champion in the discus and Olympic Games winner in 1924 and 1928, will be a lead-pipe cinch to win the platter-spinning event. Kuck and Brix should have quite a duel of it in the shot. One of them is likely to hurl the iron ball in the neighborhood of fifty feet despite the fact that the track season is just dawning.

There will be plenty of activity in the javelin, where Jimmy De Mers, Chuck Harlow, Chuck Eaton and Vianne Hoover are slated to battle it out. De Mers threw 213ft. 9in. last year, while both Harlow and Eaton are consistent at better than 200ft. There is a possibility that Kuck may compete in this event also. He did 230ft. in practice on one occasion.

George Philbrook, Whittier College coach, would like to enter his star sprinter, Nathaniel George, in both the novice and open hundred. George is strong enough and fast enough to run two fast centuries in one afternoon, but unfortunately the races are scheduled to fall within five minutes of each other, which makes it impossible for the powerful colored boy to enter both events. Philbrook will probably use him in the open hundred and it will be no surprise if George wins.

Charley Borah may appear in the hundred, but at this writing plans to confine himself to the relays. However, if it's a nice warm day and Charley feels the urge when he gets on the scene of action he'll probably line up with the rest of them.

TO ENTER PYLE DERBY

MONROVIA, Feb. 19.—Seeking the $25,000 first prize, Paul Allen, 329 West Orange avenue, this city's lone entry in Cash-and-Carry Pyle's bunion derby last year, plans to again enter the transcontinental jog which starts from New York City March 31.

Sheridan-Gill Winner Wants Colima Bout

The winner of the Homer Sheridan-Eddie Gill fight at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium Friday night is going to kick if Bert Colima signs to fight Mickey Walker before he defends his Coast title. Sheridan and Gill have both been led to believe that the winner is to get Colima next, and that has added interest to their fight.

While the main event is the shot all are interested in the semi-wind-up has caught the eye of the fight fans. Jackie Mandell and Red Humphries are just kids, but have plenty of class and a slashing fight is expected. Mandell is favored to win.

Herman Brunden and Chief Robbins, a couple of slugging middleweights, have been put in the special event.

lowed and then light exercises and a little quick tossing followed for all. Vitt then called the regulars in for batting practice while the rookies warmed up in the outfield, bunting and tossing them over easy.

Bill Rumler, who played in the outfield for the Salt Lake club, and who was reinstated this season, appears to have lost none of his old batting eye. The big fellow landed on two pitches with power enough to bounce them off the top rail of the bleachers in left field. They were the longest drives of the day.

Frank Shellenback, Dick McCabe and Gene Valla of the regular pitchers, took turns serving them up, and then Vitt called on Merle Anderson, bespectacled newcomer, and several others. Even Trainer Les Cook had a chance to put some over.

John Gauldoni and John Houdina did most of the catching.

The regulars sent to the showers, Vitt made up an infield combination of Earl Wagner, from the Sacramento Valley League at first base, Maloney at second, Tony Bernardo, also from Boise, at third and Peter Fanizzi, from the California State League, at short. All came in for favorable comment, Maloney and Fanizzi getting the most attention.

Arrival of several more players swelled the list in camp today to forty-two players. But eight more are expected, the five infielders and Pitchers Johnny Couch, Hensel Hulvey and Walter Kinney.

DUTCH MASTERS
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
fine as any imported cigar
SMOKE TALKS by the DUTCH MASTERS
Cigar preferences are literally "a matter of taste." There may be better cigars than Dutch Masters, but there's a big army of smokers who won't believe it.
The real solid comforts of life don't cost so much. Most of us can afford three square meals and a pocketful of Dutch Masters. Most of the "luxuries" are just frills anyway.
Only in a good cigar do you get the natural taste of good tobacco. In Dutch Masters you get the flavor and bouquet of a blend of choice tobaccos.
Our private "blindfold test." Every time we run across one of these men who "can't smoke anything but an imported cigar," we slip the band off a Dutch Masters and ask him to try our favorite "imported" brand. We've fooled so many wise ones that it is getting monotonous.

MISSIONARY WILL BOOST CALIFORNIA

Catholic Clergyman to Report State's Wonders in Foreign Lands

Fresh from tribulations which meet Christian missionaries in the wildest parts of Central Asia, and undiscouraged even after "trying to get the word of God to Philadelphia bootleggers," bluff old Father P. F. Flanigan, a Vincentian, resumed his ancient battle against sin yesterday in Los Angeles at St. Vincent's Church.

FATHER P.F. FLANIGAN

Father Flanigan, famous throughout the Catholic world for the variety of his activities, is one of the 150 prelates who came to Southern California for the Lenten mission campaign which began Sunday and will end March 31.

"I like your sun, I like your beautiful new churches and I like your people out here," he said on arrival. "The Franciscan friars who came here certainly knew their geography."

To the European and South American, Father Flanigan said, Southern California is par excellence the land of romance.

"'Just think,' they have said to me, in Timbuctoo as well as in London, 'nearly every little town there has a saint's name. And there is grass all the year 'round, and is it true there are no poor people?'

"I'm going back next year and tell them it's all true," Father Flanigan said. During his two weeks' stay in Los Angeles the missionary will reside at St. Vincent's and will lecture there mornings and evenings, expounding Catholic doctrine.

AUTO SHOW COLOR MOTIF HAS VARIETY

Interiors of Tents Being Decorated by Artisans for Dealers' Exhibit

Color is an outstanding feature in decorations being installed in the four great tents that will house the Los Angeles Motor Car Dealers' show at Hill and Washington streets, the first of which was completed yesterday. The nine-day show opens March 2.

Colorful simplicity marks the "false" interiors that are being placed within the tents by the small army of artisans under the supervision of the committee headed by Watt L. Moreland. The first of the big waterproofs has a wall and ceiling of lemon yellow, touched with two contrasting shades of green; the second is to be done in apricot and blue; the third in Chinese red and dark green and the last will have a peach motif.

The effects achieved by these artisans, who have already used 45,000 yards of sateen for the tents, later will be augmented by flowers in every shade.

The members of the association, in utilizing the 150,000 square feet of floor space available, will present not only the latest models in automobiles of all price classes, but will also offer a comprehensive exhibition of the year's greatest aircraft, motor boat and accessory developments. Burt Roberts, executive secretary of the association, is manager of the show.

DESERTION PLEA UPHELD

Desertion was the complaint of Mrs. Lillian Dorothy Keagle registered against her husband, William Lee Keagle, an automobile painter, at the hearing on her petition for a divorce yesterday before Superior Judge Bogue. The couple were married May 20, 1927, at Santa Ana, and lived together twenty-one days, the wife testified. The decree was granted.

ITALY-AMERICA UNIT URGED

Meeting Held at Biltmore to Pave Way for Forming Branch of Friendship Society Here

Promotion of greater friendship and understanding between the American and Italian peoples received new impetus when a group of about thirty-five representative Los Angeles men and women and members of the Italian colony met at the Biltmore yesterday noon to take part in the organization of a Los Angeles branch of the Italy-America Society. The luncheon was given by Mrs. Secondo Guasti, with Henry W. O'Melveny presiding.

Cav. Umberto Olivieri, secretary of the San Francisco branch, gave a brief resume of the history of the society and told of its aims.

FOUNDED BY HUGHES

It was founded, he said, by Charles Evans Hughes, former Secretary of State, in 1918, and first served as a channel through which the American public might become acquainted with the part played by Italy in the World War. Later, he explained, it furnished the path for the interchange of the intellectual and cultural life of the two countries. With the belief that the surest way to foster friendship and mutual understanding is through education, the society maintains fellowships, Olivieri said, providing for exchange visits of students between the countries.

Italy has given the world a legacy of culture, art, beauty and reverence, according to L. E. Behymer, and he expressed the belief that the Pacific Coast is especially indebted to that country for the art and opera, which have found their way here since the early days. He feels, he said, that this society will bring even greater appreciation for and benefits from those arts.

COMMITTEE NAMED

Orra E. Monnette pledged his support to the new venture because, he said, it represents the new idea of internationalism, which is growing in the world today; an idea which is not primarily of trade and politics, but founded on an exchange of the finer things of life.

In order to form definite plans of organization Mr. O'Melveny appointed a committee to consist of John Mott, Richard Schweppe, Mrs. J. J. Van Kaathoven, Miss Grace Stoermer and J. Bariatti, which will report its findings at a meeting at the Biltmore on March 7, when friends of the movement are invited to be Mr. O'Melveny's guests.

Sentence of Six Centuries Faces Forger

Under a verdict returned yesterday in Superior Judge Doran's court Henry Hollins, truck driver, faces a potential prison term of from forty-five to 630 years.

Hollins was convicted on forty-five counts of forgery, the jury requiring only a half-hour's deliberation to reach its decision. The State law provides that on each count the court may impose a sentence of from one to fourteen years' imprisonment.

Hollins was asserted to have defrauded a local glass company out of $3000 by the forgery of weighmaster's slips on truckloads of glass. He will come before Judge Doran tomorrow for sentence.

H. M. HANSHUE GIVEN ANOTHER AIR HONOR

For the second time within a few weeks a Los Angeles man, Harris M. Hanshue, has been honored with an appointment by the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of the United States, it was learned yesterday. Mr Hanshue now has been named to the national show committee and the committee on policy and operations. Recently he was elected to the board of governors. Mr. Hanshue, who is president and general manager of both Western Air Express and Fokker Aircraft Corporation of America, is at present in New York on business.

Ruth Elder Sued for Loan and Car

Ruth Elder, aviatrix, who became internationally known through an attempted trans-Atlantic flight, yesterday was named defendant in a suit for $1125 filed in Superior Court here by E. E. Callaway.

Callaway claims $425 of the amount is due him for a loan extended Miss Elder on February 5, 1928, while the remainder of $700 is due on an automobile delivered to the aviatrix.

Police Commission Expresses Its Sentiment on Measures

A resolution indorsing Senate bill No. 545, introduced in the State Legislature by Senator Merriam, providing for fire departments taking out accident-liability insurance, and Senate bill No. 465, introduced by Senator Rochester, safeguarding pensions of retired or disabled firemen from attachments or execution, was passed by the Police Commission yesterday.

President Schweitzer asserted that the bills are wholesome measures for the safeguarding of the public in accidents from firemen and policemen while the latter are on official duty.

SANITY ISSUE RAISED

Morehead Pleads Not Guilty to Recluse Murder Charge

Trial of Ralph Morehead, service station operator, charged with murder in connection with the death, December [illegible], last, of Olaf Johnson, aged recluse, yesterday was continued by Judge Aggeler to March 25, next, when attorneys for Morehead entered a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.

The insanity issue was raised by Richard H. Cantillon and Patrick J. Cooney, attorneys for Morehead. Morehead is asserted to have beaten Johnson to death in a parking station back of the youth's service station.

AGNOSTIC DIVORCED

Wife Gets Decree from Husband Who Ridiculed Her Religion

Arthur V. G. Sargent was an ungodly man, ridiculing his wife's religious belief and otherwise belittling her for attending church, according to Mrs. Sarah C. Sargent, who appeared before Superior Judge Burnell seeking a divorce.

In her complaint against Sargent the wife asserted that he told her it is only ignorant people who believe in religion and that science has taught people of intelligence different beliefs.

A decree was granted.

BAKERS SLICE BREAD PRICES

Four to Six-Cent Slashes Per Loaf Reported

Further Reduction Looms from Independents

Lowering of Flour Cost Brings Tumble

While the motorist is having a daily smile over the falling price of gasoline the housewives of Los Angeles are to have an opportunity for a few laughs over a so-called "bread war" that threatens to reduce the price of bread from 6 cents to 4 cents on each loaf. Probability that the "war" will last until September was expressed by bakers and chain-store dealers yesterday.

The principal reason assigned for the slice in the price of bread is that most of the large bakers in California have sufficient flour under contract to last until next fall.

MAY GO LOWER

Throughout the city a number of chain stores have reduced the cost of the twenty-four-ounce loaf to 10 cents. Formerly this size loaf has been selling at 14 cents. Indications that this price will be lowered by independent bakers was evidenced when it was announced that premiums and prizes will be discontinued in favor of a lower price.

The loaf that had been selling for 10 cents has been reduced to 7½ cents and the 6-cent loaf can now be had for a nickel. Joe Daly, president of the Daley Incorporated chain stores, is one of the leaders in the price reduction. Mr. Daley said he had decided to reduce the cost of bread in an effort to eliminate questionable trade tactics which resulted in the public paying high bread costs through premium and prize inducements.

"The 'bread war' has been caused in the first place by the cheaper price of flour," Mr. Daley said.

CUT OUT PREMIUMS

"Nearly all the large bread manufacturers and the chain-store operators bought flour earlier in the season at greatly reduced prices. This combined with the practice of many bakers who have been putting coupons in their bread and giving away prizes and other things to stimulate trade, has brought about a condition where we have decided to give the public a straight cash discount instead of prizes.

"How long this reduction will last is not known but I expect it to last until September, anyway."

Peacemaker in Dog Fight Forfeits Life

A dog fight at 207 North Kern avenue, Belvedere, yesterday proved fatal to Sylvester Gonzales, 58 years of age, of 121 North Arizona avenue, deputy sheriffs reported.

According to Henry L. Fields, an employee of the county health department, Gonzales stepped from the sidewalk and attempted to stop a dog fight. In spite of his efforts the dogs continued to fight and Gonzales staggered to the steps of a grocery store and collapsed.

Deputy Sheriffs Allen and Gray, who investigated the death, reported that Gonzales apparently was a victim of heart disease.

Alma Rubens Passes Crisis

Alma Rubens, motion-picture actress, is believed to have passed the crisis of her illness and is fast regaining her strength following a complete nervous collapse due to drug addiction, according to announcement made at her home in Hollywood yesterday.

Her aunt, Mrs. A. Driscoll, declared yesterday that physicians have told her Miss Rubens is out of danger, and that unless unforeseen complications arise her speedy recovery is certain. At present she is in a sanatorium.

Federal and State authorities reported yesterday they are still carrying on their investigation of charges that a Beverly Hills doctor provided Miss Rubens with more than $1200 worth of morphine prescriptions.

Pastor Improves After Operation

Dr. Gustav A. Briegleb, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, was at the Hollywood Hospital last night and in an improved condition as the result of an operation for chronic appendicitis performed yesterday afternoon by Dr. Donald McGibbon.

The pastor was stricken Sunday morning just before church services and was not able to deliver his sermon. His condition at that time was said to be such that an operation would not be performed until today or tomorrow, but his condition changed to such an extent yesterday that it was considered advisable to operate without delay.

Wife Sues After Advice of Rival

When Mrs. Adelina Mussatti found lipstick stains on her husband's handkerchief and affectionate notes in his pocket she went a-sleuthing, she asserts in her divorce suit against Peter Mussatti on file yesterday.

Then when she found the woman who was competing for her husband's affections she was tendered some advice.

Mrs. Mussatti said this advice was so humiliating she believed she deserved a divorce.

Film on Teeth... beware of it

It is the chief source of decay and pyorrhea.
The way dentists urge to combat it.

SLIP your tongue across your teeth. Feel that viscous, slippery coating. That is film. You must remove it daily.

According to high dental authority, film is the chief source ot decay and an important factor in pyorrhea. It is the cause, too, of dull teeth and those believed to be naturally discolored. To best remove it in the light of modern science a special dentifrice called Pepsodent is urged.

Film—How it destroys

Film is the great enemy of teeth and gums—a chief cause, according to world's dental authorities, of most tooth and gum disorders. Film absorbs the stains from food and smoking and gives that cloudy look. It clings to teeth, gets into crevices and stays. Film hardens into tartar. Germs by the millions breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

To remove film use the special film-removing dentifrice called Pepsodent. It acts to curdle film and easily remove it in gentle safety to enamel.

Don't expect the same results from old-time dentifrices. See for once and all how white teeth really are. Get Pepsodent at any drug counter, or write for free 10-day supply to The Pepsodent Co., 1104 South Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

One of the lovely weddings of the season was that of last evening when Miss Evelyn Mitchell Kingston, attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Charles Kingston, became the bride of Donald Layton Greenwood, the ceremony taking place at the family home, 409 South Lucerne Boulevard, at 8:30 o'clock, with Rev. Mr. McNair officiating. The house was exquisite in its decorations of spring flowers, with almond blossoms predominating, a pink and white color scheme being carried out effectively, while hundreds of lighted tapers gleamed on the improvised altar before which the ceremony was performed. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was charming in a gown of white satin fashioned on simple lines, while the veil of lace was held in place by sprays of orange blossoms, and she carried an arm shower of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marian Gaffney assisted as maid of honor, while the other attendants included Miss Frances Keach and Mrs. Robert H. Edwards, Jr., all being garbed alike in draped gowns of salmon pink chiffon with matching slippers and hose. They carried arm bouquets of cyclamen and sprays of maidenhair ferns.

James Flanagan served Mr. Greenwood as best man.

Mrs. Kingston received her guests in a becoming gown of pink chiffon. Seventy guests were bidden.

A reception and wedding supper followed the ceremony, the bride's table being adorned with pink and white blossoms and foliage and lighted by tall pink candles.

After a honeymoon, the destination of which they are keeping a secret, Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood will return to make their home here, and after March 1 will be at 423 North Mansfield avenue.

Mrs. Greenwood, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Kingston, was graduated from Marlborough several years ago and has traveled extensively since being graduated. She has been to Europe four times and also took a cruise around the world with her parents. Mr. Greenwood is a Stanford man and affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown made with tight bodice and full skirt with wide lace flounce, and a long veil of point lace. She carried a shower of butterfly roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Julia Inman, maid of honor, wore yellow taffeta, made bouffant, with green facings, and carried an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas, while Miss Harriet Fuller, bridesmaid, was gowned in green satin-backed crepe, bouffant model, with wide gold lace flounce, and carried an arm bouquet of orchid sweet peas. Rollin Maxwell served as best man and music was furnished by Madge Patton Sullivan, organist, and Berwyn Riske, soloist.

A reception at the Mary Louise followed the ceremony, fifty guests being bidden.

SHE AGAIN FALLS BACK ON RIGHTS

Woman Who Made Suicide Threat and Changed Mind, Tells Judge Act Repeated

For the second time Mrs. Eunice McMillen Martin, charged with "outraging public decency" by lecturing and writing letters about the Hickman case, threatened suicide and changed her mind just before her case was due to be tried, it was discovered yesterday when Municipal Judge Sheldon, before whom she was to be tried, turned over to the police two letters he received from the woman. Her trial, scheduled for the 18th inst., has been postponed until March 11.

Mrs. Martin threatened suicide November 13, last, in a letter written to Edwin E. Cox, member of the grand jury, because the grand jury had failed to take action on a kidnaping story which she related to them November 5. She later changed her mind because, she declared she didn't want the police to think she was afraid to stand trial on the charge of outraging public decency.

In her second letter to Judge Sheldon the woman declares that she actually attempted to carry out her threat. "For fourteen hours I inhaled gas after taking chloroform—but it did not kill me," she wrote. "At noon Monday I came to—sick and dazed—but alive." She declared that she will not again threaten to take her life, and asks Judge Sheldon to "please destroy the letter and forget it."

Judge Sheldon turned the letters over to Detective Lieutenant Hynes, who investigated the original charges against the woman. Mrs. Martin, who says she is a teacher of the new school of applied psychology, resides at 1160 West Twenty-seventh street, although she gave a downtown apartment-house as the location of her proposed suicide attempt.

REINHARDT STILL HERE

German Stage Impresario Cancels Rail Ticket on Eve of Leave

A last-minute change of plans yesterday caused Max Reinhardt, German stage impresario, to cancel his railroad reservations last night. Just how long he will remain in Hollywood is not definitely known.

Reinhardt was brought here recently by Joseph M. Schenck, president of United Artists, to film "The Miracle Girl," with Lillian Gish in the title role, but Schenck decided the cost was too great for a silent picture and that the story was not suited for "talkies." Schenck is in New York and Reinhardt was to have gone to meet him.

It is known that Reinhardt and Schenck have been in constant communication, but whether Schenck has reconsidered and is planning to film the story or whether Reinhardt has consented to remain in Hollywood to do another picture is not announced.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

By Dr. Frank McCoy

Author of "The Fast Way to Health"

… AND DIGESTION

… Malcolm Morrison, … the ripe age of 105 … the reasons for … many people, said … one rule of health … centenarians and … worry. [illegible]

It is just as important to maintain the same friendly spirit at home as that which you exhibit to your friends. One should avoid falling into a rut of criticism and inharmonious thought while at home. Oftentimes the family is forced by circumstances to endure unpleasant actions which, if indulged in before others, might lead to a loss of valuable friendship.

It is a mighty fine habit to look forward to self-improvement in every direction day by day. Before you begin a meal you should cast aside every distressing thought, whether it be business worry, jealousy or fear of indigestion. Every meal should be a festive occasion. Cultivate the art of conversing about interesting, perhaps humorous subjects and situations. A dash of humor is of far more value than a bottle of dyspeptic tablets.

QUESTIONS AN ANSWERS

PUFFS UNDER EYES

Question: Mrs. M. C. R. writes: "I am a woman of 57 years of age and have puffs under my eyes. Can you tell me what makes it and what I can do to cure it?"

Answer: Puffiness under the eyes is a sympton of some disease within the body such as heart trouble, kidney trouble, anemia, etc. Only a careful examination could establish the diagnosis.

COOKED OILS

Q.: J. S. writes: "I notice that when I eat oils that have been cooked, my stomach hurts, and when I eat raw oils like olive oil and butter this does not occur. Is this because uncooked fats are better than the others?"

A.: When fatty foods are overheated fatty acids are sometimes released. These will sometimes irritate the stomach and intestines and are probably what you noticed when eating the fried foods.

GAS PRESSURE

Q.: Mrs. A. C. writes: "I have an almost constant paint in my right side, where the gall bladder is. If I have a large amount of flatulence this pain seems to disappear. Do you suppose that the gas could press open the gall duct and relieve the tension there?"

A.: The gall duct is so small and muscular that the amount of flatulence necessary to distend it would probably result in bursting the bowel, so I do not believe this could cause the phenomenon you tell about. It is possible to have some inflammation or adhesions causing the symptoms, and you should have a thorough X-ray examination to determine exactly. The opening from the gall bladder is closed unless the bile is being ejected.

GUIDING YOUR CHILD

WAKEFULNESS

By Mrs. Agnes Lyne

We have all observed how little children hypnotize themselves to sleep. One youngster will go to sleep only if he holds in his arms a certain well beloved woolly lamb; another will drop off only if he is permitted to snuggle down with a particular coverlet. The moment he has his special accompaniment to slumber, he feels drowsy and in another instant is fast asleep. The suggestion of sleep which certain objects carry for the child can be used effectively in curing habitual wakefulness. The child who suffers from habitual wakefulness can be made, in a sense, to put himself to sleep.

He can be told of a certain bright and beautiful blanket with which all children go to sleep quickly and do not wake till morning. The blanket may be frequently mentioned, so that by the time it is given to him he has already been looking forward to it for several days and has built up great expectations of its wonderful properties.

This little device will only work if the grown-ups who talk about it seem to have perfect faith in its powers and if all other discussions of the child's wakefulness stress his daily improvement in sleeping, and assume that in a short time he will sleep as well as anybody else.

The continued wakefulness of the little child who lives an otherwise healthy life is usually caused by the worry which he knows it occasions. He knows that he is not expected to sleep and he becomes as hopeless as his mother about himself as a sleeper. The cure lies in building up an attitude of hopefulness and the assurance of success in which the bright sleeping blanket plays a useful part.

SIERRA TOURISTS SOUGHT

Owens Valley People Form Association to Boost for More Summer Visitors

In view of the great benefits to be derived through exploitation of the Sierras as a playground, communities of Owens Valley are forming a committee to be known as the High Sierra Association, according to information received by A. G. Arnoll, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Organization plans are being completed by Leslie Cranbourne, formerly secretary-manager of the Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce, and Hal M. Ayres of Warner Brothers.

SEASON SHORT

The association will bind hotel and resort owners of the valley into one group, as well as residents along the eastern slope of the Sierra range. The object of the group will be to bring a greater number of people into the Owens Valley region each year.

At the present time the tourist trade in that district is of approximately three months' duration, owing to the heavy winter snows and other adverse winter, spring and autumn conditions.

Because of the short season, officials of the new association state, an intensive campaign will be carried on to bring more tourists into the district during the three summer months.

MASS MEETING

At a recent mass meeting held in Owens Valley, at which representatives of the Automobile Club of Southern California, California Transit Company, the Los Angeles Water Board, and a number of other large interests were present, it was decided to work on an amalgamation of interests in the valley and all of Southern California.

The general plan of the organization is first to create united cooperation throughout the communities most interested, and by means of a campaign advertise the beauties of the Sierra region.

New St. Mary's School Will Be Built in Hills

St. Mary's College, girls' school on West Slauson avenue, yesterday announced plans for a $1,000,000 academy to be built on a thirty-three and a half acre-site in the Santa Monica Mountains. The new campus will be two miles north of Beverly Boulevard and immediately west of Sepulveda Canyon.

The first buildings will be chapel, dormitories and classroom structures. I. E. Loveless, architect, is preparing plans and specifications.

Start of construction must await completion of the plans and clearing up of other incidentals, according to officials of the institution, but it is hoped to have the work under way by summer.

The parish of Freckleton claims the poultry-farming record of England by having 41,000 hens.

May Company's New Addition to be Ten Stories

Detailed plans for the addition to the May Company, as announced yesterday by Tom May, call for a ten-story structure to be built next door to the present store and on the site of Tally's Theater.

The building will be Class A, steel frame, terra cotta exterior, and will conform closely to the building now in use. The addition will have a frontage of sixty feet on Broadway with a depth of 180 feet. Aleck Curlett is the architect.

Construction on the $750,000 structure is due to begin about June 1 with the opening tentatively slated for October 15.

In obtaining a site for the addition, the May Company took over a thirty-three-year lease on the property from R. H. Raphael & Sons, Seventh-street realty brokers. Raphael obtained the lease a year ago last June from T. L. Tally, owner of the property and early Broadway theater operator.

The Tally Theater, to be torn down to make way for the May Company building, has an interesting early history. It was built in 1910 and had the distinction, according to its owner, of housing the first large organ and first elevated orchestra pit of any theater in Los Angeles.

Brilliant German scientist advises yeast as food for health

DR. CARL NEUBERG

PROFESSOR DR. CARL NEUBERG is director of the Institute of Experimental Therapy and Bio-Chemistry at Berlin-Dahlem; Lecturer at the University of Berlin; famous research scientist; author of many scientific treatises.

"Research work on yeast in all the civilized countries for the last ten years has led to results remarkable in many respects. The indispensable factors to all life, the enzymes, are present in yeast . . . Its scientific recognition justifies the long experience of physicians with it and its effectiveness as a popular home remedy."

Prof. C. Neuberg

FOR decades the great University of Berlin has been recognized as one of the world centers of medical and scientific learning.

Now one of its eminent lecturers, Dr. Carl Neuberg, who is distinguished also as the head of a famous institute for medical research, adds clear-cut scientific approval to the long-established value of yeast for health.

This latest European tribute to the value of yeast has its counter-part in America where half the doctors reporting in a recent survey covering all of the United States said they prescribed fresh yeast for constipation and kindred ills.

Fleischmann's Yeast is fresh. Unlike dried or killed yeast it contains millions of living, active yeast plants. As these live yeast plants pass through your system daily they combat harmful poisons, purifying the whole body.

Bad skin, bad breath, colds, sore throats, headaches, "nerves"—these are a few of the ills which vanish when constipation goes.

Eat three cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast every day, one cake before or between meals, plain or in water, cold or hot (not scalding). Try it with a sprinkle of salt, or dissolved in milk or fruit juices. Many obtain its daily health benefits before or between meals on crackers or toast.

To get full benefit from yeast you must eat it regularly and over a sufficient period of time. At all grocers and many leading cafeterias, soda fountains and lunch counters. Buy two or three days' supply and keep in any cool, dry place. Begin today and know what real health can be!

FROM THROAT TO COLON is one continuous tube. 90% of your ills start here, doctors say. But here is where yeast works, keeping this entire tract clean, active and healthy—bringing the precious gift of radiant health and happiness!

FUND TOPHEAVY IN WATER PLAN

Spending of $300,000,000 by Board Means Trouble

Various Parts of California Would Be Squabbling

Financial Scrutiny Shows Scheme's Weak Points

BY CHARLES C. COHAN

The financial reasons why the proposed water-project program involving a State bond issue of some $300,000,000 should not be carried into effect are overwhelming. When tax and other financial technicians of high ability and unimpressed by the plan come to this part of the scheme they tear it to bits.

The placing of any such sum for disbursement in the hands of any single administrative board would be delegating authority and responsibility entirely too enormous.

Any claim that might be offered to the effect that the authorization of such a bond issue does not necessarily mean the coincidental instituting of all the projects contemplated in the blanket program merely is begging the question. Even if there is a consecutive instituting of the projects, which is not likely, since it is reasonable to suppose that more than one of them would be going along at the same time if the plan carries, the fact remains that once the bond issue is put over the bond sale proceeds come into the control of an administrative body for disbursement. And it's a whale of a lot of money.

There is nothing in such statement to impugn in the least the sincerity or honesty of the said body. But it's a terrific amount of responsibility to impose on its members.

AS, FOR EXAMPLE

Here is an instance of it:

If, under properly granted leeway the board were to vary the allocation to any certain project concerned, it necessarily would be expected to meet any similar requirement for another of the projects. Whether anything of the sort would stir up ructions cannot be set forth as certain. But in such a situation the makings of a beautiful scrap are in the cards. And if there is anything this State does not want it is a sectional fight raging around an extensive project over which the State has assumed construction jurisdiction.

It is just as untenable for the State to take over such authority as is suggested by the $300,000,00-plus water-project program as it would be for the State to take over the financing and supervisory control of all the special improvement districts in this and every other city in California.

Propaganda in behalf of the blanket bond issue holds forth the succulent bait that the power developed from the proposed Kennett dam eventually will pay not alone for the entire building of the dam but for the entire construction of all the projects. And that isn't all. When these kinds of promises get started there is no telling what Alpine heights they will scale.

PLENTY OF PROMISE

The propaganda promise goes on with the assertion to the effect that it is estimated the power thus developed will amortize the dam's cost in forty years. And that isn't all—it continues the estimation assertion to the effect that after this cost is settled up there still will be revenue coming in for the State from this source for all time to come. This promise apparently incites to wider optimism as to the money-making ability of all the projects. We are told that there are sound reasons why the program should be a State-wide enterprise—for example, because, among other reasons, the whole cost eventually will be returned to the State from the income had from the projects.

Of course the proponents of the program may have something up the sleeve as to the positiveness of all the said power being so readily absorbed at large aggregate financial income, and the projects in toto paying such favorable returns. However, some exceedingly eminent authorities have held it to be a ticklish proposition to figure definitely on the paying absorption of generated power.

Anyhow, it is axiomatic that those who derive the most benefit from a project should bear the burden of it. And by the same token, if the State stands to make all this money asserted by program propaganda, then how much more befitting and helpful and opportune that the localities in which these projects are deemed necessary should be given the chance to make the investment and capitalize on it.

NOT EQUITABLE

An effort has been made to sound out sentiment hereabouts as to what the attitude would be if the Boulder Dam aqueduct proposition were deleted and the rest of the program pertaining to the projects in the north were retained.

Here is where the let's-be-patriotic and let's-help-but-the-State and other specious arguments are invoked. It can't stand up, however, in the face of the financial economics involved.

At conservative estimate Southern California pays [illegible] per cent of the State taxes. Figuring the proposed program at $300,000,000 in round figures would mean, on a serial bond basis of forty years, a total interest of $276,750,000, or $576,750,000 as the total cost of the projects. Eliminating the $150,000,000 allocated in the program to the Boulder Dam aqueduct, and the Southland still would be left holding the sack for considerably more than half of the $288,375,000 for the northern projects.

Taking into consideration Southern California's obligations to itself in the further development of its domestic water supply and its other taxation demands, the set-up doesn't look so good to an observer on the side lines.

Another point well worth bearing in mind is that the moment such an enormous bond issue is saddled on the State, it becomes an obligation to be met dollar for dollar plus interest, regardless of what ever contingencies may arise to hamper the taxpayer's taxpaying ability.

THE PROJECTS

This is not to say the proposed projects lack merit. On the contrary, they have all the earmarks of being good ideas. It is the proposed manner of originating them that lacks merit and justification.

Left to their immediate districts to float, they might be put over in an admirable way and form integral benefits in promoting the welfare of the entire State.

If for any or all of the reasons previously mentioned or other reasons that could be given, a $300,000,000-plus bond issue failed to attract buyers, the State's credit would receive a solar-plexus punch.

If each of the proposed projects were originated by the region immediately concerned in it, and then by some chance one of them failed to get over in the bond market, or failed for some other reason, the value and success of the other projects would not be jeopardized nor would the State be adversely affected.

Putting the people of California under a $300,000,000 or more bond yoke is not a proposition for red-fire patriotism. It is an extremely serious thing requiring the wide-awake attitude of the people to its every possibility.

SHOOTING ADDS TO MYSTERY

Woman Fires on Intruder Following Series of Strange Phone Calls

A bullet fired by Mrs. W. G. Beymer at a man who attempted, she said, to break into her home at 735 North Mariposa avenue yesterday afternoon, added a new chapter to a mystery which Hollywood detectives have been secretly investigating for the last week.

Beginning the 13th inst., the Beymer family, according to a report on file at Central Police Station, has been annoyed frequently by untraceable telephone calls and a visit from a mysterious woman dressed in black, who attempted to get Mrs. Beymer to believe that her daughter was in danger.

GIVES WIFE GUN

Fearful for his wife's safety, Mr. Beymer provided her with a revolver, according to detectives. Yesterday she used it. She said she shot at an intruder just after he had cut away the window screen in the living-room and was climbing in. When police arrived he had vanished.

According to the report of Mr. Beymer, on the 13th inst. a woman, in a deep voice, warned him that he should not allow his daughter to go out with a certain young man.

On the following morning she called again and repeated her warning. The same day the unknown woman, giving the name of "Mrs. Ford," telephoned the school authorities at the Fairfax High School, where Miss Beymer is attending, and asked them to have Miss Beymer call a specified number, as "her mother had been injured in an automobile accident."

WOMAN PAYS VISIT

Mrs. Beymer received a visit from the woman. She said she was a private detective, had learned that Miss Beymer had been annoyed at school and offered her services to escort the girl to and from school.

Mrs. Beymer telephoned to Hollywood police, but the woman vanished.

Police are inclined to believe that the woman making the calls is a psychopathic case.

OUTDOOR SOUND FILMS AIDED

New Portable Machine Ready for Use

Telling Her Just How It Works

John Arnold, cameraman, explains the voice-mixing panel of the portable recording machine to Renee Adoree.

Perfect recording of sound film in synchronized pictures on locations any distance from the studio has been made possible with the arrival of the first complete portable recording laboratory in the motion-picture industry.

The machine, built in New York with Electrical Research Products equipment, consists of a 6800-pound truck, equipped with sound-proof body, which houses a generator set, storage batteries, a film recording machine operated on the Neon-light principle as in the studio recording building, and electrical distributors, making possible synchronization of cameras on location.

The truck may be moved to any location, microphones and cameras connected to the proper terminals, and then, by a system of hydraulic jacks, the entire affair is lifted off its wheels, making it solid as a building.

Douglas Shearer, recording engineer, says the machine makes sound pictures on outdoor locations practical for the first time.

AIR SCHOOL ENTRIES TO END TODAY

Midnight Deadline for Enrollment in Course "The Times" Offers

Boys wishing to become members in the second class of The Times National Aviation School for Boys must put their enrollment blank in the mail today. Midnight tonight is the deadline for enrollment in the new class and only those applications postmarked before that time will be considered.

The class will be formed Saturday morning with formal enrollment exercises at the National Automotive and Electric School, Santa Barbara avenue and South Figueroa street. Applications received to date indicate that the new membership will far exceed that of the first school, but J. A. Rosenkranz, president of the school, and his twenty-six instructors are prepared to accommodate all.

The purpose of the school is to impart to the youth of the city a grasp of the fundamentals of aviation, supplementing the printed courses of instruction soon to appear in the Junior Times each Sunday.

That educators and aviation officials throughout the country have realized the worth of the first school, which graduated a class of 2000 January 26, last, is evidenced in the recent launching of similar schools in New York, Chicago, Boston, Cleveland and St. Louis.

Pair Accused of Extortion

Arrested yesterday on accusations that they extorted money after displaying badges, Cecil E. McFarland of 958 South Magnolia avenue and Bert Leivee of 2850 Leeward avenue were booked on charges of suspicion of extortion and of impersonating officers. Detective Lieutenants Reavis and Jasper of the Wilshire division made the arrests on complaint of Mrs. Jennie McCabe of 1028 South Harvard Boulevard.

She complained that McFarland and Leivee forcibly entered her home after asserting they were officers searching for liquor. They found a bottle of home brew, the detectives reported. She complained that McFarland and Leivee told her it would cost $1000 if she were taken to court, but they would let her go for $50.

Mrs. McCabe offered them $40, which they took, promising to return for the balance. The detectives were waiting when the pair returned yesterday.

ALL FIVE-FINGER PROTESTS FAIL

Council Turns Them Down at Evening Session

It Votes $351,292 to Aid in Hollywood Plan

Great Street Project Now Can Get Under Way

The final step toward undertaking the extensive street opening and widening project in Hollywood known as the five-finger plan was taken by the City Council last night when it voted to deny all the appeals against the assessments levied and confirm them as spread.

This action was taken after the Council had devoted all of its day and part of the evening to listening to the great number of appeals which had been lodged against the assessments. Of 1447 parcels of property assessed for the project, the owners of 428 parcels entered protests.

FUND PROVIDED

Although the protestants were granted no immediate relief, the Council followed its confirmation of the assessments by unanimously adopting a resolution introduced by Councilman Alber providing for the allocation of $351,292 to the cost of the improvement of the streets which will follow their opening and widening.

When the opening and widening proceedings were instituted originally the Council had allocated $148,708 to their cost. At the present stage of the proceedings, the Council was without legal power to make any further allocation toward the opening and widening program but it was possible to make an appropriation for the paving of the streets.

ALBER'S ARGUMENT

Since the same property owners in the main would be assessed for the opening and widening proceedings and the paving proceedings, Councilman Alber pointed out that a large allocation toward the paving would in effect relieve the property owners of a fair share of the burden of the whole project. He argued that it long has been the practice of the Council to allocate 10 per cent to major improvements.

The cost of the total project, including the paving, has been estimated at about $5,000,000. Therefore, Councilman Alber said, the total appropriation by the city should be $500,000. Since $148,708 already had been allocated, his resolution asked only for the appropriation of the remainder of the $500,000.

The total cost of the opening and widening program is $4,162,140.25, of which $4,044,961.05 is for land damage awards and $117,179.20 for engineering expenses and court costs. From this total, the allocation of $148,708 was subtracted, making the total assessment which was confirmed last night $4,013,432.25.

PURPOSE OF PLAN

The primary purpose of the five-finger plan is to provide more ready communication between Hollywood and the San Fernando Valley by opening up the outlets of Cahuenga Pass, but it also is expected to be an important factor in the continued development of the central portion of Hollywood, which it embraces. Specifically it provides for the following work:

Widening Cahuenga Boulevard from Highland avenue to Hollywood Boulevard; widening Ivar avenue from Yucca street to Hollywood Boulevard; cutting a new street from the southern end of Ivar avenue at Hollywood Boulevard to the present north end of Cahuenga avenue at Sunset Boulevard; widening Cahuenga avenue between Sunset Boulevard and Melrose avenue; cutting a new street between the southern end of Wilcox avenue at Sunset Boulevard and the north end of Wilcox avenue at Santa Monica Boulevard, thus making Wilcox avenue a continuous thoroughfare by joining its two present dead ends; widening Cole avenue between Canta Monica Boulevard and Melrose avenue; cutting a new street, to be known as Cole avenue, between the southern and of Cahuenga Boulevard at Sunset Boulevard and the present north end of Cole avenue at Santa Monica Boulevard; cutting a new street from the intersection of the proposed new Cole avenue with De Longpre avenue to the northwest corner of Cahuenga and Homewood avenues; widening Argyle avenue between Franklin avenue and Yucca street; widening and straightening Yucca street between Argyle avenue and Cahuenga Boulevard.

Interment will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Mrs. Baker died Monday at her home, 1531 West Twenty-second Place, two days after the burial of her son. She was 60 years of age and had resided in Los Angeles for ten years.

NONJURY ART EXHIBIT GIVEN INDORSEMENT

Plans for the nonjury art exhibit in the Architects' Building April 1 to 15, next, under sponsorship of the Civic Bureau of Music and Art of Los Angeles, progressed yesterday, when a resolution of indorsement was adopted unanimously by the Municipal Art Commission. Entries are open to all types of fine arts work and handcraft, and it is anticipated that much new talent will be discovered through the medium of the nonjury exhibit, which is heralded by leaders in the cultural life of the community as one of the most constructive and democratic movements to encourage originality and freedom of expression that has been attempted.

JUDGE GIVES DIVORCE TO MRS. PARROT

Wife Charges Politician Stayed Out Late Nights; Property Issue Settled

Mrs. Virginia B. Parrot, wife of Kent K. Parrot, lawyer and politician, obtained a divorce in Superior Court yesterday.

The complaint was filed the 4th inst., but Mrs. Parrot's attorney, Harry Friedman of the firm of Loeb, Walker & Loeb, last Saturday, filed a petition in which he stated that Mrs. Parrot had to go to New York "for the express purpose of entering her minor son in a private school" and therefore he requested an early hearing of the case. Such an affidavit is necessary to obtain a divorce trial in less than the thirty-day period provided by statute.

Parrot was not present in Superior Judge McComb's court, to which the case was transferred, although his attorney filed a waiver of the defendant's rights to delay the case. The defendant is reported to have gone to New York shortly after November 29, 1928, the date Mrs. Parrot gave as her legal separation.

Mrs. Parrot, in response to Attorney Friedman's questions, testified that her husband remained away from home late, night after night, sometimes not getting in until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. On a few occasions, he remained away all night, she said. He also told her he didn't love her, she said, and suggested that she divorce him. There was a property settlement satisfactory to her, the plaintiff added.

Mrs. Georgiana Pierce, Mrs. Parrot's mother, also took the stand and corroborated her daughter's story of Parrot's repeated unexplained absences from home. A second witness was Mary Wach, who identified herself as a domestic in the Parrot household, and who reaffirmed the statements of the defendant's late hours and occasional all-night absences.

Bank Teller Under Arrest as Embezzler

Floyd L. Swanson, a bank teller, 47 years of age, was arrested by Detective Lieutenants White and Magee yesterday and held on a charge of embezzling $3700 from the National City branch of the California Bank at Eighth and Spring streets.

When taken into custody Swanson, according to the detectives, admitted responsibility for the shortage assertedly discovered in his books, declaring he had appropriated sums of a few hundred dollars at a time "to play the races."

SOUTHLAND SCIENCE'S HOME

Southern California Recognized Center of Research, Declares Carnegie Institute Official

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Feb. 19.—Southern California is becoming one of the most important centers of scientific research in the world, according to Walter M. Gilbert of Washington, administrative secretary of the Carnegie Institution, who arrived here today to obtain first-hand knowledge of the work which the foundation is doing in California for the advancement of science and promotion of knowledge.

With his wife and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gilbert, the Carnegie Fund executive plans to spend three weeks here at the Hotel Constance. He explained that the Carnegie Institution endowment fund of $25,000,000 was established by Andrew Carnegie in 1902 and that although some unsolicited gifts had swelled the original fund, these gifts comprise only a small part of the endowment.

WESTERN UNITS

Units of research established by the institution in the West include the Mt. Wilson Observatory, five seismological stations, the desert horticultural station at Tucson, Ariz., and the Santa Barbara and Stanford biological laboratories. Mr. Gilbert stressed the co-operation maintained between his organization and the California Institute of Technology.

The Carnegie Institution, he said, assists the California institute through furnishing funds for special biological research, while the California institute has reciprocated through designing and supplying laboratory equipment for the institution's units.

The administrative secretary declared that there is considerable confusion in the public mind regarding the six philanthropic units established by Mr. Carnegie.

CARNEGIE'S BENEFACTIONS

"These units," he said, "consist of the Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching in New York City; the Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh; the Hero Fund Commission, Pittsburgh; Carnegie Library Endowment Fund and Carnegie Institution, both in Washington, and the Carnegie Corporation of New York City."

Mr. Gilbert performs the administrative work connected with the Carnegie Institution under the direction of Dr. John C. Merriam, president.

USE OF MOTOR CAR TO REPLACE ALIMONY

Mrs. Ethel Virginia Robinson received the use of an automobile instead of $30 a month when her husband, Edwin Lobach Robinson, made his choice in Superior Judge Schauer's alimony court yesterday. It was asserted in Mrs. Robinson's complaint that her husband had wasted $20,000 in the past three years and that he refused to work. Robinson replied that he worked around the ranch and that it isn't his fault the returns from raising chickens have been no greater.

BAIL RAISED IN CASE OF CINEMA MAN

Asserted Assailant of Companion of Actress Must Post $20,000

Ralph D. Burdick, who says he is a motion-picture cameraman, was ordered held to await trial by Superior Court on charges of assault against Mrs. Nettie Veyer, secretary and companion to Lois Wilson, film actress, at the conclusion of his preliminary hearing before Municipal Judge McDill yesterday. Miss Wilson testified that Mrs. Veyer left her at about 10:30 p.m. on the night of the asserted assault to go to her home at 1234 North Sycamore street.

Mrs. Veyer told how she was followed by Burdick when she left a bus at Santa Monica Boulevard and Orange street. She attempted to escape, she testified, but was overtaken and struck down. She declared that Burdick beat her over the head and then dragged her down an alley.

Raymond F. Body, 1118 North Sycamore street, testified that he had heard stifled screams from the alley and called the police. Doctors declared that Mrs. Veyer received more than sixty cuts and bruises.

Judge McDill increased Burdick's bail to $20,000.

Dyer Robbery Appeal Denied

The appeal of William Dyer from conviction in Superior Court on a charge of robbing two employees of the Pan-American Petroleum Company on April 2, 1928, was denied yesterday by the Appellate Court in a decision written by Justice Thompson, with Justices Works and Craig concurring.

Dyer was tried with Vincent Meile, the latter being acquitted. The robbery of the oil company employees occurred while they were taking a day's receipts to the bank and the plunder totaled between $10,000 and $12,000 in cash and $9000 in checks.

HUNTINGTON PARK CLASH SUIT ENDED

Mahood Wins $1500 Award From Former Mayor Over Being Ousted From Office

Damages amounting to $1500 were awarded W. P. Mahood in his suit for $50,000 brought against Milton A. Blanchard, former Mayor of Huntington Park, and others at the close of the hearing yesterday before Superior Judge Engs.

The suit was the aftermath of political clashes in Huntington Park during August of 1927 when a petition was circulated for the recall of Blanchard as Mayor.

Mahood, former deputy City Clerk there, brought his action against Blanchard, C. A. Imus and James M. Taft, police officers, and C. M. Applestill. The case was nonsuited as to Applestill and the judgment of the court at the close was that the plaintiff take nothing as to Taft. This leaves the judgment returned against the former Mayor and Imus.

Mahood asserted that on August 22, 1927, the police officers, acting on orders from the Mayor, forcibly took him from the City Clerk's office and locked him up in jail.

The defendants contended that Mahood was unlawfully taking possession of books and papers.

LOVE NOTES TO ACTRESS TOO WARM

Admirer of Bebe Daniels Seized on Arrival' Here From Minnesota

Burning-love notes to Bebe Daniels, motion-picture star, attracted more attention than intended by the writer, A. A. Hill, 40 years of age, of Minnesota, who arrived at the Lasky studios yesterday to meet in person his idol of the screen, deputy sheriffs reported yesterday.

In fact, Miss Daniels was so impressed with the love missives that she held a conference with J. B. Fox, head of the Sheriff's fugitive detail and arranged for a reception committee to meet Hill at the studio gate.

According to Miss Daniels, Hill began to write ardent love notes some time ago and recently wrote that he had decided to come to Hollywood and show her what real love is. He kept his word and wrote additional letters in various towns where he stopped on his way, inclosing in one of them a photograph of himself. But some of the letters were offensive and Miss Daniels requested protection.

Hill was placed in the psychopathic ward of the General Hospital for observation. He told officers that he lived in Minneapolis.

Keep California Beauty in City, Architect Says

Pleading for the "establishment of more Southern California country in Southern California cities," William Lee Woollett, Los Angeles architect, told members of the City Club yesterday that from an economic standpoint alone the business men of Los Angeles cannot afford to ignore the increasing demand of the people for larger breathing spaces and civic beauty.

"Many of our suburban communities, with their well-planned streets and parkways, and many of the roadside business houses, tastily decorated and surrounded by flowers and trees, are teaching the bankers and other business men of the cities a lesson in this respect," said Mr. Woollett. "People have begun to avoid the city that fails to build for beauty and if Los Angeles neglects her opportunity in this regard she need not be surprised at the loss of business that inevitably will follow."

Battle on Milk Routes Revealed

Indications of a fight between milkmen delivering for rival concerns in the suburbs of Los Angeles were revealed yesterday in reports filed at the Sheriff's office reporting the arrest of one man on a charge of petty theft and naming another as a suspect who followed a competitor's route and poured his milk on the ground after it had been delivered.

The man taken into custody gave his name as Anthony Lopez of 1003 Richmond street. He is accused of stealing a bottle of milk left on a doorstep at 319 Eastman street after it had been delivered by a competitor.

Lopez was arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Burns and Law of Belvedere substation of the Sheriff's office.

Police Trial Board Barred

Police Commissioner Thorpe's suggestion for restoration of the police trial board of handling police-department charges against officers was turned down by the Police Commission yesterday on recommendation of President Schweitzer and Commissioner Gollum, who had been appointed a committee to investigate and report.

The committee held that the present system of having the Chief of Police pass on the personnel bureau's action on all such matters saves much duplication of effort. The committee held that right of appeal to the commission against the bureau's decisions safeguards the rights of the officers involved.

ELIZABETH ARDEN

THAT TIME HAS PASSED WHEN BEAUTY WAS CONSIDERED A SPECIAL GRANT OF THE GODS BESTOWED UPON CERTAIN WOMEN WHOM THEY FAVORED. TODAY, BEAUTY IS A MATTER OF SCIENTIFIC, CONSCIENTIOUS AND SYSTEMATIC CARE. ELIZABETH ARDEN IS ONE OF THE CHIEF EXPONENTS AND DEVELOPERS OF METHODS AND PREPARATIONS BASED UPON THE ESSENTIAL NEEDS OF THE SKIN WHICH LEAD TO FEMININE CHARM AND A WELL-GROOMED APPEARANCE.

ELIZABETH ARDEN TREATMENTS ARE GIVEN EXCLUSIVELY AT J. W. ROBINSON CO. IN LOS ANGELES IN THE SALON ON THE SEVENTH FLOOR. THE TOILETRIES AND PREPARATIONS ARE OBTAINABLE BOTH IN THE SALON AND IN THE TOILET GOODS SECTION ON THE FIRST FLOOR.

"Three Things for Loveliness"

ELIZABETH ARDEN says, "Will you do three fundamental things for loveliness?" They are Cleansing, Nourishing and Toning and Tightening. Elizabeth Arden does not sanction the use of massage. Instead Muscle-Strapping Skin Toning, molding of the facial muscles, stimulates the circulation and restores the firm, round contours of youth. In the Salon at J. W. Robinson Co., where the Arden treatments are given, the hands of the operators perform this manipulation with scientific patting following the line of muscles of face and neck. If the same methods are followed at home thoughtfully and thoroughly, upon arising and retiring, a lovely fresh skin will result.

For Cleansing—Venetian Cleansing Cream, $1, $2, $3 and $6 (for pound pot.)

For Toning—Venetian Arden Skin Tonic, 85c to $15 (gallon size.)

For Nourishing—Orange Skin Food, $1.75 to $8 (for pound pot.)

For Smoothing—Ardena Velva Cream (prices same as for Cleansing Cream.)

For Patting—The Arden Venetian Patter, invaluable for home treatment. $5.

MANY FEATURES ON AIR TONIGHT

Frolic Will Be Offered by Hollywood Station

KHJ Will Be Hooked Up With KFRC for Hour

Light Opera Selections to Be on One Program

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

Features new and old seem to be in store for dialers tonight on the 8 o'clock hour.

KNX will offer its usual Wednesday night frolic at that time, while KFWB will have its weekly hour of light-opera selections.

KMIC will give its old-time song program.

In the way of new broadcasts KHJ, the Don Lee station, is scheduled to hook up with KFRC, San Francisco, for that hour with a program including Leigh Harline, Mickey Gillette and a dance orchestra.

KFI's 8 o'clock program will be from San Francisco in the form of a radio travelogue, while at 8:30 its program calls for Nick Harris with a detective story.

KMTR expects to have a network hour, the first half of which will include an instrumental ensemble with two soloists, Dorothy Lewis, contralto, and Gordon Onstad, tenor.

The second half of the broadcast calls for "Over Land and Sea," a continuity featuring Liborius Hauptman and his salon orchestra.

RADIO CHURCH PROGRAM UNIQUE

The Church of the Air, formerly at KPOX, Long Beach, is now being heard Sundays from 4 to 5 p.m. at KNX, Hollywood. Dr. John Matthews is minister in charge for the unique broadcast.

The service opens with chimes, followed by sacred songs, the invocation, responsive reading, message and prayer.

A feature of the radio service is the fact that the radio pastor gives a verse in the responsive reading and the unseen audience reads the alternate verses.

Then in the sacred songs the soloist sings the verses and asks the listeners to join with the chorus. The radio church has members in many States, according to Dr. Matthews, and during the week several services of fifteen minutes are conducted during morning periods.

UNIVERSAL BUYS SPINE TICKLER

Baclanova Wins Big Feature Role With Richard Arlen; William Beaudine Signing With First National; Nancy Carroll Comes Home From New York

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Mystery stories are receiving a new lease on life in pictures since sound has been added to their chilling, thrilling effect.

And now Universal, according to the announcement of Carl Laemmle, Jr., has bought the Owen Davis pulse-bounder, "Tonight at 12," which has been playing on the stage in New York. It is not entirely a spine-tickler, however, but has a lot of comedy in it.

While nothing is as yet certain as to who will direct, it is reported that Paul Leni will probably be given the assignment.

BACLANOVA CHOSEN FOR FEATURE ROLE

OLGA BACLANOVA

While Richard Arlen and Mary Brian are admittedly the principals in "The Man I Love," which Paramount is to make as an all-talker, there is one vital feature role which was assigned yesterday.

Baclanova, perhaps the most talked-of lady of the screen today for her artistry, was cast for the above-mentioned part in the picture, which William Wellman will direct.

The actress but recently completed a featured role in "The Woman Who Needed Killing," directed by Rowland V. Lee.

William Beaudine Signs

So very well did First National officials like William Beaudine's direction of "Two Weeks Off," co-starring Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall, that the organization decided not to let him go.

The director signed yesterday with First National on a long-term contract to direct a series of talking features.

Beaudine's first assignment is not yet decided upon, and he will spend the next week or two in the reading of stories, according to present plans.

William Powell Comes Home

William Powell

That gallivanting young Paramount picture star, William Powell, returned to Hollywood yesterday following a month's vacation trip covering approximately 5000 miles on land and water.

On the completion of his role in "The Four Feathers," Powell left the Paramount studios in Hollywood, bound for New York, where he was joined by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Barthelmess. From the metropolis they went to Havana, thence to Mexico City and finally reached Vera Cruz. They returned to Los Angeles by boat.

Powell reported his party got into a severe storm after leaving Cuba, in which their boat was banged about a bit, but no serious accident marred the trip.

Star Is Mourned

No picture actor who has passed has been more genuinely loved nor will be more genuinely mourned than William Russell, who passed away on Monday morning.

When all the good and generous deeds of stars are summed up, a big budget of them will be placed on the credit side of Bill Russell's account. Bill's pockets were always being opened for his fellow actors' needs.

Among other things, Russell is credited with caring for the family of the aviator, Eddie Wales, a great friend of his, after Eddie, having achieved flying fame in the World War, was killed in an aviation accident in this country.

His devotion to all his friends and loved ones was untiring, and one of the most beautiful romances in Hollywood was that between him and Helen Ferguson, the actress, to whom he was engaged for three years, and to whom he was married, with ideal happiness resulting, some four years ago.

Helen had telephoned to her husband, proposing to come home, last Saturday night. She was playing in "Lombardi, Ltd.," in Oakland. But her husband assured her he was all right.

"Well, I'm leaving tomorrow night anyway," Helen declared.

It was too late. Russell's last words were, "Oh, I'm so glad Ma's coming home!"

And a few moments later Big Bill himself went Home.

Lucien Littlefield Signs

LUCIEN LITTLEFIELD

Not only because of his splendid acting ability, but because also of his stage-trained voice, Lucien Littlefield has just all the acting he can do these days.

Yesterday the comedian signed with First National to take the featured character part in "The Girl in the Glass Cage," in which Loretta Young has the leading feminine role.

Littlefield lately finished an important assignment in a Sam Goldwyn picture.

Claude King In It

When you go to see "Madame X," you are to have a peep at Claude King as the prosecuting attorney. King was yesterday added to the cast of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture in which Ruth Chatterton is playing the lead.

Carrol Nye Signs

That boy, Carrol Nye, certainly is the busy young actor. He has just been signed as the juvenile lead in "The Girl in the Glass Cage," the George Kibbe Turner novel, which is to be filmed by First National as a talker. Al Rockett made the announcement.

Nye's work as juvenile in "The Squall" was outstanding, winning him his present part.

Ralph Dawson, former film editor, will direct.

Nancy Carroll Comes Home

Nancy Carroll, the former musical-comedy star, whose first big break in motion pictures came about in Anne Nichols's "Abie's Irish Rose," has arrived home in Hollywood after a two weeks' vacation in New York.

While in the East she visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas La Hiff, saw the Eddie Cantor show, "Whoopee," and says that she stayed as far from motion pictures as possible.

CEMETERY MEMORIAL PARK PLEA OFFERED

Petitions from San Pedro residents asking that the Harbor View Municipal Cemetery be turned into a memorial park were received by the Park Commission yesterday and will come up for consideration tomorrow. The cemetery is the one where thirty-two men from the the cruiser Memphis, killed in an explosion in 1908, are buried. Several years ago an effort to have the cemetery abandoned was dropped when it was found an act of Congress would be necessary to carry out the plan.

SPANISH LECTURE

A free lecture in Spanish will be given at the Central Library lecture room, Saturday at 8 p.m. on "Jose Asuncion Silva." This eighth lecture in the Spanish series under the auspices of the foreign department of the Public Library will be delivered by Dr. F. P. Gamba, who is connected with the Los Angeles Translation Service, and formerly was in the National University of Bogota, Colombia.

Oil Executive's Funeral Today

Funeral services for Hugh B. Evans, Jr., prominent in the oil producing industry, who died of heart disease Monday at the Lutheran Hospital, will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at the Little Church of the Flowers, Forest Lawn Cemetery. He was 31 years of age and had been ill but three days. Mr. Evans was vice-president and general manager of Hugh B. Evans, Inc., and was one of the developers of the field at Taft.

Besides his widow and 8-year-old son, he leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. PARAMOUNT OBSERVES "JUBILEE"

Country-wide Events to Mark Publix Celebration This Week

National jubilee week will be celebrated in all Publix Theaters from coast to coast starting Thursday, according to word received by the local Paramount Theater.

The celebration will be the occasion of special shows throughout the country, with each Publix unit being enlarged and special stage shows presented in addition.

The Paramount will screen "The Dummy," all-talking melodrama, as the film attraction for the week. The Publix New York unit show of the week will be "Blue Revue," with Bob La Salle, Irene Taylor, Frank Stever, Pelle and Cola and the Gamby-Hale dancers. Henry Busse will act as master of ceremonies.

"Jubilee" will be Paul Oscard's special show of the week, with the Paramount singing ensemble, the Paramount ballet and the Paramount orchestra, under the direction of Raymond Paige. Milton Charles will present new organ novelty numbers.

College-Trained Actress Lauded

No girl without a college education should seek a stage career, asserts May Robson, star of "Mother's Millions," which the Henry Duffy Players are presenting at the Hollywood Playhouse.

"The producer of today demands not only merely bright personality and a pretty face, but a broad mental background," says the actress. "The modern actress must be an educated woman. Do not begrudge the time spent in college. The girl impatient for a career does not realize that four years given now will save her three times as many spent in picking up experience behind the scenes.

"Intellectual culture brings a refinement, a quality of speech and charm of manner that can be acquired in no other way. The actress with a college training is usually marked by a quickened intelligence. She understands a command and acts on it and she is prepared to offer suggestions. Moreover, she has had a chance to develop her own personality and, through contact with other people, to gain the understanding of human psychology essential to dramatic interpretation. Even the role of a gutter-picker can be handled with more sympathy and finesse by the college-educated girl."

Youthful Singer Offers Recital

Violetta Gloriosa, a young soprano whose press notices announced six months' study, was presented in recital last evening at the Philharmonic Auditorium by Manager L. E. Behymer. John Ardizoni, baritone and teacher of Miss Gloriosa, appeared on the joint program and was assisted by Raymond McFeeters. Mabel Larson accompanied Miss Gloriosa. A large audience was present and floral offerings were both profuse and beautiful.

SILVER AIDS SOUND GROWTH

Marcel Silver, director of "Chic" Sale in "Marching On," the Fox Movietone comedy at Loew's State, originated and developed the technique of cutting sound film; and several small, but important, inventions of his, such as a device for splicing sound-film without having the joint register as sound or "static," have done much to advance the new industry. Two years ago, in New York, Silver made one of the first talking comedies, which also starred "Chic" Sale and was entitled "They Are Coming to Get Me!" Silver is now directing the first original screen revue, the "Fox Follies."

A TWICE-TOLD TALE

It has just been discovered that probably for the first time in Hollywood's history, the same story is being produced simultaneously by two studios. The story is Leo Tolstoy's "Redemption," and the studios are Columbia and M.-G.-M. Frank Capra is to direct for the first and Fred Niblo the latter. "It is possible for both studios to make 'Redemption,'" explains Capra, "as Tolstoy's stories are public property. He gave them to the reading public of the world instead of copyrighting them."

MISS CARLYLE'S FLAIR

Aileen Carlyle, who plays the plump comedy matron, mother of little Jerry Madden in "Marching On," with Chic Sale, at Loew's State Theater this week, has a flair for characterization, although she is just 22 years of age. Before making her screen debut in "Drums of Love," Miss Carlyle achieved success on the stage, principally playing servant girls and comical old women.

BLACKTON ON PIONEER DAYS

Commodore J. Stuart Blackton of the Academy of Motion-Picture Arts and Sciences of Hollywood, is to lecture on "Early History of the Photoplay" in Bovard Auditorium of the University of Southern California, at 3:15 this afternoon.

Film Carries "Strange Cargo"

Josephine Brown
Appears in the cast of Pathe's first all-dialogue feature, having its local premiere today at the United Artists' Theater.

MEXICAN CONSUL TO BE ORPHEUM GUEST

Hon. Alfonso Pesqueira, Mexican Consul, and a distinguished delegation of his countrymen, will attend the Orpheum Theater tonight as guests of honor of Gaby's Mexican Revue, which comprises Pedro Valdez, Mexico City terpsichorean luminary; Blanca Flor, Maestro Cordova Cantu and his orchestra and other favorites of the southland.

Marion Harris, Natacha Nattova, Benny Rubin, Mayo and Lynn, Lou Lockett, Peggy Page, Billy and Elsa Newel are other Radio-Keith-Orpheum attractions current.

NO FILM CONTRACTS SIGNED, STAR SAYS

Characterizing the report as a publicity gesture, Ethel Waters, colored musical comedy star and current vaudeville headliner, yesterday denied she had signed contracts calling for her participation in motion pictures.

"Negotiations have been carried on, but no contracts have been signed," said Miss Waters.

Following her Hillstreet engagement, Miss Waters's schedule takes her East, playing other Radio-Keith-Orpheum theaters until June, when she plans to re-enter the musical-comedy field or re-embark on a tour of the circuit. Her show successes include "Africana" and "Plantation Days."

DUFFY CELEBRATES HOLIDAY AT HOUSES

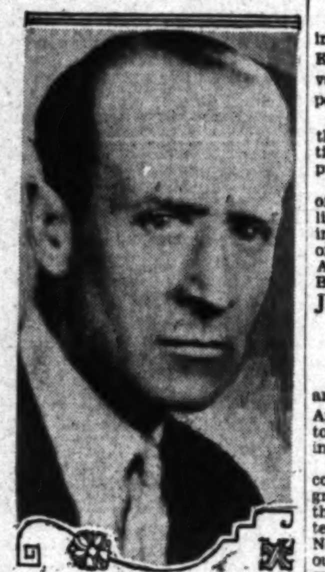
Special holiday matinees have been scheduled by Henry Duffy for his theater on George Washington's Birthday, Friday.

At the President, those who like mystery plays will find entertainment in "The Skull."

At El Capitan will be Frank Bacon's comedy piece, "Lightnin'," with Percy Pollock, Mrs. Frank Bacon, Robert Keith, Bessie Bacon and Charles E. Evans.

At the Hollywood Playhouse May Robson appears in her greatest comedy success, "Mother's Millions."

POPULAR VETERAN SCORES IN RETURN



H. B. Warner

One of the most popular of veteran screen actors is H. B. Warner, who, after his engagement with the old Thomas H. Ince forces, appeared all too infrequently on the silver sheet.

Warner at present is occupying two important roles at local picture houses. In "The Divine Lady" at the Carthay Circle, he impersonates the English Ambassador to the court of Naples; and in "Conquest," the Vitaphone film at Warner Brothers, he is seen at James Farnham, an antarctic explorer.

"Arizona" Goes on Merry Way

"In Old Arizona" entered its ninth week at the Fox-Criterion today.

By actual count 415,000 Angelenos have now seen it.

In celebration of the tenth week of the Fox talking picture, a dance and a special performance for newspaper folk only will be held at the theater and Cinderella Roof the 26th inst.

A $30,000 electric sign is to be installed on the facade of the theater.

All district sales managers of the Daley chain stores have been invited to a "Big Butter and Egg Man Matinee" to be held Thursday.

Special Saturday morning matinees for boys and girls will be inaugurated this week.

'Hot' Locale in Garbo Picture

Java, one of the hottest places in the world, was selected as the new locale for Greta Garbo's latest alluring romantic experiences. "Wild Orchids," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, will have its local premiere Thursday at Loew's State.

Nils Asther, for the first time in his screen career, will play lover to Garbo in this story, which concerns a triangle composed of a love-starved wife, a devoted, but undemonstrative San Francisco business man, and a romantic young Javanese prince, who, according to the customs of his native isle, makes ardent advances to any beautiful woman he desires. Lewis Stone is the husband.

These three are the only principals in the cast.

The picture is synchronized with music and sound effects.

John Colton, author of "The Shanghai Gesture" and other stage hits, wrote the story especially for the star. Sidney Franklin directed.

"Fantasma" is the title of the new Fanchon and Marco stage idea, with Rube Wolf as master of ceremonies.

"Mother Knows Best" Retitled for Boulevard

"Sally of My Dreams," Fox talking picture formerly titled "Mother Knows Best," opens at the Boulevard Theater Friday for its first popular showing.

"Oriental Novelty" is the title of the Lynn Cowan stage presentation which will be a feature of the program.

"Sally of My Dreams" is a story of the stage, and one of the highlights of the picture is a series of impersonations by Madge Bellamy of Harry Lauder, Al Jolson and Anna Held. Louise Dresser and Barry Norton have prominent roles.

JOHN PARRISH WILL SING AT CONCERT

Tonight's program of the Woman's Symphony Orchestra of Los Angeles at the Philharmonic Auditorium will be of more than passing interest.

Henry Schoenefeld, composer-conductor, has arranged the program for this occasion. Apart from the appearance of John Parrish, tenor of the National League of New York, as soloist, one of the outstanding numbers on the program will be the first rendition of Schoenefeld's "Meditation" for string orchestra.

Following is the program: "Symphony in G-minor," Mozart; songs by John Parrish: "Adelaide," Beethoven; "Aubade," Lalo; "Albumblatt," Wagner; "Prelude," Jearnefelt; "Meditation," Schoenefeld; three songs by John Parrish; overture, "Alfonso and Estrella," Schubert.

EVIDENTLY THEY DIDN'T

"The Unborn," drama of birth control, which eastern authorities threatened to descend upon when it was staged there a few years ago, will have its first Los Angeles staging at the Lincoln Theater on Monday night.

BRIEF OPERA TO PRECEDE "PIRATES"

"Trial by Jury" Serves as Curtain-Raiser on New Gilbert and Sullivan Bill

"Trial by Jury," the sparkling little operetta which precedes "Pirates of Penzance" at the Mason Theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, is, while the shortest of Gilbert and Sullivan creations, one of the most popular. It is the only thing they ever did without spoken dialogue. The learned judge, played by Sydney Granville in this D'Oyly Carte Opera Company presentation, is a character as alive today as when he was written. Leslie Rands and Joseph Griffin—popular Savoyards—play other striking roles in "Trial by Jury," and Sybil Gordon makes an engaging plaintiff in this happy breach-of-promise action.

"Pirates of Penzance" is a brilliant skit on the vivid brand of melodrama of those days, which was taken quite seriously by its public. The burlesque police sergeant, the major-general's daughters, the odd pirates of the Cornish coast, all gave to Gilbert opportunity for delightful music.

The second half of the week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will be devoted to presentations of "Iolanthe," still another of the great works of Gilbert and Sullivan, so beautifully done by the D'Oyly Carte Opera Company. This week they are playing "The Mikado" at the Mason Theater.

Art Lovers Will Sponsor Exhibit

The first presentation of an American exponent of the art of sculpture, Paul Manship, is to be sponsored by the elite in filmdom when Harry Braxton, well known in cinema circles, has his "show" March 3.

Braxton has received a group of Manship's latest bronze subjects from Paris, where the young artist is now resident. Among Hollywood's elite who will further the interest in the Manship exposition are Paul Bern, Corinne Griffith, Jetta Goudal, Joseph Franklin Poland, William M. Conselman, Natli Barr, C. Gardner Sullivan and John Griffith Wray.

American film stars who have vacationed abroad, including Constance Talmadge, Lillian Gish and others have evinced great interest in Manship's work, among which his "Salome," "Adam and Eve" and "Atlantis" are to be shown by Braxton.

MacGowan Here to Make Survey

Kenneth MacGowan, well-known dramatic critic and producer of plays in New York, is in Los Angeles. He is here to conduct a survey in this city and other cities on the Pacific Coast of little theaters, community theaters, and university theaters for the Carnegie Foundation and the American Association for Adult Education. Also, because of his friendship for Eugene O'Neill, he is making a number of addresses before various clubs and organizations on the subject of that playwright's nine-act drama, "Strange Interlude."

MacGowan is the author of "Continental Stage Craft," "The Theater of Tomorrow," "Masks and Demons," and a number of other books on the newer trends of play production. He has been a dramatic critic of the New York Globe, the Boston Transcript and the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Wampas Stars Given Tokens of Good Luck

Lady Diana Manners bracelets will be given as a good-luck token to the thirteen Wampas Baby stars when they are introduced from the stage of the Figueroa Playhouse this evening—their first public appearance—as guests at the performance of Galsworthy's drama, "Escape."

The bracelets will be presented to them by Simeon Gest, who, with L. E. Behymer and H. Ellis Reed, his co-director associates of the Los Angeles Repertory Theater, and members of the honorary civic committee and advisory board of that organization will personally greet and congratulate the embryo starlets.

Million Dollar to Show 'Angel'

"The Shopworn Angel," which will be the new attraction at the Million Dollar Theater on Friday, has many things to recommend it. It has Nancy Carroll, Gary Cooper, Paul Lukas and an unusual, moving love story, directed by Richard Wallace, in a brilliant setting.

"The Shopworn Angel" is not a war story of the usual type, but appeals to everyone because it is full of the boisterous humor of the soldier camp.

The Million Dollar Theater is offering "The Shopworn Angel" as its third popular program.

Writers Gather to See Dramas

The Writers' Club will present a set of plays tonight and tomorrow night:

"The Ninety-ninth Amendment," by J. H. Neebe, with Patsy Ruth Miller, Clarence Geldert and Kenneth Thomson, direction, Lionel Belmore; "Before Breakfast," by Eugene O'Neil, with Helen Ware; "The First and the Last," by John Galsworthy, with John McLean, Gary Cooper, Claude King and Lionel Belmore, direction, Robert Milton; "Brothers," by Edwin Burke, with James Spottiswood, William Davidson, Purnell Pratt and Lila Lee, direction, James Spottiswood.

COLTON SCHOOL SETS EXAMPLE

Twenty-seven Enter Contest on Constitution

Four Placed Last Year Will Renew Efforts Now

Mexican Youth Aspirant for Oratorical Honors

IONE LEE

Progress of the Sixth National and Fourth International Oratorical Contest at Colton High School is cited as a forceful example of the effect of the contest on school life and student body spirit. This is the second time Colton has entered the contest. Last year nineteen essays were written. This year twenty-seven will contest and four of the entrants in 1928 who placed in the school finals will try again.

"Achievement in the Oratorical Contest is held a high goal of honor, secondary to no other recognition that may come to a student. It commands respect, elicits admiration and to a very large degree assures leadership in school activities," says J. A. Gillaspie, debating instructor of Colton High, who last year gave a silver loving cup to the school, the name of the winner each year to be engraved thereon.

THREE MEDALS UP

PAULINE SHEPARD

A gold medal for the winner was presented last year by the Colton Courier. "We realize the importance of this patriotic movement in the secondary schools of the nation and are so pleased with the result of the work in our high school that this year we will offer three medals, gold, silver and bronze, for the first, second and third-place winners in the school elimination," said Mrs. Verna Gates Hosfelt, editor of the Colton Courier.

"No one who has given thought to the far-reaching effect of the Oratorical Contest and who has watched the high-school students in their endeavors to place among the winners of The Times finals can gainsay that it is of inestimable worth. The ability to think logically and compose a basically sound address, coupled with self-confidence engendered and the oratorical training gained, serve as a decided preparatory step in the lives of all who participate.

COLTON CRITERION

"If the Oratorical Contest in Colton is any criterion of the interest evidenced in other schools then there can be no doubt that the annual forensic tournament will gain rapidly in popularity as the years pass."

The four re-entrants at Colton school are Ione Lee, Pauline Shepard, Dorothy Rick and Frances Cole. Miss Lee won a place in the Redlands Eisteddfod, is president of the Girls' Athletic Association, member of the school executive board, editor of girls' sports in the 1929 year book and is a baseball player.

Pauline Shepard is editor of the school paper, associate editor of Crimson and Gold, member of the executive board, vice-president of the senior class, member of the Scholarship Society, a debater and winner of honors in school essay contests and in the Redlands Eisteddfod. Misses Rick and Cole have each won contests in oratory and public speaking.

Socorro Arellano, another entrant, was born in Mexico and has lived in the United States ten years. "I never knew that the study of the American Constitution could be so interesting," he said yesterday. "There are so many things about it and its interpretations that Americans themselves apparently know nothing about that I intend to work very hard and shall try to show some of these American boys and girls what a Mexican can do," he added.

Incidentally, the winner of the international championship in 1927 was Mexican.

OLDFIELD TO HEAD LOCAL AIR VENTURE

Old Track Hero in Group Establishing Line from Here to Mexico City

Barney Oldfield, veteran automobile racer, has left the race track behind to help take over the controls of a new air line from Los Angeles to Mexico City, it was learned yesterday when Oldfield and Maj. Monte D. Stone, sky writer of New York City, landed at Metropolitan Airport after a seventeen-hour flight from Mexico City.

Six new trimotored planes will be put into service between the Metropolitan field and the Mexico City Civilian Airport as soon as final details on purchase of the planes and a running schedule are completed, Maj. Stone announced.

The new air line will be known as the Maj. Stone Airways and is being instituted as part of the New York organization headed by Stone, Monte Stone Sky High Company.

Oldfield and Stone took off from the Metropolitan Airport in a Fairchild cabin monoplane piloted by C. W. Gilpin on the 12th inst. The trio made the trip to Mexico City along the West Coast of Mexico and returning over the inland route.

The trio declare they dodged the bullets of Mexican bandits as they flew low over a mountainous section of Mexico Monday.

"We were flying low when we saw several bands of armed horsemen dismount on the ground below," Oldfield said. "Puffs of smoke came from the muzzles of their guns and Gilpin stood the ship on its tail till we climbed to 14,000 feet. The plane wasn't hit."

The party left Mexico City last Sunday morning and took the return flight in easy stages with seventeen hours spent in the air. Mrs. Oldfield and a group of Stone's business associates met the flyers when they landed yesterday.

DR. FRANK C. TOUTON CLASSIFIED "TEN AIMS"

In an article on ten aims of higher education printed in The Times of the 18th inst., the name of Dr. Frank C. Touton, director of education, research and service at the University of Southern California was spelled incorrectly. Dr. Touton is the classifier of the ten aims, and this correction is made to give due credit to him and to the Trojan institution.

Three in Crash Have Close Call; Another May Die

Three persons yesterday were reported to have escaped death narrowly when the automobile in which they were riding skidded from the highway on the Ridge Route and rolled down a 250-foot embankment. All escaped with minor injuries, however, and were permitted to go home after receiving treatment at the Newhall Hospital.

The driver of the car was George T. Childs, Puente rancher. With him where his wife, Mrs. Alice Childs, and a friend, Mrs. Frankie Welch of Three Rivers, Cal.

Childs told Deputy Sheriffs Bell and Boone that his car skidded and rolled over the bank as he was attempting to pass a truck while driving southward eight miles north of Castaic. The top of the heavy sedan protected the passengers from serious harm.

William Oates, 62, of 2667 Queen street, was hit last night while in front of 1946 Riverside Drive, by a truck driven by Otto Newman of 2357 Altman street. Both of Mr. Oates's legs were broken, his left wrist was fractured, and he suffered lacerations and abrasions. Dr. Kirkpatrick of Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, who attended him, said Oates has only a fighting chance of recovering. Detective Lieutenant Bradley of Lincoln Heights Police Station investigated the accident.

Hawkeyes Meet at Lincoln Park Saturday Next

Prediction is made that more than 100,000 Iowans will attend the winter picnic of the Iowa Association of Southern California next Saturday in Lincoln Park. C. H. Parsons, secretary of the organization, cites that 125,000 attended last year. Former Gov. Jackson and Hon. James G. Berryhill will speak. President Brown will preside, with Prof. Trobridge leading the community singing.

This is the thirtieth annual rally of the Hawkeyes in Southern California and their big winter event. Prominent Iowans will be introduced and will speak briefly, their remarks being broadcast by loud speakers. Counties' headquarters will be located to match geographical neighborliness. The association officers announce that if rain falls Saturday or late Friday the event will be postponed one week.

Court Orders Peace Bond on Plea of Wife

Theodore Motridge, Hollywood merchant, must deposit $100 today as bond that he will not disturb the peace of Mrs. Motridge or go to jail, Municipal Judge McDill ruled yesterday. Mrs. Motridge charged that he had several times assaulted her and had threatened her life.

Mrs. Motridge testified that she has been living since August, 1926, with her husband. She related instances on which she was beaten by him. Motridge's daughter Eva, 15 years of age, declared that she heard her father threaten to kill Mrs. Motridge in their shirt shop at 7016 Hollywood Boulevard on December 20, 1928.

Judge McDill declared that "wife-beating has no place in our civilization today and severe punishment should be meted out in such cases. Here the only matter before the court is whether a peace bond should issue. Had criminal charges been filed the decision might have been of a far different nature."

CARTOONIST TO HEAD AERONAUTICAL LEAGUE

Hal Forrest, cartoonist, was elected president of the National Aeronautical League at the annual election last night at Culver City. Bob Lloyd, local flyer, was elected first vice-president; J. F. McManus, Jr., second vice-president, James Beresford, third vice-president; Ray Fahringer, secretary-treasurer; Forrest Collander, historian; H. C. Goakes, sergeant-at-arms; Nat Zitto, official prop-twister. The newly elected board of directors consists of John T. Thompson, chairman; Paul Brace, Robert Nolan, Walter Quimby, W. C. McClurg, F. S. Beresford and C. L. Westfall.

BOARD FINISHES OSTEOPATH QUIZ

Dr. Lloyd E. Tilbury May Lose Certificate

Hearing Centers About Use of "Radio Diagnosis"

Inquiry Results from Suit for Malpractice

Mechanical devices and methods used by Dr. Lloyd E. Tilbury, osteopath, 245 South Oxford street, in his diagnosis and treatment of patients, may result in the revocation of his certificate to practice in California, it was announced last night, following a two-day session of the State Board of Osteopaths.

The hearing, as outlined by Dr. Lester R. Daniels of Sacramento, secretary of the State board, centered about the use of a machine invented by Dr. Tilbury and called by him a "radio diagnosis." The investigation was called to determine whether or not the use of the "radio diagnosis" and the plan of treatment is a violation of a section of the Medical Practice Act, in that it tends to deceive and impose on an ignorant public.

OUTGROWTH OF SUIT

The investigation, according to Dr. Daniels, is the result of a malpractice suit brought against Dr. Tilbury in August of last year by Jo Dell Kershaw, 11-year-old dancer, in which she was awarded $30,000 damages. At the hearing Mrs. Della Kershaw, mother of the girl, testified that the doctor treated the child for an injured leg, using the "radio diagnosis and vibration" method. She said the daughter was in bed for months and might have lost her life if it had not been for the intervention of a skilled physician.

Among the many witnesses heard by the State board were the child and her mother, Prof. Nye, head of the department of physics, University of Southern California; Dr. Patten, orthopedic surgeon, who performed the ultimate operation on the Kershaw girl; Dr. Ed T. Abbott, osteopath physician and surgeon, a chemist who removed various wires from the device, and Dr. and Mrs. Tilbury.

KALT PRESIDES

Dr. A. V. Kalt of Pasadena, president of the State board, presided at the hearing, with Drs. W. W. Vanderburgh, vice-president, of San Francisco; Charles H. Spencer of Los Angeles and Henry F. Miles of Long Beach, other members, in attendance.

After hearing the witnesses and seeing a practical demonstration of the machine, the board took the matter under advisement, and expects to make its decision known following a special meeting.

In explaining the use of his mechanical invention, Dr. Tilbury told the board, according to Dr. Daniels, that by using his wife as a medium he could determine the disease or ailment of a patient by means of "vibrations."

The doctor asserts that certain ailments show definite wave lengths and that his treatment consists of determining these wave lengths and then finding wave lengths antagonistic. The patient then is advised as to the proper treatment to produce these antagonistic vibrations of wave lengths.

Suspect Taken for Preying on Bereaved Ones

Edwin Tucker, 24 years of age, 5401 Tenth avenue, was arrested last night charged with operating a confidence game on relatives of dead persons. His scheme is said to have been to obtain names of dead persons from eastern papers and then mail to the address of the deceased a small package of 10-cent incense powder with a $10 C.O.D. charge. In more than 100 instances, the police say, the relatives of the dead paid the charges before discovering the value of the package.

Tucker was trapped when a postmaster at Stony Point, N. Y., held up a package and wrote an inquiry to Tucker. Upon receiving a reply he notified the Los Angeles police. Detectives Koehn and Hansen arrested him at a friend's home.

MISHAP THRILLS TANBARK FANS

Sulky Upsets in Contest of Roadsters

Keen Competition Keeps Throng Cheering

"Dark Horse" Victorious in Feature Event

Closely contested events and an accident in the tanbark arena which looked serious for a few minutes lifted the Los Angeles National Horse Show at the Ambassador Auditorium last night from the routine display of thoroughbreds to an exhibition which held interest of the crowd of 5000 from the time the program started at 7:45 until 11 o'clock.

It was by far the most interesting program yet staged, and spectators were interrupted in their almost continuous applause as support switched from one contestant to another only to gasp and thrill when in the fifth event for single roadsters a sulky overturned while rounding the arena, threw the horse to the ground and almost pinned the driver underneath.

Pat Sullivan, driver for Mrs. W. P. Roth of San Francisco, was exhibiting Sweet Mystery in competition with four other entries and swerved his carriage as he made a turn to avoid striking another. The turn was too quick and horse, carriage and driver were thrown over. The accident did not result seriously, however, and the judging continued.

DARK HORSE WINS

Three events vied for popularity with the feature $500 stake for five-gaited saddle horses capturing greatest applause. The outcome was in doubt until the judges' final award was announced to declare a dark horse, Rainbow Rose owned by W. T. Treadway of St. Louis, the winner.

The two favorites, Carnation Rosebud, owned by Misses Alice and Marjorie Marston of San Diego, and Miss California, owned by the Bel-Air Stables, finished in the order named.

Next in interest came the three-gaited saddle-horse event for the Mrs. Anita M. Baldwin trophy, which was won last year by Mrs. A. W. Pike of Redwood City and who sought and won it again this year in order to retain it permanently. Competing against her Belle of Oakridge, a chestnut mare, were three entries from the Irving H. Hellman stable, Starlight, a black mare; Ma Belle, a bay mare, and Lucy Barrett, a chestnut mare. Mrs. Pike was given a tremendous ovation as she rode around the arena with the $1000 gold cup in her arms, her permanent possession.

THREE-GAITERS

The third event for three-gaited saddle horses with women riders brought out the owners of the thoroughbreds who were applauded vigorously from the boxes. Miss Lucile Fontaine Fesler was awarded the blue ribbon with Beggar Boy, a chestnut gelding; Miss Elinor Getz's Wildfire, a chestnut gelding, placed second; Mrs. W. P. Roth, riding Marcheta, a bay mare, was third, and Richelieu's Dream from the Bel-Air stable was fourth.

Tonight's program will include the richest stakes yet contested for: the W. K. Kellogg $2000 championship for all hunters, in which nineteen have been entered; the Charles H. Christie championship stake for harness horses to four-wheel vehicles, and a $500 stake event for three-gaited saddle horses. Nine other events also have been scheduled for every type horse, and it should be the most interesting program yet presented.

Following are last night's results:

WAR ON DISEASE REVIEWED

Preventive Medicines That Check Epidemics Discussed as Doctors End Sessions

Scientific preventive medicine that stamps out the epidemic before it becomes widespread or determines the nature of the ailment before an operation is performed was discussed by members of the American College of Surgeons at a community health meeting in the Sala de Oro at the Biltmore last night. This was the closing session of a two-day convention which opened Monday morning.

The great room was crowded to capacity and every box in the balcony was filled with men and women who listened attentively to the speakers.

CONQUESTS REVIEWED

The tremendous strides made by scientific medicine in arresting the ravages of cholera, smallpox, yellow fever, typhoid, and the pneumonic plague that took their toll of hundreds of thousands as late as 1850 was outlined by Dr. Allen B. Kanavel, regent of the American College of Surgeons and professor of surgery at the Northwestern University medical school. How vaccination and serum innoculation has reduced the mortality from thousands to a mere half-dozen cases was stressed by the speaker.

Hospitals scientifically constructed and operated, were discussed and the talks illustrated with colored slides. Such institutions wear the badge of approval in the form of a framed credential from the American College of Surgeons hung in the lobby.

Other speakers last night were Dr. Franklin H. Martin, Dr. M. T. MacEchern, Rev. C. B. Mouliner, S. J., all of Chicago, and Dr. Burton J. Lee, New York.

CLINICS IN MORNING

Clinics and round tables discussions of hospital administration and hospital standardization at local hospitals occupied the morning session. Those in charge were Dr. Malcolm T. MacEchern, and Rev. C. B. Mouliner, S. P., both of Chicago, and Robert Jolly, Houston, assisted by superintendents and staffs of hospitals.

During the afternoon visiting surgeons gathered in the music room at the Biltmore where moving pictures were shown of different methods of blood transfusion with the laboratory preparation necessary for successful operation. Other pictures were the effect of disease upon the kidneys and the urinary organs.

CLINICS WILL OPEN SURGICAL MEET TODAY

Delegates to the Pacific Coast Surgical Association convention which opens this morning with clinics at St. Vincent's Hospital will come from points as far north as the British Columbia cities, and from the Southwest and the city of Mexico.

Clinics at the Good Samaritan Hospital will engage the visiting surgeons tomorrow morning, and members and their wives will then go by special train to Santa Barbara where a two-day scientific meeting will be held at the Biltmore Hotel.

Among the subjects to be discussed during the meetings are treatment of goiter, infection of bones, injuries to blood vessels and treatment of cancer. Dr. Andrew Stewart Lobingier, president of the association, will discuss the influence of the British masters on American surgery.
